Developed sister church relationship with La Resurrecion Metodista in Puerto Rico. The church in Puerto Rico not only receives our teams but also sends a team in the summer for two weeks to help Front Street journey and connect with our Hispanic brothers and sisters of Burlington.

Grew a thriving missions ministry at Front Street through multiple international: Haiti, Honduras, and Costa Rica. By product of these international mission experiences it has influenced and grown the local awareness and contribution to our own neighbors in town. In the life and heartbeat of Front Street one of the first questions now asked before we do ministry is, "how will this help us connect with and transform our local community?" It is now about working with and not giving to.

Candidacy Mentor

For the past two years I have been a member of Pastores Caminantes at Duke Divinity School. Through this program I have had an opportunity to grow my voice and awareness of the need for our church to walk alongside with our Hispanic brothers and sisters. Best things learned actively listening, hearing with compassion and acting with our neighbors.

"Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born from God. Whoever loves someone who is a parent loves the child born to the parent. 2 This is how we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep God's commandments. 3 This is the love of God: we keep God's commandments. God's commandments are not difficult, 4 because everyone who is born from God defeats the world. And this is the victory that has defeated the world: our faith. 5 Who defeats the world? Isn't it the one who believes that Jesus is God's Son?" 1 John 5:1-5

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As a delegate I will contribute a genuine, transparent and authentic voice on behalf of the NCCUMC. I will be a strong representative by living into our gospel conviction - to truly love our neighbors - this will be the lens and voice I will speak and read going into General and Jurisdictional.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

While many predict the continuing demise of our church, citing both our decline in membership and growing concerns about schism, I remain hopeful and even boldly confident. I firmly believe that Christ is still Lord of the UMC and still has a unique calling and task for the people called Methodists, especially in our increasingly fractured and broken world.

I grow weary of the reductionist categories of "us vs. them" and "conservative vs. liberal" that often dominates so many of our meetings, conversations, and conferencing as a body. Mistrust and fear has become too much a part of our common life together. If elected, my hope would be to serve as a voice that represents those who desire both unity as well as fidelity to the faith, even as we engage around hard conversations that call for us to embrace compassion, justice, and scriptural holiness.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

For the past 3 years, I have had the privilege of serving the wildly diverse congregation of Pinehurst UMC. How diverse is our church? Let's just say our core leadership team consists of a black republican working in healthcare, a white democrat serving in the military, a Texan-born broker who grew up in New York City, and a long-time resident of Moore county who has never left home.

Needless to say, it's a complicated place.

As a church, we represent many different backgrounds, theologies, political persuasions, and social values. We disagree on much, yet through the work of the Holy Spirit we have watched God bless our community. In just 3 short years, we have seen an increase in worship attendance of over 33%, moving from an average of about 300 weekly worshipers in 2012 to over 450 in 2015.

I believe the greatest strength of the United Methodist church is our diversity—12 million members, 12 million opinions, 12 million backgrounds all worshipping in one place. This type of diversity is not easy to navigate, but it is beautiful watch. One of my great passions is working with people from every background in the church's shared mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ. General Conference provides a unique opportunity to bring together the entire connection in this work. I would love the privilege to share in this effort. While I know it will not be easy, I trust that God's spirit will make it beautiful.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

My entire ministry has been given to serving the local church. I have a deep understanding of the challenges facing the local church today and an equally deep conviction that the local church continues to be "the most significant arena through which disciple-making occurs." My experience as a delegate to previous General and Jurisdictional Conferences as well as two World Methodist Conferences have given me the opportunity to establish working relationships with other United Methodists world-wide. I will be able to draw upon these relationships and my understanding of the process to provide steady and faithful leadership as a delegate representing the NC Annual Conference.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

Our unity as a church is being challenged by multiple forces within and without the denomination. Our unity is ultimately rooted in finding the middle way, the via media, that holds the tension of current struggles together with the faith of our mothers and fathers. I am willing to live in this middle way as we discern together where the Spirit of God is calling.

I am actively involved in helping churches be more hospitable towards young adults and college students through teaching and guest preaching in local congregations.

I am a participant in the Reynolds Academy for Campus Ministry.

I have been an adjunct professor of preaching at Wake Forest Divinity School.

I have written for "Feasting on the Gospel," and "Abingdon's Theological Companion to the Lectionary."

I am a contributor to the new Common English Student Study Bible, which will be published this summer.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As a college chaplain and professor, I have the honor to work with students who are discerning their relationship to the church and for many their call to ministry. I seek to foster greater ways for the church to be supportive and welcoming of young adult leadership so to create a culture where students can explore their call to ministry. The students I work with lead in worship, intern at local churches, volunteer in local agencies, and teach bible studies regularly.

