

Hope & Action: Resourcing Congregations for Hospitality.

This event will provide a vital space for all our congregations, especially English-speaking congregations, to learn about current immigration policies and laws, dispel myths about migrants, immigrants, and refugees, and explore ways to support individuals at risk of mass deportation. The session is designed to equip congregations to become more hospitable to migrant and immigrant communities while fostering understanding, hope, and solidarity.

Online Gathering

Date: Wednesday,
February 12, 2025

Time: 7:00–8:30 p.m.

nccumc.org/hope

Special Guest: Doug Thie

Doug Thie, an experienced immigration attorney and partner at Clawson & Staubes, LLC, practices exclusively in immigration law. He represents individuals, families, and businesses in visa applications, permanent residency, citizenship, and deportation relief. As the Chair of the ALLA Carolinas Chapter, Doug brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the conversation.

Hispanic-Latinx Ministries
North Carolina Conference
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH