

2023 Report to Annual Conference

The Board of Ordained Ministry is honored to present its comprehensive report for the year 2022-23 to the clergy session of the 2023 North Carolina Annual Conference.

Our Board, consisting of dedicated members from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference, diligently carries out its responsibilities as outlined in The Book of Discipline 2016 (§635). We carefully examine candidates for the ordained ministry and provide continuous support for their growth. We also offer resources and training for the clergy serving in local churches and extension ministries.

The members of the Board of Ordained Ministry have generously given their time, presence, and prayers to this ministry. Their wisdom and love were evident in our meetings, interviews, and committee work. The culmination of these efforts is presented in the names and recommendations provided in our report.

We are pleased to report that this year, ten candidates were recommended for election to Provisional Membership on the Elder Track; one candidate was recommended for election to Provisional Membership on the Deacon Track; six candidates were recommended for election as Elders in Full Connection, and two candidates were recommended for election as a Deacons in Full Connection.

In recognizing the significant contributions of our retiring members, we express deep gratitude to the fourteen Elders in Full Connection, one Deacon in Full Connection, and six Local Pastors who have served the North Carolina Annual Conference with love and unwavering commitment. Their service has left a lasting impact on our community, and we are grateful for their invaluable contributions.

This year, the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet began collaborating with the North Carolina Annual Conference's Commission on the Status and Role of Women to improve the Conference's handling of cases related to sexual ethics. The Board expresses its gratitude to the Rev. Laura Fine Ledford, the former chair of the Board, for her courageous leadership that made such efforts possible.

Throughout the year, the Office of Clergy Life has provided indispensable support and services. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to the Rev. Beth Hood and the Rev. Heidi Seifert for their outstanding work and unwavering dedication to the ordained ministry of our Annual Conference.

CLERGY CARE GRANTS

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families, as described in the section below entitled, “Eligibility for Financial Grants”. The financial grants, of up to $400 per family per calendar year, are provided to help cover one-half of the co-pay cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference health insurance program should review the Health Care Benefits for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Clergy Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Clergy Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single, as well as married ministers. Grants up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple, per calendar year, are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders’ names and credentials and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

Conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants. Ministers’ children through the age of 22, whether attending college or living at home, are eligible to receive financial grants.

To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name and social security number shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.

Sexual Ethics

Each quadrennium the North Carolina Conference requires that every clergy (licensed, provisional, ordained, retired, interim supply) serving a church or under episcopal appointment (extension ministry) must complete ethics training.

Clergy members make decisions at a level that can be far-reaching – more so than people in other professions. Ethical clergy can propel a congregation forward to do its best work, providing a safe place for all people to explore the Christian faith. Unethical behavior, on the other hand, can have a ripple effect. Boundary breaking causes harm seriously erodes the fabric of an entire congregation while also compromising the church’s witness for Christ in the world.

The NC Conference, in accordance with the 2016 Book of Discipline, continues its established policies and procedures for responding to incidents of misconduct. These guidelines, in addition to a supervisory response, also offer a pathway of healing for all persons directly involved: the complainant and their families, the respondent and their families, and the congregation that is affected. The healing process will be facilitated by a team of laity and clergy to be known as the “Support Team for Congregations”. The team members are in all areas of the conference. They have been trained and are available to serve when called upon by the Bishop and Cabinet.

In addition to incidents of misconduct the Support Team for Congregations will also be available to provide a healing ministry for other crisis situations that may occur in the life of a congregation. When a crisis occurs in a congregation due to misconduct or other critical incidents, the effects can be devastating. In the aftermath of a crisis extreme disruption in the life of the congregation may occur. Misdirected anger at congregational, district, and conference leadership, ongoing divisions in the church family, loss of trust, loss of members, a climate of anxiety, gossip and conjecture, embarrassment and isolation from the community, and failure to focus on the mission are often reported. The disruption may continue for many years through the course of several pastoral appointments. However, when a healing ministry is offered many times, the congregation will emerge stronger and more united than ever before.

The North Carolina Conference is prepared to respond to a critical incident with Christ-like compassion, accountability measures, reconciliation, and a healing process so that all may experience God's grace and once again focus on their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
