(BK1337) Safe Sanctuaries for Ministers: Reducing the Risk of Abuse Melton understands the need to educate clergy concerning basics of ethical practice within their particular leadership role in the church. She also helps clergy become aware of the potential traps they face: isolation, improper self-care, and lack of accountability. Safe Sanctuaries for Ministers explores three large areas of special concern to clergy. *Counseling and the potential improprieties within the counseling relationship *Finances and the potential improprieties related to church finance *Sexuality and potential for sexual misconduct. Melton writes not only for clergy, but also for those who work with pastors, such as Staff-Parrish Relations Committees or Church Relations Committees. (BK1338) Finding Bethlehem in the Midst of Bedlam Christmas or confusion, Bethlehem or bedlam . . . Which will you choose this year? The truth is, we don't have to choose, because Christmas always happens right in the midst of our confusion. God breaks into our confusion and is made known in Jesus Christ. Christmas and confusion--weren't they intimately related at the first Christmas when Jesus was born? Sometimes we forget that. But, that's what this study is about--how Christ breaks into our chaos and confusion and brings Christmas--how Bethlehem always happens in the midst of bedlam. This thematic Advent study for 2013 has five sessions--one for each Sunday of Advent and one for Christmas. Each chapter includes questions for reflection and discussion, a brief prayer, a focus for the week, and six daily Bible readings for personal devotional time during the week. (BK1339) Finding Bethlehem in the Midst of Bedlam: An Advent Study Christmas or confusion, Bethlehem or bedlam . . . Which will you choose this year? The truth is, we don't have to choose, because Christmas always happens right in the midst of our confusion. God breaks into our confusion and is made known as a human infant. Christmas and confusion--weren't they intimately related at the first Christmas when Jesus was born? Sometimes we forget that. But, that's what this study is about--how Christ breaks into our chaos and confusion and brings Christmas--how Bethlehem always happens in the midst of bedlam.  The Youth Study is five-sessions that help teens experience the hope of Christ amid the commotion, confusion, and challenges of their day-to-day lives. Leaders and participants work from the same book, which includes readings for reflection, a host of age appropriate teaching-and-learning activities that groups can choose to fit their needs and setting, and a short devotional reading for each day of the Advent season. (BK1340) Finding Bethlehem in the Midst of Bedlam: An Advent Study Christmas or confusion, Bethlehem or bedlam . . . Which will you choose this year? The truth is, we don't have to choose, because Christmas always happens right in the midst of our confusion. God breaks into our confusion and is made known as a human infant. Christmas and confusion--weren't they intimately related at the first Christmas when Jesus was born? Sometimes we forget that. But, that's what this study is about--how Christ breaks into our chaos and confusion and brings Christmas--how Bethlehem always happens in the midst of bedlam. The children's study contains five lessons that delve into the Luke account of Jesus' birth through an ADVENTure to find Bethlehem. They will have opportunities to really experience the story of Mary, Joseph, Gabriel, the shepherds, and Jesus. The guide is simple to use, and includes reproducible activities for each session. (BK1342) Crazy Love: Overwhelmed by a Relentless God Sometimes I feel like when I make decisions that are remotely biblical, people who call themselves Christians are the first to criticize and say I'm crazy, that I'm taking the Bible too literally, or that I'm not thinking about my family's well-being. When people gladly sacrifice their time or comfort or home, it is obvious that they trust in the promises of God. Why is it that the story of someone who has actually done what Jesus commands resonates deeply with us, but we then assume we could never do anything so radical or intense? Or why do we call it radical when, to Jesus, it is simply the way it is? The way it should be? Age: YAS 186 Pages	1	Francis Chan	David C. Cook	2008
(BK1343) A World Worth Saving: Lenten Spiritual Practices for Acti For anyone who dismisses Lent as a seemingly endless time of self-sacrifice and introspection, this 6-week Lenten study offers a breath of fresh air. God thinks the world is worth saving and invites Christians to join in the movement of redemption, Donigian emphasizes. He challenges readers to grow in their prayer life by praying about daily news reports, discovering the needs around them, and responding with love and compassion. Each chapter of this engaging study includes well-known hymn texts for inspiration, exercises for spiritual growth, and questions for reflection.  Contents: Fasting from apathy -- Serving God by serving others -- Feeding others and starving our guilt -- Looking for justice -- Offering healing -- Expanding friendship. (BK1345) Transforming Discipleship: Making Disciples a Few at a Ti FROM THE PUBLISHER: Greg Ogden addresses the need for discipleship in the local church and recovers Jesus' method of accomplishing life change by investing in just a few people at a time. Ogden sets forth his vision for transforming both the individual disciple and discipleship itself, showing how discipleship can become a self-replicating process with ongoing impact from generation to generation. Age: YAS 209 Pages	1	Greg J. Ogden	InterVarsity Press	2005
