

Rev. Dr. David McAllister-Wilson is an ordained elder in the Virginia Conference and has served for over 30 years in theological education. He became the president of Wesley Seminary in 2002 which has become one of the nation's largest and leading theological schools. In addition to being a contributor to several books on church leadership, President McAllister-Wilson focuses his preaching and speaking with an emphasis on leadership development in an effort to revitalize the mainline Protestant church.

Three Events / Two Days / April 21 & April 22, 2015 Pfeiffer University in Charlotte & Misenheimer and Williamson's Chapel UMC

Join us for two days of dialogue as we explore:

- “Practical Divinity” – a hallmark of United Methodist theology.
- Application of principles of the Wesleyan movement to deployment of leadership.
- A Wesleyan understanding of grace as a resource for leadership.
- Lessons learned from the Lewis Center for Church Leadership as well as best practices from Asia, Africa and Central America.

Also, learn more about the new Doctor of Ministry track “Leading as a Missional Entrepreneur in the Carolinas”, being offered by Wesley in partnership with Pfeiffer. Faculty representatives who will lead the cohort beginning in May 2016 will be present to share more about the program and answer your questions.
