American Greater Armenian Partnership Efforts

A COLLABORATIVE EFFORT OF THE

NORTH CAROLINA AND
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCES
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Humanitarian Partnership: 6,000 Miles; Countless People

Project AGAPE is the collaborative effort of both United Methodist conferences in North Carolina, who have worked in cooperation with the Armenian Apostolic Church since 1993/1994, some 6,000 miles away in the Euro-Asian part of the world.

This ministry of the Western NC and North Carolina Conferences served the Kashatagh region as the sole humanitarian aid partnership licensed by the Republic of Artsakh (Nagorno-Karabakh) government. Long-standing, multi-layered conflict had prevented any other humanitarian group from working with the people of this area, until the third and the worst war in the last 30 years forced these people to become refugees for the second time in their lives.

In more than two decades of ministry, Project AGAPE has shared the love of Christ by continuing early projects and adopting new efforts for and with the people of Armenia and Artsakh. At the present, this ministry serves the displaced families of Kashatagh and in border villages.

It isn’t a matter of the conferences just giving time, talents and money. Project AGAPE efforts help the people learn and grow into better lives for individuals, families and the communities.

Essential Ministry Grows

The ministry of Project AGAPE is multi-tiered:

- Humanitarian aid items are dropped off/collection from all over the state. They are sorted at the Response Center in Terrell or the MERCi Center in Goldsboro, then shipped to Yerevan in Armenia.
- The Project AGAPE Country Director coordinates the customs clearance and transportation of the items from Yerevan to the new AGAPE Center in Vayk, where they are distributed.
- We have started providing vocational training such as cosmetology, manicure, hairdressing, which are in much demand, to help the displaced families become self-supporting. This vocational program is not limited to these vocations and has potential to be extended to other areas, like carpentry and bakery, if someone has skills and lacks appropriate tools. Monetary gifts are welcome toward this program.
- Mission building teams rebuild houses and help displaced families find hope in their new places of resettlement. At least one building team from each conference, and often more, work each year, missionally engaging the community.
- Donations help support the former Bishop of the Armenian Apostolic Church who now serves in a village not far from Stepanakert, provides the AGAPE staff salaries, and pays operational costs, such as utilities, warehouse rental, insurance, office space, vehicle repairs, fuel, etc.

Participate: Take Your Pick

Humanitarian aid:
Encourage individuals, churches and groups of any size to support this WNC and NCC United Methodist ministry of humanitarian aid for the children, women and men of Armenia. See the websites below for current information.

The downloads on the site feature current information for all of your gifts and/or donations to Project AGAPE:

- Christmas Shoe Box lists
- Current humanitarian aid needs/packing instructions
- Locations/dates/hours for drop-off/collection points

Other ways to contribute:

- Contribute on Project AGAPE Sunday and/or any time of the year through your local church or mail to the conference of your choice (back panel). One-time or regular monetary gifts are welcome all year round.
- Fellowship of 1000: Donate $100 per year. 1,000 gifts total $100,000 toward prior budget shortages and making all Project AGAPE operations a reality.
- Families will be provided again with animals through the Agricultural Development Project, getting cattle and chickens, along with tools for gardening. Monetary gifts are welcome for this project.

Project AGAPE Gathers, Gives

Don’t know what humanitarian aid is needed and/or being accepted for Project AGAPE? The list below offers suggestions.

- Bedding (new/used)
- Clothing (new/used)
- Clothing Accessories
- Carpentry Tools
- Coats (new/used)
- Children’s Christmas Boxes
- Health/Hygiene Items
- Uniforms

Household Items
- Infant Items
- Kitchen wares
- Office supplies
- School supplies
- Sewing supplies
- Shoes (new only)
- Toys (new only)

Helpful tips:

- Recommended box size for humanitarian aids 16” X 12” X 12” as they can be reused as part of a shipment (not Christmas boxes - see individual website for Christmas box instructions)
- Use the contents on the outside of the box.
- Pack the boxes as full and tight as possible.
- If possible, avoid using plastic bags.

No longer accepted for Project AGAPE:

- Food (including candy and gum)
- Medicines
- Electrical items and large appliances
- Any items with batteries included
- Clothing that is worn, torn, or dirty
- Anything that is broken or needs repair

See the conference websites for current information.