(BK1346) The Radical Disciple: Some Neglected Aspects of Our Call What is a life of radical discipleship? At root, it means we let Jesus set the agenda of our lives. We aren't selective. We don't pick and choose what is congenial and stay away from what is costly. No. He is Lord of all of life. In the last book by the leading evangelical churchman of the twentieth century, John Stott opens up what it means at root to be a follower of Jesus. He explores eight aspects of Christian discipleship which are too often neglected and yet deserve to be taken seriously. Here, including the last public sermon he ever preached, Stott offers wisdom gained from a lifetime of consistent Christian commitment. In addition, he poignantly reflects on his last years of life and ministry. The message is simple, classic and personal: Jesus is Lord. He calls. We follow. (DVD1316) Serving God, Saving the Planet: A Call to Care for Creati Serving God, Saving the Planet, from Dr. Matthew Sleeth is a 12-session small group Bible study that provides simple, everyday ways to focus on stewardship and sustainability according to Scripture. This study was formerly packaged as a two-volume Hope for Creation and Hope for Humanity. Serving God, Saving the Planet is an experience that broadens the conversation with an emphasis on the dangers of materialism, workaholism, and spiritual bankruptcy--as well as God's endless invitations for us to enjoy what He has created. This 12-session video-based study provides simple, everyday ways to focus on stewardship and sustainability according to Scripture. The first six sessions explore Dr. Sleeth's personal salvation experience and desire to follow Jesus in the context of the love story God tells in Genesis. In them, Dr. Sleeth guides you through each of the created elements, bringing to mind the God-given commission to 'tend and protect the planet.' In the final six sessions, Dr. Sleeth examines how God's original command to 'tend and protect the planet' extends into the actions and activities of every Christian's daily life. This Participant Guide is designed for use together with the Serving God, Saving the Planet DVD (both included in this pack) and includes discussion questions for individuals and groups. When used together they work as a practical tool than can transform your faith. Sessions include: 1. Light 2. Water 3. Soil 4. Heavens 5. Animals 6. Man 7. Rest 8. Work 9. Give 10. Share 11. (DVD1320) The Reason for God: Conversations on Faith and Life In the New York Times bestselling book The Reason for God, Timothy Keller established himself as a modern-day C. S. Lewis who brings together faith and intellect, theology and popular culture, modern-day objections and historic Christian beliefs. Now fans of the book will find resources to help them engage with those same objections, drawing on recent scholarship and debates. The Reason for God curriculum can be used individually, in groups, or by any believer who is engaging with friends who don't share his or her beliefs. Christians will be challenged to wrestle with their friends and neighbors' hardest questions, and to engage those questions in ways that will spark an honest, enriching, and humbling dialogue. The Reason for God DVD captures a live and unscripted conversation between Timothy Keller and six panelists discussing their objections to Christianity. This discussion guide will help small groups and individuals dig deeper into these objections and learn about both sides of the issues. Curriculum Details: Session Titles and Descriptions: 1. (DVD1322) You'll Get Through This: Hope and Help for Your Turbul In this six-session small group Bible study, pastor and New York Times best-selling author, Max Lucado offers refreshing assurance. Max reminds participants God doesn't promise that getting through trials will be quick or painless. It wasn't for Joseph—tossed in a pit by his brothers, sold into slavery, wrongfully imprisoned, forgotten and dismissed. But his Old Testament story is in the Bible for this reason: to teach us to trust God to trump evil.  With the compassion of a pastor, the heart of a storyteller, and the joy of one who has seen what God can do, Max explores the story of Joseph and the truth of Genesis 50:20. What Satan intends for evil, God redeems for good. The You'll Get Through This church campaign kit includes a copy of the You'll Get Through This hardcover book, DVD study, study guide, and a getting started guide. Also included are sermon resources and promotional materials to successfully launch and sustain a six-week church campaign. (DVD1327) John Wesley: The Man and His Mission Journey throughout England and follow the story of one of the most influential people who ever lived.  From a childhood upbringing in the small town of Epworth in the north of England to a scholarly education at Oxford University, and from humble beginnings in Bristol to an influential base in London, John Wesley's impact is still felt, though not completely recognized, today. From an early age, John Wesley had a calling on this life to serve. Throughout every phase of his life, Wesley was a man of influence and he was recognized as a natural leader. His dramatic rediscovery of the biblical message of God's grace offered freely to all led him outside the walls of the church to preach to the masses. Discover the makings of a man who traveled the length and breadth of England more than any other, who was able to inspire the poor, the middle class, and the leaders of his day, and who is widely regarded as one of the most persuasive figures in world history. The work of John Wesley spread throughout the world and today, hundreds of years after his death, still influences social justice, politics, and religion around the world. This beautifully produced documentary, hosted by Wesley expert Keith Garner and shot at key locations, provides a comprehensive view of John Wesley's life and legacy.  Bonus Features on the DVD: John Wesley's interactive timeline and historical events, John Wesley sermons delivered by Keith Garner. (DVD1330) A Third Testament	1	Malcolm Muggeridge	Norflicks Productions	1974
-----------------------------	---	--------------------	-----------------------	------

