DVD461 Why? Making Sense of God's Will
When the ground shakes, and a poor nation's economy is destroyed; when the waters rise, washing away a community's hopes and dreams; when a child suffers neglect and abuse; when violence tears apart nations; where is God? If God is all powerful, and if each one of us is a beloved child of God, then how can God allow tragedy and suffering to infest his creation? In Why? Making Sense of God's Will, best-selling author Adam Hamilton brings fresh insight to the age-old question of how to understand the will of God. Rejecting simplistic answers and unexamined assumptions, Hamilton addresses how we can comprehend God's plan for the world and ourselves. This DVD with a leader's guide is four sessions based on the book of the same title.

DVD630 The Role of Religion in the Arab-Israeli Conflict
Armstrong, hailed as one of the foremost commentators on religious affairs in both Britain and the United States, presents an insightful history of the conflict between Israel and its Arab neighbors, encouraging a more in depth analysis of the impact of religion on the current state of Middle Eastern affairs.

DVD633 Extraordinary Women: With One Heart: Unity in the Church and With Each Other
After having overcome the ravages of discrimination, Thelma Wells takes a look at how to love one another, from a woman who lives it. Having spoken to millions while touring with Women of Faith, she challenges Christian women to face this issue. With deep authenticity, she calls them to stop working against each other, stop looking down on each other; choosing rather to develop genuine love. She calls women to aim for unity by living with compassion, mutual respect, and fairness; supporting each other in ways that bring unity in the church and glory to God.

DVD660 Jesus, Bombs, & Ice Cream: Building a More Peaceful World
Author and activist Shane Claiborne believes all people share a vision of a world where love triumphs over hatred, where life conquers death. A couple of years ago, Ben Cohen, co-founder of Ben and Jerry's Ice Cream, and Claiborne crossed paths. Ben said to Shane, I have read your books, and I like what I see. Shane said to Ben, I have eaten your ice cream, and I like what I taste. They started dreaming and scheming ...?and Jesus, Bombs, and Ice Cream was born. A host of talented friends have joined Shane and Ben for this multi-media presentation. The participant's guide is packed full of stories of reconciliation and grace, quotes, reflections, and questions for groups and individuals to discuss and discern how they can help make a more peaceful world a reality. The DVD contains over 2 hours of testimonials, together with visual art and music, to provoke participants to imagine humanity with fewer bombs and more ice cream. Six sessions.

DVD717 Beyond Bars: Redemption of the Prosecutor
When prosecutor and devout Christian Preston Shipp began teaching in a Nashville prison, he never thought he'd be the one to get schooled. But the friendship he forges with one young prisoner puts his faith in the justice system—and in Jesus—to the ultimate test. In the smart and warm Cyntoia Brown, Preston sees a humanity he has been trained to ignore. How can he keep spending his life putting people like this behind bars when Jesus came to earth preaching solidarity with the imprisoned? Preston’s crisis of conscience culminates with a shocking discovery that leaves him feeling more convicted—at least in spirit—than Cyntoia ever did. "Redemption of the Prosecutor" is a short documentary by Brave New Foundation's Beyond Bars campaign, which produces videos and engages social media to fight mass incarceration. Running time is 22 minutes. Includes discussion guide. Watch a preview at: http://www.redemptionoftheprosecutor.org/
Resource codes that begin with VC are on VHS tape and require a VCR.

VC130  Bonhoeffer: A Life of Challenge
"Who is the Christ for us today?" is the question that some say led Dietrich Bonhoeffer to a martyr's death. Reflective tributes and a view of this exceptional life are presented in this video. A leader's guide is included.

VC170  Christian Faith in A Violent World
"This video presents examples of laity and clergy serving as ministers of God's saving word in the midst of a violent world." It looks at forms of domestic violence, violence against children, and crime and violence in the media. A study guide is included.

VC588  Joshua-Judges: The Standard Bible Study
8 sessions. "Using vibrant animated maps, visual materials from Canaan and interviews with both Christian and Jewish scholars, the Joshua-Judges material come to life." Military uprisings, roles of important women leaders such as Deborah, violence and religious fanatics are some of the interesting topics covered in this series. It comes with a leader's guide and sample student book.

VC674  Make a Little Difference
Produced by the United Nations High Commission for Refugees, this video presents the voices of refugee children from around the world.

VC780  No Place to Call Home

Request materials from the NCCUMC Media Center by calling 800-849-4433 x264, email ldallas@nccumc.org, or visit http://www.nccumc.org/mediacenter.
BK496 The Beatitudes for Today
Howell, pastor of Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte, applies Jesus' teachings to our lives today. Illustrations and discussion questions will help your group look at these well known phrases in a new way.

BK927 For the Peace of the World
A Christian Curriculum on International Relations from the National Council of Churches. For the Peace of the World considers questions such as: What is the role of our country as a global citizen? Is fear driving us? Is our strength as a nation in military or economic power, or in cherished cultural values? What does our faith teach us about our actions in the world? Divided into six sessions of less than 60 minutes each, For the Peace of the World is designed especially for adults in congregational religion classes. It is also perfect for high school social studies classes, campus ministry programs, social justice groups, college seminars, and book groups. Includes appendices on what citizens can do to make a difference, a list of websites, and worship resources. Additional information at: http://www.ncccusa.org/peace.