I believe the United Methodist Church has a great future, because I see it everyday. I would love to bring this perspective to General/Jurisdictional Conference and help the church grow into the future God has in store.

My Charge Conference Membership is Cedar Cliff UMC, Graham, NC. I am an active participant and supporter of this fine and vitally active local church. I serve on the Council, and assist as called upon by my pastor. I participate in various District activities as my DS requires, and have been active, throughout my ministry, in a wide variety of District Work Activities. I have served several local churches in and around the Corridor District as Interim Pastor, on many occasions over the years, as my retirement has been, and continues to be, an active involved one.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

I have been elected to serve as NCC Secretary 5 times, which puts me in my 18th year in the position. The various requirements of the office call for me to be committed to serve the wide ranging population of the NCC, and to help plan and produce our yearly Conference. This requires coordination skills and experience, that I have gained over 50 plus years of ministry in the parishes of the NCC, and as an US Army Chaplain (Retired). I am able to work across a broad spectrum of people with many cultural and varied church experiences. I have made many friends, and contacts, over the years that serve to cooperate with people from many of the Conferences which make up the UMC, It was the Methodist Church which nourished me as a young person, and led me to make my commitment to Jesus Christ early, and fostered my growth as a Christian. I am committed to the biblical stance of the UMC and the social movement that has been and continues to be our message to the world.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I would like to serve as a Delegate to the GC and/or SEJ because my understanding of life and the Christian Church and its movement was, and is, grounded in the historical and existential life of the modern day Christian. I believe my experience has given me an ability to work across many societal boundaries, with people and organizations. I understand the structure and the movement called the United Methodist Church. And I feel that the Local Church and the Annual Conference are the places whereby we as a united people can and will make a difference in this marvelous creation our God has made available to us, to signal his love and salvation for all mankind. With this understanding I believe that I can represent a wide swath of Jesus' people, in the larger arena of our denomination. I would like to feel that I have made a worthy contribution to such a movement as our denomination can and will, I believe, make in the years ahead.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I love our church. I love our denomination. I believe the power of the Holy Spirit is still alive and at work in this movement called Methodism. I also believe that when we stay united and connected together, our local church has an incredible power to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I have witnessed this life change and continue to witness it all the time through the work of Jesus Christ in and through our local churches and across our connection.

During my experience in the local church, across our denomination, and in the corporate context, I have witnessed and experienced significant organizational and institutional change. Over the last two years, I also have spent time in a doctoral program focused on Human Organizational Learning and Leadership with a focus on exploring organizational leadership, organizational culture, adult learning, and organizational change. This program has offered insight into large global institutions, inside and outside the church, that have had to navigate the difficulties of complex institutional changes.

Local Church and District Activities

- Local Church – I have served a variety of churches since my first appointment in 1992. Having served rural, suburban, and urban congregations ranging in size from eight to more than two hundred I am keenly aware of the struggles and issues facing the local church.
- District – I have served as district coordinator of youth ministries, congregational development, and evangelism in four districts across the NC Conference.
- General Church – I was privileged to spend five years as the Southeastern Jurisdiction Director of Ministry with Young People. Working for the SEJ allowed me to work with a variety of General and Jurisdictional Church organizations. I served on the SEJ Congregational Development team, coordinated the SEJ Youth/Young Adult Coordinators Networking Group, facilitated the SEJ Multi-Cultural event at Lake Junaluska, and assisted with the coordination of other events including the SEJ Conference, SEJANAM's annual events, and planned and implemented all SEJ youth events.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

More than a twenty years ago I began serving the North Carolina Conference on the Commission on Evangelism. Realizing that the local church is the hope of the world, I was instrumental in designing the first Academy of Christian Witness, the Lay Academy of Christian Witness, and the Clarity Academies to train teams for local church. These academies continue to train pastors and lay persons in effective evangelism strategies. Additionally I have served as an adult on the CCYM, and have served on design teams and staff at dozens of conference sponsored youth events. Currently I serve as Director of Coaching and Content for New Faith Communities. I strive to assist them to remain connected and increase their personal and evangelistic effectiveness while they launch new missional initiatives for the NC Conference.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

The local church is the hope of the world. It is the only organization that can reach into every community and make a difference spiritually, socially, and culturally. Having worked with all levels of the General Church I believe that I would be able to advocate for the needs and ministries of the local church and assist those agencies to realize that they serve best when they resource and serve the local church. As I strive to be a faithful United Methodist I embrace an evangelical faith balanced with a desire to bring justice and be in mission with those around the corner and around the world. Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

