DEDICATION

The oldest membership roll of this church contains names of people from Diamond City, Harker's Island, present-day Stacy and Sea Level. The folks from Diamond City and Harker's Island came here, staying with friends and relatives for weeks to visit and to worship.

Therefore, it only seems proper to dedicate this booklet, incomplete as it is, to all of those faithful souls: our fathers, our mothers, our grandparents, our great-great-grandparents; to the faithful members and friends of this church; to the pastors and their families; and to our children and our grandchildren.

We celebrate with gladness, thanking Almighty God for our heritage and the freedom to worship, hoping to leave a portion of this heritage to future generations. May we, with God's blessing, leave it in your hands.

O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou has done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. Isaiah 25:1

FOREWORD

Today, as we celebrate the centennial of the Sea Level United Methodist Church, we will look back to the beginning of this church in our community and reminisce about some of the people who have been a part of it.

A hundred years ago the people who lived in this area were isolated because their only means of travel was by boat to the nearest town, Beaufort. The main occupation was fishing.

This community has been known by many names in the past. It was a part of the Hunting Quarter Township and was called Mill Point or Nelson's Neck. It did not have a name until a post office was established here.

In 1873 the post office was known as the Mill Point Post Office. From 1880 to 1883 the post office was called the Atlantic Post Office but it was moved to the present community of Atlantic which took the name with it.

In 1891 the community was named Wit which was used until 1915 at which time it was named Sea Level.

Some of the folks who lived here as early as 1850 have told of the many protracted meetings held under brush arbors or in homes. Therefore, it is reasonable to assume that Methodist circuit riders held meetings here much earlier than the year 1882.

Also, it should be noted that this church is one of the few on Core Sound that was apparently established under the Pamlico Mission, as the deed for the land refers to the Pamlico Mission.

MANN'S CHAPEL 1882 - 1914

The land for the first church building was given by deed on the 17th day of October A.D. 1882 by Henry S. Willis and Lovey Willis his wife of Carteret County, North Carolina, to W. B. Hancock, M. R. Fulcher, Wallace Willis, Robert Whitehurst and S. W. Hancock, trustees of church property of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Pamlico Mission, Newbern District, North Carolina Conference of said church. (See Appendix A, page 49)

The land contained one-fourth of an acre located on Core Sound about half way between Drum Point and where the T. A. Taylor & Sons Company is located today.

The following item appeared in the North Carolina Conference Proceedings of Tuesday, December 4, 1883, in a Report of the Board of Church Extension:

"The application from Nelson's Neck, Core Sound Mission, New Berne District, for one hundred dollars was granted."

The first church building was built in 1884 by local carpenters. It was a large wooden structure with wooden steps and with the front door facing Core Sound.

It did not have a steeple. Kerosene wall lamps were used for light and, because the southwest wind would extinguish the lights during night meetings, another door was placed at the rear side of the building looking towards the east. Today there is no recollection as to what kind of heat, if any, was used in the building.

The church was called Mann's Chapel for Presiding Elder J. E. Mann.

Before the church building was completed, meetings were held in the home of Samuel and Nancy Salter and also in the home of Jack and Melissa Lewis. It is recalled that Melissa Lewis (1838-1894) took an active part in organizing this church. She could sail a boat and she would take trips up the Neuse River to Newberne to attend to church matters. We have been unable to find a document in the church records concerning when the church was actually organized and, therefore, the earliest record is the deed for the land which was drawn up in 1882.

The first pastor in our record was Rev. T. J. Browning. Charter members who joined the church in 1883-1884 are: John W. Lewis, Melissa D. Lewis, Wilson Salter, Rachael A. Salter, Mary Salter, Bethena Willis, Fulford Willis, Alvenia Willis, Julia Salter, Catherine Salter, Margaret Salter, Elizabeth Salter, Joseph E. Salter, Samuel Salter, Richard J. Salter, Sarah H. Salter and Dianna Salter.

Early officers of the church were:
Stewards: Wallace Willis, Joseph E. Salter and Edward Nielsen. Trustees:

John W. Rose, Wallace Willis and John W. Lewis. The first Sunday School was organized by Weinstein Lewis.

Mann's Chapel was a vital part of community life. The meetings were well attended with people traveling by horse/cart, boat and walking. A dear sister who is remembered today was Mrs. Joseph Taylor - Miss Poll as she was called - who always came to the meetings with a lantern in her hand to light her way home after the night service, which was a distance of about two miles. People from other communities came to the meetings by boat from Stacy, Harker's Island, Atlantic and from Diamond City on Cape Lookout.