BK1076 Capital Punishment: A Faith-Based Study
This short-term study comes at a time when there is considerable national debate and commentary on the administration of the death penalty. This study combines Bible study with compelling stories from persons who have been directly affected by capital crimes to help adults form and/or reform their thinking on capital punishment. It looks at various denominational views and nations’ policies related to the issue, as well as providing several suggested plans for actions.

BK1077 A Call to Hope: Living as Christians in a Violent Society
Vera K. White helps us look realistically at the violence of the world around us, at our own fears, and at God's call to live in "shalom."

BK1094 Antagonists in the Church: How to Identify and Deal with Destructive Conflict
Antagonism exists in the church. It leaves in its wake broken lives: people who are hurt, discouraged, and apathetic. Although only a very few persons are antagonists, these individuals have the potential to disrupt and even destroy a congregation's mission and ministry. In this balanced and practical book, Kenneth Haugk shows how congregational leaders can learn to prevent or reduce much of the pain and suffering caused by antagonism; tell the difference between constructive, healthy conflict and destructive antagonism; and cope with antagonism when it arises.

BK1095 Antagonists in the Church: Study Guide
Antagonism leaves in its wake broken lives: people who are hurt, discouraged, and apathetic. Although only a very few persons are antagonists, these individuals have the potential to disrupt and even destroy a congregation's mission and ministry. This study guide enables congregational boards, committees, and study groups, clergy convocations, judicatory boards, and other groups to discuss key questions, share experiences, and learn valuable skills for dealing with antagonism. Reflection questions, self-surveys, Bible study helps, and role-playing ideas help church leaders prevent or reduce much of the pain and suffering caused by antagonism.

BK1139 Families Creating a Circle of Peace
A Guide for Living the Family Pledge of Nonviolence. Includes stories, suggestions, activities, and other resources to help people live each component of the pledge in their day-to-day lives. This booklet is a project of the Families Against Violence program created by the Parenting for Peace and Justice Network.

BK1141 Engage Conflict Well

A five-session study based on scripture and policy work by the North Carolina Council of Churches. Includes reproducible worksheets.

BK1247  The Beauty and Courage of Sudan: Why a Dream of Peace is Possible: Mission Study
This mission study offers a portrait of Sudan’s spirit of courage, promising the hope that eventually they will realize their dream of peace. Includes one or four session study guide.

Youth Video Resources

DVD184  Peace DVD: Especially for Youth
A 6 session series: Peace with God, Peace and Community, Peace and the Earth, Peace and Service, Peace and Nation, and Bits and Peaces. DVD provides material for each of the sessions ranging from 5 minutes to 25 minutes of the session's time. Leader's guide provides plan including scripture and discussion.

DVD572  The Jesus Creed for Students

DVD597  Stop Bullying! Standing Up for Yourself and Others
Bullying is pervasive in our schools. Over 150,000 students stay home from school each day to avoid harassment from their peers. An estimated 1.6 million young people in grades six through ten are bullied at least once a week. Many young people feel helpless in these situations. They need to know what to do if they are bullied or if they are a witness to bullying. Through expert advice and students' real-life experiences, Stop Bullying! gives students concrete steps they can take to respond to bullying. Stop Bullying! features nationally acclaimed and Emmy-nominated youth speaker, Mark Brown, who has dedicated his career to helping young people all over the USA. Jamaican-born Brown uses his own personal experience with having been bullied as he speaks to thousands of kids each year about the importance of tolerance and respect.

KIT84  Thermostat DVD and Study Guide
Thermostat features a DVD and study guide with 33 sessions divided into 7 units: Peacemaking, Imagination, Allegiance, Security, Terrorism, Camouflage and Nonviolence. You can mix and match to choose what interests your group most. Sessions include Bible studies, role plays, personal stories, video clips, dramas, handouts, background reading and more. Though Thermostat is designed for youth groups, many sessions encourage intergenerational conversation.

KIT105  Rings of Fellowship Bible Study
Rings of Fellowship is Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries' youth Bible study curriculum. First developed in partnership with the NC Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, RINGS follows the model of DISCIPLE and is designed to reach teens in an innovative format that promotes spiritual growth and positive peer dynamics. RINGS stands for Responsibility, Invitation, Neighbors, God and Service and teaches the Biblical themes of love for God and love for neighbor. RINGS is suitable for use in a number of settings including local church youth groups, youth Sunday School classes, institutional settings or as a community-based outreach.

BK699 Burst: Bullies & Mean Girls - Leader's Guide
BURST: Bullies and Mean Girls addresses issues all-too familiar to today's youth. From the girls who use gossip to the boys who use physical threats (and vice versa), bullying is as rampant as ever. More information out there via social networking, texting, and even sexting means today's teens are vulnerable in new dangerous ways. This resource will be a short-term study on the relationships that use power to define roles in negative ways so that youth group participants will be able to identify, avoid, and heal from harmful situations while learning more about God's love for them and hopes for their lives. 6 sessions. The Media Center only has the leader's guide. Student books can be ordered from Cokesbury.

BK739 3V Bible Study: Called to Love and Justice
3-V is a series of seven different advanced Bible study courses designed for the Sr. High level. 3-V is a serious learning tool that forces students to think, by challenging them to investigate. Throughout a variety of texts and topics, 3-V poses a series of three probing questions in order to enhance a student’s comprehension, interpretation, and application of a scripture. This 3V study series listens to the prophets and brings their long-ago cries for the righteousness of love and justice into today's life.