After meeting Christians in other countries (South Africa, Palestine/Israel, Scotland, France, Costa Rica), I yearn to be a bridge builder for the church. Having pastored the first reconciling church of the Carolinas and serving fifteen years on the Unity Dialogue, I understand some of the plight of those who have often felt marginalized by the church. I have recently been trained in Conflict Transformation and see this as useful skills to help the UMC resolve some of its inner dissension. I care about racial justice, care of the poor and elderly, and openness to the new life Christ's Spirit is bringing through fresh voices.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I do not believe that I can provide adequate reasons for why I should be elected, that would be presumptuous on my part. But if elected, what I would contribute to the church's spiritual conferencing is my service in theological education, my work in ecumenism, my passion for ethnic reconciliation, my love for the church, and my commitment to the truth of the good news of Jesus Christ.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I would like to serve as a delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference because of my love for God, His people and the organized Church. God has pressed upon my heart a desire to serve as a leader among leaders at General Conference; using my God given talents that I have been using at a local level for many years. Too many churches are facing a reduction in attendance having forgotten their original purposes in life. It is time to remind the Church that our main purpose in life is to be devoted to God and His Kingdom through loving service, missions and outreach. It is time for the church to look beyond the walls of their buildings and see what God is doing within their communities. Through serving at General and/or Jurisdictional Conference, I hope to make a difference for God and help transform the minds and hearts of our people to be the church created by God for God's glory.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As Asian-American clergy, I have a strong hope for the United Methodist Church now and in the future. I am passionate and yearning for the unfolding of God's new vision for the United Methodist witness globally, missionally and connectionally. I am strongly Wesleyan in belief and theology adhering to the power of God's grace that sustains, liberates and empowers us to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The North Carolina Conference is made of diverse and multicultural Christian communities and our delegation should reflect this current reality. As a delegate, I will contribute to the freshness, richness and diversity of the theological conversation and decision-making processes at the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As a pastor of a multi-racial congregation for 19 years, I have deep passion for offering a voice for inclusivity. A deep calling to speak for the least among us, the most vulnerable...our children...and the impoverished, under resourced brothers and sisters. I want to continue to shine a light on our Methodist roots to step out of our comfort zones and out of our sanctuaries to build beloved communities who will break barriers of racism and classism. I am deeply concerned about our gap between discipleship and mission. I hope to bring a fresh and entrepreneurial vision to the call of Jesus to "cross the road." I have tried to live and lead by example. My only agenda in serving will be to offer witness and testimony to the love God has for all God's children and our openness to grow churches which reflect our words with our actions.

It will be my prayer that we will continue to strengthen The United Methodist Church by reclaiming our roots as stated in our Social Principles, "Scriptural holiness entails more than personal piety; love of God is always linked with love of neighbor, a passion for justice, and renewal in the life of the world." I bring passion and conviction to this calling, believing it will bring an authentic voice to General Conference.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

We are a people of both Matthew 25, sharing with "the least of these," and Matthew 28, going "into all the world" to make disciples. Those passages embrace the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus!

As the United Methodist Church becomes a more global movement, my role as Faith Outreach Director for Stop Hunger Now, as well as 40 years in the NC Conference, helps to position me to embrace the global nature of the church and work toward the changes such growth invites.

As the ecumenical church regroups, my 15 years on the NC Council of Churches governing board (now president) positions me to work for greater Christian unity.

Working with the executive committee (in support, not by office) of the World Methodist Council has further grounded me in the breadth and width of our world wide Wesleyan movement.

The NC Conference can offer the United Methodist Church a wonderful blend of solid Wesleyan tradition and the Wesleyan thinking that can explore the next chapters of church life in a rapidly changing world.

Please give me the opportunity to be part of the United Methodist Church's discovery of God's preferred future for the people of John Wesley. It is time we reclaimed the whole world as our parish!

Local Church and District Activities

For the past three years, I have been serving faithfully as the Leadership Team Coordinator for the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. In this leadership role I have been able to help various churches throughout this Annual Conference understand the meaning of, and become, the Church of Jesus Christ.

I have also been able to continue my ministry connection with a local congregation through the gracious invitation of this wonderful and loving congregation, and the nurturing support of Its Spiritual Leaders and Pastor, Rev. Trey Harris. Since my becoming part of this congregation I have had numerous opportunities to teach and preach, (here and at other churches), as well as, become part of the outreach ministry where my gifts are being utilized to help the Kingdom of God

I was recently reminded of the wonderful quote "God does not call the equipped, he equips the called." This was certainly true for Jeremiah, who was called into God's service as a prophet at the ripe old age of eight years! God came to Jeremiah when he was yet a child and said, "Before you were in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." (Jeremiah 1:4-5)

It is rare indeed that we feel equipped to do God's work, and many of us may still feel we are still but children on the faith journey, yet we are called nonetheless into God's service! Called to teach, preach, and baptize. Called to share with the world the good news that Christ lives and because Christ lives we have the promise of new life as well. I have been blessed to be in ministry with the people of God in the North Carolina Annual Conference, witness all manner of good things unfolding and our collective response to God's call to each of us and to our community of faith as a whole.

