Taste & See Summer Internship

EXPLORING
A CALL
TO MINISTRY?

Are you a college student looking for a summer job?

Are you exploring a call to ministry? This summer internship is designed to help you “taste” what pastoral ministry is like and “see” if it is a good fit for you. Whether you are early on in your discernment, or you are preparing for Divinity School, this internship can give you a chance to try on full-time ministry.

Local Church

We place you at a local church in our conference where you are paired with a pastoral mentor.

Stipend

A $6,000 stipend is provided to every intern for food & living expenses.

Reflection

You will have opportunities for reflection on your call throughout the summer.