Many stories have been passed down about Mann's Chapel. Mrs. Nettie Salter, Mrs. Angeline Taylor and Mrs. Vivian Fulcher have vivid recollections today of the church building and of the services held there. They had great revivals and the people were uninhibited and not at all reluctant to shout their love for Jesus and give thanks to Almighty God. Both men and women shouted and one convert, as he was going to the Altar to accept Christ as his Savior, shouted, "Come on and go with me, Pappy, I am bound for The Promised Land."

Mrs. Angeline Taylor and Mrs. Vivian Fulcher remember seeing their first Christmas tree in Mann's Chapel when they were about four or five years old, which would be in 1902-1903.

Mr. Edward Nielsen was in charge of a Christmas program, and a very large holly tree was cut from the woods and placed in the church. The tree was decorated with apples, oranges, hair ribbons and mesh bags of candy. There were gifts under the tree for all of the people in the community and some families received gifts of food. Miss Angeline remembers a portion of the verse she recited at the program and that her gift from the tree was a small plate with kitten faces painted on it. Mrs. Nettie Salter remembers that she played the organ for the program and that she received two gifts from the tree: a small vase, which is displayed in her home today, and a small jug. She also recalls that people from Atlantic came to the program.

Rev. Joseph M. Carraway served as our pastor at various times and has been remembered by the people with love and respect. His home was located on Adams' Creek near Merrimon and he would walk through the Open Grounds to serve his churches in Sea Level and Atlantic. He was a great revival preacher and, according to the membership record of the church, from 1896 to 1904 fifty-one members were added to the roll by Brother Carraway.

"From His Lighthouse Evermore"

In August 1896, John W. Styron, Bartelet Salter, John W. Salter and his brother Joseph Salter, Micajah Rose and Henry Willis went to the landing near Mann's Chapel early in the evening to go fishing. They put their nets on three skiffs so that they might leave early in order to return before revival services ended that night.

It was an ideal night for mullet fishing - calm and clear. The atmosphere was so clear, in fact, that the inshore beam of the Diamond City light could be seen flashing in the distance. They had been fishing quite a while when the church service began in Mann's Chapel and they could hear the hymn-singing.

They brought their nets together after one last set. Pulling the nets in with the fish they had caught, they decided to go ashore and attend the last portion of this final night of the revival. Also, some of them could walk home with their wives and children, and others with their sweethearts.

On landing, they made their way up the path to Mann's Chapel. They were barefooted and wearing wet clothing except Joseph Salter who was wearing boots, and John W. Styron who had one trouser leg rolled up.

The invitational hymn was being sung and the minister, Rev. Joseph M. Carraway, was giving the invitation. These six men, due to the church being full, stood at the rear. The hymn, "Just As I Am" by William B. Bradbury, was being sung:

Just as I am without one plea
But that Thou blood was shed for me
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

As the hymn was being sung, John W. Styron, one trouser leg up, one down, led the way and they all went forward "just as they were" to accept Christ as their personal Savior. The very walls must have vibrated with the singing and shouting on into the night. Thirty-three people affiliated with the church during this revival, including the wives of Micajah and Henry.

Three years later almost to the day in August 1899 all six of these men were drowned in a hurricane near Cedar Island on Pamlico Sound.

In addition to the above, four other fishermen from Sea Level and three fishermen from Stacy were drowned -- thirteen men and boys leaving eleven widows and twenty-three children.

The church and the surrounding communities mourned with and for these widows and orphans, contributing to their welfare as they were able for many years.

The ten fishermen from this community who drowned were: Bartelet Salter; John W. Salter (the husband of Melinda); Joseph Salter (the husband of Julia); Micajah Rose (the husband of Emily); Henry Willis (the husband of Caroline Rose); John W. Styron (the husband of Rachael); James Willis (brother of Henry Willis); John and Joseph Lewis (brothers); and William Henry Salter

(the 15 year old son of Joseph E. and Elizabeth Salter).

Daughters of four of the men are living today. They are: Mrs. Emma Styron Fulcher, the daughter of John W. Styron; Mrs. Vivian Lewis Fulcher, the daughter of John Lewis; Mrs. Robena Lewis Mason, the daughter of Joseph Lewis; and Mrs. Beatrice Salter Nelson, the daughter of John W. Salter.