As the Leadership Coordinator of the North Carolina Conference, I will offer in the following few lines, a brief synopsis, although not exhaustive, of my ministry involvement in the 2014 calendar year.

Each new year I begin contacting each of the chair persons of the committees that fall under my ministry area of Leadership. Building a relationship of confidence and trust is integral to any ministry. Our conversations were guided by three questions:

1. Where do you feel your current ministry is at in fulfilling our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?
2. What is your vision for your current ministry, in the coming quadrennial year, for as you seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?
3. How can I, or the office I represent from the North Carolina Annual Conference, help you and your committee fulfill your vision of ministry that will help you fulfill the conference mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?

From those meetings until now I have been in constant dialogue with each committee through face to face meetings, phone calls, and e-mail, in efforts to strengthen each ministry area while aligning their vision and goals to the vision and goals of the Annual Conference.

In the area of Speaking Engagements, I have had the opportunity to fill the pulpits of several of our local churches: New Philadelphus, Prospect, Ashpole Center, Coharie (preached week long Leadership Revival), Coats, Reconciliation, Elevation, Sandy Plains, First Church Pembroke, Galilee, Trinity, Grace, and Asbury.

I spoke at a Thanksgiving Breakfast at grace UMC having been invited by the United Methodist Men on the topic of Conference Mission: Your Dollars at work.

In the area of Leadership Training, I have been in the New Bern District at a Pastor's meeting leading a session on what the conference has to offer local congregations in the areas of ministry; the Sanford District ;Coaching and Visioning with Disciple Making way with the following churches: Elevation, Littleton, Mt Pleasant, Angier; the Rockingham District working with Ashpole Center, New Hope, and New Zion in partnering with South Robeson High School and Its staff, with ministry presence and support, in an effort to make a positive impact on both the school and community.

I have also been working with Peg Aldridge and Passion in Partners, and the Rockingham District Native American Cooperative Ministries, in developing a Coaching Summit that seeks to build up and strengthen the Body of Christ as represented by the Rockingham District Native American Cooperative Ministries and give them the ability to "envision and become involved in ministry they would not do individually" calls for a shift in identity from the "entity" to the "endeavor". Currently the independent churches maintain autonomy in many ways gathering for cooperative activities on an as needed basis. Their current identity is closely related to the "entity" of the local parish. This initiative will strive to create the structure and process by which the members of the cooperative serve together in mission and ministry across church identity and leverage gifts and strengths of the individual across the delineation of the local church. The desired outcome would be for the individual, as a member of the cooperative would have greater ownership and identity based on the mission and ministry in which they serve or the "endeavor". This has been a two year process.

I have done considerable committee training in the local churches.

I have worked with the Conference Connectional team in re-designing a Disciple making Way Model that is being used by the local churches in our conference to develop a systematic way of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

In the area of Worship Leadership, I'm currently working with Sandy Plains in developing a more Passionate worship through the development of a Praise Team and using media in worship and creating a more visual worship style.

I am also being sought out by other churches that hope to pursue this type of worship experience in 2015.

In the area of Missions Leadership, I have been involved with the Robeson Church and Community Center in the efforts to raise monies to provide ministry in the Robeson County area. I also served at the annual Day of Caring and Sharing on Thanksgiving Day by Sacred Pathways Ministry. Both of these ministries receive financial and spiritual support from our Annual Conference and are ecumenical.

I have also begun working with the North Carolina Academic Center for Excellence in Youth Violence Prevention as they seek solutions to youth related violence in our schools and communities.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I have been a clergy member of this Annual Conference since 1994 and have never been in a ministry setting which would allow me to serve in this capacity. It would be a true honor for me to represent my

Annual Conference in the both rewarding and challenging time of General Conference. Ultimately, I want to give something back to the ministry and work of the North Carolina Annual Conference which has nurtured, supported, and encouraged me since my becoming a member in 1990.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I have served many of the struggling churches in rural North Carolina and I bring the issues, understanding, and struggles of many of our rural and urban churches. My heart and soul is in the pastoral ministry where the lives of each individual becomes important and every child has the right to approach the throne of God and to receive his love, blessings, miracles and forgiveness. I bring a strong Biblical message where the Word of God is to be lifted up above all else. I bring a strong passion to help equip the saints to do ministry in their community so that Jesus is offered to all. I shared the compassion of all people of faith to be true Witnesses of the Spirit of God in their lives.

