

“Deepening Your Effectiveness in Discipleship”

Discipleship Workshop

October 29 & 30 2010

Sponsored by the Office of Connectional Ministries

Please join us for a discipleship workshop for pastors and members of congregations of the North Carolina Conference. “Deepening Your Effectiveness in Discipleship” is presented by Dan Glover and Claudia Lavy. Glover and Lavy co-authored the book, Deepening Your Effectiveness: Restructuring the Local Church for Life Transformation, (Discipleship Resources, 2006). They have been featured workshop leaders at the School of Congregational Development for 3 years as well as presenters at conference and local church workshops across the denomination. For more information about Glover and Lavy, visit the Deepening Your Effectiveness in Discipleship website: <http://www.deepeningyoureffectiveness.org/about-us/>

The workshop is being held at the United Methodist Building in Garner. The same workshop will be held on Friday and Saturday October 29 and 30. Having identical presentations on these 2 days, participants can choose to attend either Friday or Saturday.

It is expected that pastors and lay members of local congregations will attend. While it is not necessary that they attend on the same day, every participating church should have lay members registered as well as the pastor.

The workshop on both days will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 4:30 p.m. The only cost incurred for the workshop is $10.00 for lunch.

Participants will find the workshop an interactive experience. They will come to recognize the benefits of a plan of discipleship for the local church and steps for developing a plan for forming disciples of Jesus Christ.

During the Annual Conference State of the Church message, Bishop Al Gwinn challenged the church to understand that the basic practices of following Jesus – such as Bible study, prayer, and acts of mercy, are not optional. He also said we have focused too long on increasing membership in the church, rather than on discipleship itself. Nowhere in the Bible does it say the church needs more members for finances and activities. Instead, it’s about discipleship!