Rev. Lawrence O. Wyche, who was pastor in 1900, was standing in Wallace Willis' store on March 12, 1900 when he suddenly collapsed and died. John W. Rose and Wallace Willis took care of his body until a casket could be brought from Beaufort by the mail boat. He was buried in Ocracoke.

In addition to serving the people as a church, Mann's Chapel was also used as a school house when Mrs. Lillian Foreman from Roxboro, North Carolina, was the teacher. Miss Mamie D. Salter also taught there one year when she was a young woman.

William H. Rose and Amanda Willis were married in Mann's Chapel April 11, 1903 by Rev. L. E. Sawyer.

Elijah Salter and Nettie Lewis were married in Mann's Chapel October 5, 1907 by Rev. F. S. Becton.

Money was a scarce commodity during the early years of this church and the ministers who served us did so for a very small reward except for a dedication to their calling. On one occasion, when a Presiding Elder was pressing the church for more money, Joseph E. Salter bluntly said, "You must think money grows on trees down here!" It is recalled that one minister only received one dollar for the year.

A decision was made to relocate the church away from the shore and plans were made to build another church building. The old church building by the shore was torn down, but we do not know the year that occurred. However, the land on which a new building would be located was bought in 1907 and it is the land on which our present church building is located.

The deed was made the 26th day of February 1907 between Job Rose and Sabra Rose his wife of Carteret County, N. C., and Methodist Episcopal Church South of the New Bern District in consideration of the sum of twenty-five dollars, a certain tract of land situated in Nelson's Neck, Carteret County, N. C., adjoining the lands of Job Rose, John W. Rose and others, including one-half acre more or less.

The land on which the old church building was located by the shore was conveyed back to the Willis heirs as follows:

Wallace Willis, J. E. Salter and J. W. Rose, trustees of the M. E. Church South, deed to Timothy Willis of Carteret County, April 18, 1913, for $10.00 a parcel of one-fourth of an acre lying on Core Sound near Nelson's Bay, 62 x 52 x 62 x 52 feet, enclosing a site formerly occupied by the Methodist Church.
Witness: J. R. Morris.
Registered: September 10, 1917.

The new church building was built in 1914 by volunteer carpenters of the community and with Mr. Samuel Easton Davis of Marshallberg as the boss carpenter. During construction worship services were held in the Freewill Baptist Church of Sea Level.

The new church building was a white wooden structure with a tall bell steeple. The interior had three archways, a biased ceiling and varnished railings around the chancel. It was lighted with oil lamps until approximately 1925 when a Delco battery lighting system was installed.

This building had two front doors, one door facing the road and a side door looking towards the south. There was also a rear door. Wooden steps extended from the front around the corner to the side door. The tall steeple was struck by lightning in 1927 and thereafter the steeple was remodeled into a dome shape. Heating was a coal/wood stove located in the center aisle. Electricity came to Sea Level in the 1930s and the church was wired for electric lighting at that time.

The bell, which was rung before each Sunday School and worship service, was also rung to alert the people to an emergency such as a house or woods fire.

The inscription on the bell states: "Cast by C. S. Bell Co., Hillsboro, Ohio, Steel Alloy Church Bell." It is 40 inches in diameter, 26 inches high, and 3 inches thick on the striking surface. The wheel which operates the bell is 48 inches in diameter. The approximate weight of the bell is in excess of 2000 pounds, and it was hauled from the landing to the building site by a team of oxen owned by Frank Small. The bell contains a death-knell clapper which in earlier times would be sounded to toll the number of years of life of the deceased when a death occurred in the community. The same bell is in the steeple of our present brick church.

For many years the people referred to this church building as Mann's Chapel but as time passed by, the name was dropped and today it is no longer used.

Rev. W. E. Hocutt was our pastor in 1917, 1918 and 1919. He sent an Annual Report to the Board of Missions of the North Carolina Conference, dated December 5, 1917, for the Atlantic-Straits Charge, which included the churches of Atlantic, Mann's Chapel, Springfield, Summerfield, and Tabernacle.

In answer to a question: Is the expense of living higher or lower?, Rev. Hocutt answered: "Much higher. No place for gardens. Cabbage 7 cents per pound. Irish potatoes 8 cents per pound. Firewood $6 per cord. No gifts of any foodstuff to the preacher. High house rent." In answer to the question: Describe unoccupied territories, Rev. Hocutt answered: "Cedar Island has no Methodist Church. It is in the hands of the Primitive Baptists."