As a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference, I will give my best to lift up the message of God and to hold the North Carolina Conference high as a voice that is calling out in the wilderness the Name of of Lord and Savior through the Power of the Holy Spirit.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

God's calling on my life has always been to help Him bring revival to His Church, especially the United Methodist Church. This calling has led me to encourage and equip the church to engage, grow and develop a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ, acknowledging the work of the Holy Spirit in and through one's life. I believe it is through this relationship that we respond to God's love to be the hands, feet, and voice of Christ throughout our communities and world.

As we look around our connection, we see great benefits of our connection, including UMCOR, connection benevolences, sending forth missionaries, and educational endeavors, but we also see a growing church throughout the world and a dying UMC church in Western culture, especially in the United States.

I believe we need continued revival right here throughout the American jurisdictions. I believe we need to help God continue to breathe his Spirit on the church in the Southeastern Jurisdiction and the North Carolina Annual Conference. I believe we need to strengthen our Wesleyan roots of claiming Scripture as our foundation and growing in personal and social holiness. I believe our future life and unity can only be achieved by reclaiming and uniting around Jesus' mission for the church to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them, and teaching them to obey all of my commandments. I believe we have to claim and live into a ministry that focuses solely on the lost and least - this is the key for a widespread revival. I believe this must be our vision regardless of times of persecution, changes in societal norms, and/or strains of disunity and disagreement in the church.

I desire to serve as a delegate to General and/or Jurisdiction Conference to help God bring revival to His Church and to strengthen the United Methodist Church.

Local Church and District Activities

In my local church, I'm involved in adult education and music ministries while also regularly serving in a monthly community meal. I also occasionally preach in my home church as for other local congregations.

At Luther Seminary (my primary appointment), I initiated a Methodist House of Studies and continue to help facilitate relationships among United Methodists.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

in 2008-2012, I served on the Board of Ordained Ministry of the North Carolina Annual Conference. More recently in Minnesota, I've been consulting with Project Eli, a college internship program designed to encourage young clergy.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

While General Conference may seem like a place where primarily big ideas are debated and big speeches are made, much of the actual work of General Conference comes outside the plenary sessions within individual pieces of legislation, individual committees, and well, individuals. The task of the delegate is managing the flow of information, the flow of processes, and the flow of people while holding on to the highest values and vision of the UMC. As the director of a seminary library, this sounds like very familiar work! The North Carolina delegation, trying to seek a balance and mix of skills, would benefit from my skills in these areas.

Despite my current geographic distance, I believe that I can still represent the congregations and leadership of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Local Church and District Activities

Our family worships at All Saints' United Methodist Church in Raleigh, where I serve as a liturgist, lector, preside at communion and preach throughout the year. I also serve as the leader for the Transition Team in the merger between All Saints' UMC and Bethesda UMC.

As a part of my current appointment, I serve as a liaison between the Office of Ministerial Relations, Board of Ordained Ministry and District Committees on Ordained Ministry. This work includes resourcing District Committees in their ministries with candidates and local pastors, as well as nurturing candidates who are discerning a call to ministry and embarking on the process of licensing or ordination.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

Through my current appointment, I coordinate the candidacy program of the NCC, the Taste & See College Internship Program, oversee Licensing School for new pastors, interface with seminary students and serve as a resource for the Board of Ordained Ministry and candidates seeking ordination.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

One of the things for which I am most grateful as a United Methodist and is the wide umbrella that is cast for people of varying backgrounds, experiences and beliefs. My deep hope and prayer for the 2016 General Conference is that we are able to celebrate and confirm that wide umbrella and find a way to remain in communion even in the midst of divides and differences. My commitment as a delegate will be to seek a way forward with a focus on Christ who calls us to be reconciled as a family, even when we disagree. I will seek to live out Wesley's question: "though we do cannot think alike, may we not love alike?"

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I will be returning to the NC Conference this summer after serving for thirty years as a military chaplain appointed to the Air Force. Over the last six years I have served as a senior U.S. AF Chaplain in Africa, Afganistan, Iraq, while also leaving in Qatar and traveling to other Middle East locations as Saudi Arabia, Oman, and Bahran. I also lived in Germany and traveled quite a lot in Southern Europe. These real life experiences provide deep appreciation for our African and European brothers and sisters, with whom I was privileged to worship, attend many conferences and meetings.

These life experiences provide a unique frame of reference, knowledge and wisdom which I humbly believe could be beneficial as a member of our conference to the General and/or Jurisdictional Conference. It has been a honor to represent you in the military chaplaincy and I am excited about returning as a pastor once again to NC this summer. I am grateful for your benevolent consideration and support.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

The UMC is experiencing the growing pains of becoming something new. Our Wesleyan heritage prepares us to adapt so we can love God and neighbor even when we struggle together to see where God is moving and to live together with neighbors we don't always agree with. General Conference is the holy conferencing we engage in to discern how and where God is calling us to go – together.

