22. I believe God gives me special insights about building up the body of Christ.
23. I believe winning people to Christ is the most important thing that I can do to serve God.
24. People know I have a genuine interest in seeing them grow as disciples.
25. I am comfortable working behind the scenes in order to support the community of faith.
26. I seem to be able to offer trusted counseling to people who turn to me without sounding like a 'know-it-all.'
27. I know God will meet all my needs and I can therefore share my income above and beyond my tithe.

28. I seem to be able to see where people are hurting and need comfort more quickly than others do.
29. Most of my prayer time is spent on behalf of people who need healing.
30. I have felt prompted by God to do something for Him and seen unexplainable results occur.
31. The first time I prayed in tongues, it came very naturally to me.
32. When I hear someone praying aloud in tongues, I know exactly what that person is praying.
33. I am frequently able to see how God's truth applies to specific situations.
34. There have been times when I suddenly understood particular choices open to the church when no one else did.
35. I firmly believe trusting in God will make all the difference in a person's life.
36. I can tell when someone's ministry is driven more by a desire for recognition and attention than when it is driven by a desire to humbly serve God.
37. I enjoy working in the background in ways that help other people get the spotlight focused on them.
38. I am able to remain calm in chaotic situations and focus on the action necessary to achieve a goal.
39. I am more comfortable in creating my own teaching material than in using mass-prepared material.
40. I am good at figuring out who the best person is to get a job done and then delegating the work to that person.
41. I have a strong desire to take the gospel to an unchurched area.
42. I am able to point out to people how they should change their lives in order to grow closer to God.
43. My heart is burdened when I think of those who have not made a decision for Jesus Christ.
44. People often turn to me for spiritual guidance and direction.
45. I feel close to God when I am doing routine or ordinary work in the church.
46. I enjoy coaching others in their spiritual growth, especially when they are encountering problems.
47. I make sure my offering goes to my church each week, even though I may not be physically present
48. I seem to spend some part of each day responding to someone in need, even if it just to listen to them.
49. I believe God still heals people, just like the stories in the Bible tell us he did.
50. I have seen God work miracles through my prayers.
51. When offering praise and thanksgiving to God, I often feel that human language is inadequate.
52. If someone is speaking in tongues while in a state of spiritual ecstasy, I am able to interpret to others what is being expressed.
53. At times, I have demonstrated a kind of wisdom that can only come directly from God, and not from my own experience.
54. God has enabled me to know something before other people became aware of it.
55. I see God's touch in all aspects of life today.
56. I am able to tell when someone is speaking out of an inspiration of God.
57. I receive great joy in serving the church in ministries that enable other ministries to happen.
58. I can help people identify their gifts and abilities and then assist them in finding ways to use those gifts and abilities to serve God.
59. I am able to explain Scripture in a variety of ways so people can understand it.
60. I am good at stating a large goal, then in helping people figure out ways to organize themselves and get it done.
61. I am comfortable with people of diverse cultures and backgrounds.
62. I often feel compelled to share spiritual insights that I believe God has given to me specifically.
63. I never tire of telling people what a difference Christ has made in my life.
64. I am willing to take responsibility for helping a group of people develop Christian maturity.
65. There is no task too trivial for me if it helps build up the Body of Christ.
66. I never tire of offering encouragement to other believers.

67. I believe giving 10% of my income to the Church is just the starting point of my stewardship.
68. I feel very close to Christ when I am able to reach out to persons who are disadvantaged or neglected.
69. People have told me they felt a healing presence when I prayed for them.
70. God has used me to make something happen that was beyond human capability.
71. Praying in tongues has had a great impact on my prayer life.
72. I believe unbelievers can be helped when I interpret speaking in tongues in a worship service.
73. When there are several positions on an issue, I have a strong sense of which direction God wants taken.
74. People have been surprised when I tell them something about themselves that they did not share with me.
75. It is especially meaningful to me to be able to spend a lot of time praying on behalf of other people and their situations.
76. I can tell the difference between someone who is moved by the Holy Spirit and someone who is acting out of their own motivations.
77. People know I can be counted on to think of the small tasks that need doing and that no one else usually thinks about.
78. I feel greatly rewarded when I can help get a project organized and see people functioning to accomplish the goals of the project.
79. I am able to use various delivery methods in class in order to adapt to the diversity of learning styles.
80. If I am part of a group that is disorganized, I will step forward to help them get organized.
81. I would be comfortable sharing the gospel with persons whose beliefs and culture are different from mine.
82. I am able to show others how God's word speaks to today's situations.
83. I am comfortable in sharing the gospel of Christ with unbelievers.
84. I take very seriously the call to nurture people in the development of their faith.
85. I enjoy getting a job done for the sake of getting it done and it doesn't matter whether I get recognition or not.
86. I believe it is important for me to help others see how God works in their lives, even in the tough times.
87. I practice giving as a spiritual act of gratitude offered to God.
88. I have a strong desire to reach out to those who are in need (physically, spiritually, and emotionally.)
89. There have been times when God has sent his healing power through me to help other people.
90. I have been a tool in God's hands to bring about supernatural changes in people's lives.
91. I often speak in tongues when I feel the power of the Holy Spirit most intensely.
92. I am able to detect whether or not someone is authentic when they are speaking in tongues.
93. When I have offered counsel regarding spiritual matters, people tell me I demonstrate spiritual maturity.
94. At times I have been speaking to someone and become greatly aware of something happening in that person's life without their telling me about it.
95. I know that I can trust God's promises no matter what else may happen around me.
96. I am able to detect false teaching.
97. I know that my service behind the scenes is necessary to enable more visible things to happen.