At this time in the history of our church we had a very active Sunday School with regular attendance by the young people and with Mr. Joseph Lane Salter as the superintendent.

The women have played a very important role in this church. They have been dedicated workers for the Lord in all phases of church work. They have been active in the Ladies' Aid Society, The Woman's Society of Christian Service, and they are active today in The United Methodist Women. They have raised money for the church in many ways such as having box suppers, making up plays and performing here and in nearby communities (when a good time was had by all), selling hand-made crafts, handbags and various household items. Today we thank God for their love for this church.

Because the church had suffered some damage in the hurricane of 1933, it had to be braced on the outside and additional rafters were placed under the roof. Therefore, due to deterioration of the building, a decision was made in the late 1940s to replace the white wooden building with a new brick building to be located on the same site.

At a meeting in Kansas City, Missouri, May 10, 1939, the three major branches of the church, that is, The Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church were united and thereafter called The Methodist Church.

The old wooden building was torn down with the members of the church and volunteers from the community assisting including the women of the church and the pastor, Rev. Charles W. Wooten.

While the work of dismantling and construction was underway, worship services and Sunday School were held in the Sea Level Elementary School building (which was destroyed by fire in 1955).

In 1952 additional land was purchased from U. L. Rose and Blanche Rose, his wife, and Virginia Rose Hamilton and Allen Hamilton, her husband, adjoining the church property containing two-fifth acre more or less.

The task of rebuilding the church was undertaken by a building committee composed of Herbert Salter, chairman; Preston Williamson; James Styron; Jasper Daniels, Tom Styron; John W. Rose; and Dovie Willis, secretary-treasurer.

Plans for the building were drawn by Herbert Salter, and the blueprints were approved by John R. Valentine AIA, Marshallberg, N. C.

The contractors were Hugh and Ronald Styron with their father, Clyde Styron, assisting. Herbert Salter supervised the work and participated in the construction. The beautiful detail of the woodwork in the sanctuary is a testament to the fine work done by Herbert and the Styrons.

A time capsule containing information about the church and the times was placed in the cornerstone of the building. The lighted painting of The Face of Christ, "Inspiration," which is located above the front door, was painted by Samuel Davis of Harker's Island.

The first service in the new brick church was held on Easter Sunday in 1954. The building was dedicated as The Sea Level Methodist Church on July 10, 1955 by Rev. H. K. King, District Superintendent. Rev. Louie A. Lewis was our pastor at that time.

Many donations of money, material and volunteer help were received during construction of this brick building which enabled the congregation to build it without taking out a mortgage.

In Passing

It was noted after the building of the present church building that one of the members had contributed more than one hundred dollars in pennies, nickles, dimes and quarters to the building fund. According to today's standards, this could be considered a small amount, but it can be compared to "the widow's mite."

Roy Hamilton, the son of James and Minnie Hamilton, and now deceased, was a faithful and a trusted member of this church who joined and was baptized in 1948 by Rev. C. Manus Mitchell.

The second wooden church building was heated by a wood heater and later by a coal heater. For the wood heater, Roy would go into the woods and gather light-wood for kindling the fire. He also lighted the fire and kept the stove burning during the church services.

Although Roy was not endowed with a normal mental capacity or with many of this world's treasures or worldly goods, in passing he did his part towards his church far beyond anyone's expectations; and he found friends and happiness here.

In 1956 the Sea Level-Cedar Island Charge purchased the house and land adjoining the church property on the south to be used as a parsonage. The property was purchased from Audrey Salter Fink and her husband, Merrill O. Fink, on October 27, 1956. The Stacy Methodist Church joined the charge in 1957. Pastors who have lived in the parsonage are Thomas Swofford, W. R. Hale, J. W. Lineberger, Jr., J. Hillary Bryant, L. R. Harris, George B. Eubanks, and H. H. Cash.

After the Cedar Island United Methodist Church became a station church, and the Sea Level United Methodist Church was placed on a charge with the Williston United Methodist Church in 1973, a decision was made by the Sea Level, Cedar Island and Stacy churches to sell the parsonage property. Therefore, the property was sold in January 1976 to Eugene Smith and wife of Raleigh, N. C.

In 1955-1956 officers of the church were: Stewards: Jasper Daniels, Clayton Salter, Elva Salter, Preston Williamson and H. Byrd Willis. Trustees: John W. Rose, James Styron, Tom Styron, and Honorary: Allen Hamilton. Communion Steward: Mrs. Herbert Salter. Treasurer: Mrs. Roland Willis.