As long as we are working together, in the fullness of our diversity, to love God and each other, there will be conflict. I have a heart for Christ's peace in the midst of that holy struggle as well as the skillset and experience to productively navigate the work of Jurisdictional and General Conference.

My work has blessed me with an experience of ministry on the ground as well as the work of The UMC at 30,000 feet – a unique perspective of our work, both local and global. This perspective is an asset in conversations about the present realities and future possibilities for the UMC.

In short, I have 1) a passion for the continued growth of the NC Annual Conference, 2) a heart for the holy conferencing required to help our denomination discern its future, and 3) strengths that help our work together be meaningful when people are passionate and opinions are varied.

Local Church and District Activities

After my conversion on April 9, 1984, I became involved in a local congregation. I served as Lay Leader and Evangelism Chairperson, taught Sunday School and lead Bible Studies.

I was called by God into Pastoral Ministry and in 1990, I began my first appointment as a Student Pastor. I have served as a Student Pastor, Part-Time Pastor and I am now an Elder in Full Connection.

On the District level, I have served on the District Board of Ordained Ministry, District Board of Trustees, District Committee on Superintendency, and District Connectional Table.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

I have been in Pastoral Ministry for 25 years. My appointments have carried me to two different conferences, five districts and six local congregations. I currently serve on the Conference Finance and Administration Committee. I have served on the Board of Ordained Ministry, Ethnic Local Church Concerns, Committee on Episcopacy, Task Force for District Realignment, and I am a member of Pastors serving cross-cultural appointments. I will be commissioned at Annual Conference as part of a team and a member of the first class of Conflict Transformational Leaders.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

When I was converted, the only person I knew who went to church regularly was my late uncle. Uncle James was a member of a local United Methodist Church. Thus, I invited myself to accompany him to church. I had a desire to grow in the Faith and serve the Lord. My desires have not changed over the years nor has the memory of my conversion dwindled. I have never had a desire to leave or divorce this Lady (UMC) who has fed and nurtured me. God has used The United Methodist Church to serve as a spiritual womb and an incubator for me. In many ways, I am who I am and where I am because of the "People called Methodists."

It is out of a deep sense of gratitude and love that I offer myself up as a candidate to General Conference. I believe I can add Spiritual depth to our delegation. I believe in the primacy of scripture, personal faith, holiness of heart and life, speaking the truth in LOVE, and the need for Theological reinvigoration.

Please pray for All who attend General Conference.

I have a keen understanding of issues and challenges for Millennial and Generation Z members of the Church and how we as the Church can include and challenge them. My strengths include being an activator, communicator, ideator, and encourager. I enjoy working towards consensus and helping everyone feel heard. I hope to serve the church as a delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional conference because I believe in the importance of the work Christ has called us to as his church, and I hope to lend my services to the task of being the body of Christ; broken, blessed and given for the life of the world.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

Through my involvement on the Connectional Table I have been able to participate and view the importance of our connectional system and the need for diverse voices. I would like to serve as a Delegate because I believe I can provide a unique and needed voice in this space. I believe I could be an asset at General and Jurisdictional Conference due to my representation of the rural church and at age 30, young clergy. I have been blessed to serve and lead thriving rural congregations. Despite the general decline in rural church attendance and giving over the past few decades, rural churches continue to make up the vast majority of our congregations both in the NCCUMC and the connection at large. I have had many opportunities for leadership and listening across our conference and I believe my ages gives me a different perspective, specific to the underrepresented generation in churches today. I trust the Holy Spirit will guide us, as a Conference, to send the delegates that will represent and help grow God's Kingdom. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

I am interested in serving God through the local church and the larger United Methodist connection. My ministry in settings like the local church, Conference communications, campus ministry, youth, camping, and hospital chaplaincy have given me a broad base of experiences from which to serve.

This is a critical time for The United Methodist Church but I believe that God has blessed us with enormous resources, very talented people, and most of all the Holy Spirit. Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

God's church is in the midst of transformation and I believe my gifts of seeing possibilities and honoring history are vital in this transformational work. Transformation is never easy or simple. As God continues to transform His church and this vital part of it called United Methodist, I believe I can give voice to the hopes and the fears of those who serve as part of a diverse body. I am not afraid to engage in the difficult work of serving and leading. I love the United Methodist Church. I have been privileged to be part of this global church in Huntsville, Alabama, in San Clemente, California, in Spokane, Washington and now here in North Carolina. I believe I have the gifts to articulate the vision of our future as it becomes revealed through the process of holy conferencing.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I believe in holy conferencing and holy conversations. And, I believe that the more voices we have on the table the better the outcome we will get. A reality we face as a denomination is that often not all voices are well represented in our conversations. By having the chance to serve as a delegate, I will be intentional about voicing the concerns of the voices that often are not on the table.

