The Methodist Home for children believes that every child deserves a chance, regardless of the circumstances into which he or she was born. Sometimes children need new parents. Sometimes teens need to learn new behaviors. Sometimes adults need to learn coping and parenting techniques. The Methodist Home for children goal is to create safe, stable homes where all can live to their full potential. Your support makes this possible.

MATCH is a ministry at the N.C. Correctional Institution for Women and Their Children. It is an interfaith organization created to address the needs of children and their incarcerated mothers, MATCH strengthens these relationships. After completing a Basic Parenting Class, mothers are allowed monthly visits with their children in the homelike setting at the MATCH Center.

NEEDS:

- Financial contributions
- Donations for gas and gas cards, airplane tickets, air miles and lodging for families to bring children to Raleigh
- Volunteers to bring children to Raleigh for visits (call MATCH office for specifics)
- New toys, children's books and gift cards to Walmart or Target
- Children's birthday party supplies and birthday cards suitable for children
- School supplies in the spring and fall
