The Resistance Continues:
An Indigenous Colombian Perspective
with: María Violet Medina Quiscué,
The general coordinator for Committee of Indigenous Peoples Victims of the Armed Conflict in Bogota, a grassroots organization representing 16 Indigenous groups currently living in conditions of forced displacement in the city of Bogota, Colombia.

When: November 8th, 5:30-7:00pm
Where: White Plains UMC
313 SE Maynard Rd. Cary, NC 27511

For More Information www.wfpse.org or contact: tirzah@solidaritycollective.org