My current charge conference is Horne Memorial in Clayton. I serve on the Worship Committee, teach Sunday school and preach and lead worship as needed.

My appointment history includes a 2-point charge in Warren County, a small town church, as an associate at a large membership church, the pastor of a church that grew into a large membership church, and as a district superintendent in two different districts and as an interim superintendent in a district.

I have chaired the District Committee on Ordained Ministry and served on the District Trustees, the District Committee on Superintendency, the District Committee on Nominations and the District Committee on Church Location and Building.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

I have served as the secretary on the Board of Ordained Ministry as well as chaired the committee on Residency in Ordained Ministry.

In my current appointment I serve on several committees and boards for the annual conference. Much of my work is spent resourcing the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

My first experience in serving as a delegate to both the General Conference and the Jurisdictional Conference was in 2012. That experience, with its highs and its lows, will help me better prepare for 2016, if elected. I know how the process works, how the subcommittees work and how the conferences operate.

My work on the appointive cabinet, with the bishop's office and with ministerial relations has helped me meet people from across the denomination and particularly from across the Southeastern Jurisdiction. I am more aware of the issues facing our denomination and thus better prepared to deal with the issues we will be grappling with in 2016.

Local Church and District Activities

I have been a pastor in the NC Conference since 1999 and an elder since 2004. Between field education placements and appointments I have served in most parts of the annual conference. In that time I have served churches from small (the Salem-Harris Chapel charge) to large (Associate Pastor, Ann Street UMC) and in between. I have served on worship teams for two districts, connectional tables/district councils on ministry in two districts, and have helped to bring quality continuing education events for pastors to the districts I have served.

I am a founding member of the Person County Warming Centers, designed to provide shelter to vulnerable community members during extreme cold weather, a member of the Person UM Parish, a local mission/benevolence group, and a leadership team member for local church and community Griefshare groups, in addition to my role as pastor of Warren's Grove UMC.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

I have been a member of the Communication Team since the last quadrennium and serve as Vice Chair at present.

I also lead 3 week online seminars with the Oates Institute, dedicated to creating an online global learning community for spiritual caregivers. Courses have included Salve to the Soul on story-sharing as a means to wholeness and healing, The Power of Story on narrative research in ministry, The Power to Bless on recognizing and using our gifts to help others heal, a book intensive on Joseph Myers' "The Search to Belong", Leaving Church on the rise of the SBNRs and how to engage with those who profess to be spiritual but not religious, and others.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As a younger clergy person, a pastor who is also female, and a member of a clergy couple, I believe I have a broad view of the issues facing the church. As a lifelong Methodist, I have a deep love of our Church and desire to see it continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. As a part of my pastoral calling, I have a passion for helping people connect to God and to one another in transformative ways that lead to wholeness, healing, and salvation. I believe that as a delegate to General and/of Jurisdictional Conference, I can be a part of helping strengthen communication and connection between Methodists, and between the UMC and the world as we lean into a future that calls for the grace and hope we have to offer.

I serve on the dCom, as well as the new Sabbath Chaplain as that program begins in our district. I am committed to spiritual formation and discipleship as the primary activities of the local church that lead to expressions of mission and ministry inside and outside the walls of the churches I serve.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

On an Annual Conferences level I serve on the Spiritual Life Committee, and have received 3DM training as well as Passion in Partnership Coaching training. In 2014, I published a book on spiritual formation and discipleship called Living Into the Mystery that outlines a Wesleyan way of living with and hearing from God in our sacred and secular lives.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

In these days of questions and fears, I feel called to put my name forward for this responsibility. "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind", we are told in 2 Timothy. All my life, God has been teaching me about walking with Him in resisting fear, living with it and through it. Perhaps those are lessons that can be valuable in these days.

I don't covet the responsibility of being a delegate for personal or professional reasons but because I love the church as the body of Christ in the world. I want to serve using the intellect, my love of God and the grace I have been given to do whatever I can.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

It was through the ministries of The United Methodist Church that I met the love of Jesus and came to know his power. It is through our church's ministry that I have seen people renewed and remade. I want to continue that ministry by helping to reshape our future as Wesleyan Christians, eager to embrace our future, utilizing the best of our past and claiming the future God has for us. Our Conference has honored me and allowed me to be a part of that work throughout my life; I want to continue to see that work more fully completed, including the crucial work of General Conference 2016 and Jurisdictional Conference 2016.

To serve Christ and His Church -- that is, "to contend for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3), and to strive to increase the unity, holiness, catholicity, and apostolicity (marks of the Church from The Nicene Creed) of The United Methodist Church.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

I was ordained in the United Presbyterian Church, USA and made a conscious choice to transfer my credentials to the United Methodist Church in 1985. Like many "converts" my enthusiasm for our connection remains great. I want to make certain we remain united. We may not all sit on the same side of the Communion table but we are all called to sit AT the same table.