The young people have been active during the life of this church through their participation in the Sunday School and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. The tradition of having a Christmas program and a tree, which began in Mann's Chapel, has been carried on down through the years.

When Rev. H. H. Cash was pastor (1969-1973) a Youth Choir was organized by Careda Salter, who has been our pianist for many years. The choir was a great pleasure to the congregation and to Mr. Cash who would beam with pride as they sang. The Youth Choir continued to sing for us during the time when Rev. W. Douglas Lamb was our pastor (1974-1978).

The members of the choir were: Kimberly Styron, Tracy Taylor, Teana Beacham, James Willis, Donna Willis, Carol Ann Styron, Lura Gail Taylor, Carlton Styron, Cindy Daniels, Kevin Daniels, Kay Taylor, Debra Willis, Angela Taylor and Stephen Daniels.

During the one hundred years of this church fifty-five different pastors have served us and we thank God for them.

Rev. James G. Lupton stated in the Report of Pastor March 16, 1957:

"I have enjoyed my work in the Sea Level charge this year. Through and by the grace of God we sincerely believe something for the Kingdom of God has been done. Thank you one and all for your cooperation this year. May you go forward in the wisdom and knowledge of our Heavenly Father, not forgetting that all things work together for good for them that love the Lord. Thank you and God bless you one and all."

Rev. W. R. Hale stated in the Report of Pastor April 13, 1958:

"This report is far from what I would like it to be, but I think in a few days we will all see a big change. I don't think we will have a barren church. I will be out on the job in a few days. I don't think the people here will let me down and I don't think they will let the Lord down. We have some good people here and by Conference you will see a change."

In 1960 Rev. J. W. Lineberger, Jr. reported to the Conference that the Sea Level church had 70 members. Sunday School had a membership of 41 with an average attendance of 34.

The Sunday School has been a very important part of the mission of this church since it was first organized.

Sunday School superintendents who have served are: Weinstein Lewis, Edward Nielsen, Kelly Mason, John W. Rose, John A. Styron, Joseph Lane Salter, Dovie Willis, Jasper Daniels, Aldridge Daniels, Maurice Willis and Dovie Willis.

In 1980 a restroom addition was added to the rear of the church building. This project had been planned for several years and money contributed to a building fund for that purpose. When the fund became adequate, a contract was entered into with Joseph Owens of Marshallberg who was assisted by Donald Hadder of Gloucester. The work was completed in August 1980.

church. She has been a member since 1904.

IN SUMMARY, during one hundred years the members of this church have built three church buildings without taking out a mortgage. There have been 225 members during that time and 55 pastors have served us. There have been periods of growth and times of stagnation. This church has always been on a charge with other churches, most of the time with the Atlantic Methodist Church.

We did not have a worship service every Sunday morning until Rev. W. Douglas Lamb became our pastor (1974-1978) when a 9:00 a.m. worship service was scheduled.

In 1982 we have 40 members and a 9:30 a.m. worship service every Sunday except the fifth Sunday, and two evening worship services during a month.

Our GOLDEN AGE MEMBERS, those who have been a member for at least fifty years, are:

Nettie Salter has been a member for 78 years.

H. Byrd Willis has been a member for 68 years.

Angeline Taylor has been a member for 59 years.

Florence Salter has been a member for 59 years.

Blanch Willis has been a member for 59 years.

Ellen Rose has been a member for 59 years.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We acknowledge with appreciation the information provided to us concerning the history of this church.

Since many of the old records are no longer in existence, and since the records today are quite limited, it would have been impossible to write a history without the recollections of Mrs. Nettie Salter, Mrs. Angeline Taylor, Mrs. Florence Salter, Mrs. Vivian Lewis Fulcher, Mr. Leon Salter and Mr. H. Byrd Willis, as well as information passed down to us by members of the church who are now deceased.

We appreciate the help provided by the North Carolina Conference, The Methodist Building, Raleigh, N. C.; the Carteret County Register of Deeds, Beaufort, N. C.; Rev. Edgar F. Seymour (ret.), Atlantic, N. C.; Rev. Roy Burgess, pastor, Atlantic United Methodist Church, who let us look at old charge records; our pastor, Rev. Tom Supplee; Stephen Daniels for the use of his physical stamina in climbing the steeple to obtain information concerning the bell; Kay Taylor for the use of her sketching talent; and a special thanks to Clara B. McGirk for the many hours of typing and assembling the information.