A Third Testament is the highly praised television documentary presented by noted author and Christian apologist, Malcolm Muggeridge (1903-1990). This revealing documentary profiles six famous and unique men whose search for God forms a kind of modern testament to the reality of Christ.

Saint Augustine: the former hedonist who turned his back on prestige in order to serve Christ.

Blaise Pascal: the brilliant scientist who taught about the impossibility of life without our God.

William Blake: the artist and poet who argued fervently for the life of the spirit.

Soren Kierkegaard: the renegade philosopher who taught the importance of a subjective relationship to Jesus Christ.

Leo Tolstoy: the idealist novelist who understood both his sinfulness and God's grace.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: an uncompromising pastor martyred at the hands of the Nazi party.

This two disc set contains six 55 minute episodes, optional English subtitles, biography of Malcolm Muggeridge, bibliography of Muggeridge's books, sermons and recommended websites. Originally aired on PBS and BBC, this series is presented by Malcolm Muggeridge and filmed on locations in Denmark, Germany, France, Russia and North Africa. Original musical score by award winning composer, John Mills-Cockell.

(DVD1331) Let. It. Go.	1	Karen Ehman	Zondervan	2013
In this six-session women's small group Bible study DVD, Let. It. Go., Karen Ehman provides practical, biblically based steps for letting go of the need to control. Let's face it: many women are wired to control. We make sure that the house is clean, the meals are prepared on time, the beds are made, the children are dressed, and everyone gets to work, school, and other activities on time. And trying to control it all is not only exhausting, but can also cause us to lose friends and sometimes, the affection of our families. It can earn wives and mothers the label of control freak and send those within our sphere of influence packing. In this humorous, yet thought-provoking small group Bible study you'll find the freedom and reward of living 'out of control' -- putting God in the rightful place he deserves in your life. Armed with relevant biblical and current examples (both to emulate and to avoid), doable ideas, new thought patterns, and practical tools to implement, this study will gently lead you out of the land of over-control and into a place of quiet trust. When used together, the small group study Participant Guide and DVD provide you with a practical tool that can strengthen your faith. Sessions include: 1. God Called and He'd Like His Job Back 2. Combating the 'Me First' Mentality 3. Pursuing the Appearance of Perfection 4. Practicing the Art of Soul Control 5. When Comparisons Lead to Over-Control 6. Fixing Your Eyes on the Attitude Indicator. Age: YAS 130 mins