I am convinced we serve an abundant God and our challenge is not lack of resources but a great need to align our dollars, talent and energy strategically. The Methodist Home for Children where I serve has a nearly 15 million dollar budget, over 200 employees, and presence across the state is bigger than many Annual Conferences in size and geography. I would like to take what I have learned about strategic thinking and help apply it to the general church. I have two "Twenty Somethings" and I want them to inherit from Mr. Wesley the best church we can bequeath.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

Every time we baptize an individual we, the church, promise the person that with God's help we will proclaim the good news, live according to the example of Christ, and surround him or her with a community of love and forgiveness so that he or she may grow in their trust of God and be found faithful in their service. I look at this opportunity to serve as a delegate as my way of continuing to live out this promise in very concrete ways. While it may not be glamorous, it takes leaders at all levels of the church paying close attention to spiritual as well as temporal affairs to create these communities of love and forgiveness both locally and globally. I am willing to pay great attention. I am open to giving myself over to this kind of challenging work so that my children, your children, and all children, both within our conference and around the globe, might be welcomed into such grace filled, Christ centered communities.

Having served as a delegate in 2012, I have a clear sense of what is involved and what is possible. I am committed not just to voting what I may think, but rather to serving you and representing our conference. If given the chance to serve, I will spend the year leading up to General and Jurisdictional Conference engaged in prayer and listening to that which matters to you.

Many say our days as United Methodists are numbered. Others say we are doomed to split. I wholeheartedly disagree! I am absolutely convinced that our best days are still ahead. Unified, together, and with our eyes on Christ, I trust that all things are possible and that in and through our work together, the kingdom of God can and will come on earth as it is in heaven!

Ministry settings in which I have served include Camp Rockfish as Camp Counselor and Assistant Director. I served in student field setting placements at Maysville, Hopewell, High Falls, Fair Promise, Cool Springs and Carbondon United Methodist Churches. I served Buie, Parkton, Zion and The Rock United Methodist Churches before planting Solid Rock United Methodist Church in 2001. During the Solid Rock appointment, I provided leadership for a multi-million dollar budget with over 40 full time employees. During the time of my service with the local church I have supervised and mentored 17 Duke Field Education Interns.

Annual Conference and Other Activities

I served on the Conference Camping Commission as a member and Chairperson. I have served on the Annual Conference Staff. I have been trained as a coach with Passion in Partnership. I have also served as a member of the District Council on Ministries. In 2008, I became a part of the Thriving Rural Church Initiative with Duke Divinity School and the Duke Endowment. I have served on the Emmaus Community Board of Directors and served on several walks. In 2013, I was asked by Bishop Hope Morgan Ward to serve as the Beacon District Superintendent. This District is located in the Northeast corner of the state encompassing 15 Counties, 85 Churches, 65 pastors and over 4,000 members of the United Methodist Church.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

A lifelong member of the United Methodist Church, I have a heart for the rural church. It is my belief that reclaiming the movement of Methodism will reconnect all our churches, regardless of size or location, to a calling that is still deep in our roots. I believe I can bring a witness to General and Jurisdictional Conference that will speak the heart and minds of United Methodists across Eastern North Carolina.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

As United Methodist, we are facing extraordinary challenges - unless we come to a firm decision about our polity, I don't believe we will survive as a connectional church. I believe the 2016 General Conference is a watershed GC - I hope and pray we will not get so distracted with social issues that we overlook what is central to the church. The complexities of our society must not over shadow what is central to our faith. I believe the UMC is an intercontinental web of relationships not only in a global society but with our neighbor next door. The decisions we make will have a impact for in NC as well as in our global church.

I am orthodoxy in my theology and convictions, I believe we must strengthen the local church by equipping the laity, developing discipleship classes that are relevant, practical and inspiring which hold true to Wesleyan doctrine and theology.

Why would you like to serve as a Delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference?

It's been a joy sharing in life together, dreaming for our local congregations, and co-laboring alongside one another. However, what excites me most right now is getting the opportunity to glimpse Christ's resurrection power displayed in the lives of individuals who bump into Jesus by way of the United Methodist Church. I am confident--even as we navigate significant cultural shifts--that our best days as a denomination are ahead!

And it's out of this Christ-centered hope where I'm sensing a call to serve as a possible delegate to General/Jurisdictional Conference. I want to serve as a voice who's persistently declaring God's ability to make beautiful things out of ashes, and also out of our disagreements, and our denomination when we're not at our best. I want to serve as a "holy wrestler" for unity when breaking-up seems tempting. I want to share the gifts God has grown in me--specifically the ability to graciously and theologically approach difficult conversations--as an offering in service to our connection and as a means of serving Christ.
