A Future with Hope: Loving Like Jesus

The 2012 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference opens June 13, under the banner of our quadrennial theme: “A Future with Hope.” Lay and clergy members representing, for the last time, the churches of 12 districts in the Conference, will assemble at the Convention Center in Raleigh.

At the beginning of the quadrennium (2009–2012), the theme was introduced, as we remembered the word of God, spoken to Jeremiah during a difficult time in Judah’s history, “For surely I know the plans I have for you . . . , plans for your welfare and not to harm, to give you a future with hope.” (Jeremiah 29:11)

Each year we have added an emphasis:

- 2009 – Learning (from Jesus and his followers)
- 2010 – Living for Jesus
- 2011 – Leading to Jesus
- 2012 – Loving like Jesus

Jesus identified the greatest commandment when asked, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” Then with his characteristic wisdom, he added, “A second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” (Matthew 22:37–38) In his ministry, Jesus compassion was shown to saints and sinners alike, as he demonstrated who is our neighbor.

As the early Christian community embodied the commandment, observers noticed the cross-cultural, cross-generational community and exclaimed, “See how they love one another!” The church experienced growth in numbers. Lives were transformed. The love of Jesus was extended to the ends of the earth through the arms of his followers.

Loving like Jesus launched the Christian church in the first century. Loving like Jesus created a culture of transformation in 18th century England where the vision and mission of the Wesley’s challenged the status quo of the established church. Loving like Jesus gave circuit riding preachers the courage and determination to move into the frontier of American expansion. Loving like Jesus requires no less of us today. And it is this love that is indeed our hope for the future.

At the 2012 session of the Annual Conference, members will hear the report from General Conference, elect leaders for the Conference boards, commissions and committees for the 2013–2016 quadrennium (or similar tenure as defined by the Book of Discipline), and celebrate the ministry of pastors commissioned or ordained for the first time as well as, the ministry of others who are retiring, including our Bishop, Al Gwinn. The Conference will consider plans for congregational vitality and move into a new structure with 8 districts and new roles for District Superintendents. Let it be said of the NC Conference, “See how they love one another!”

Rules of Order and Procedure

SECTION I: Rules of Order and Procedure

A. Applicability and Amendment of these Conference Rules

1. The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. If any part of these rules conflicts with the current edition of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Book of Discipline shall prevail.
3. These rules of order and procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference* of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the annual conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the North Carolina Annual Conference until superseded. [See note at end of Conference Rules]
4. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing.
5. These rules of order and procedure of The North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon adoption by the Annual Conference.

B. Motions, Amendments, Reports and Resolutions

1. Main motions presented to the Annual Conference shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary prior to, or immediately following, presentation.
2. Reports, recommendations, and resolutions coming from boards, agencies and committees of the Annual Conference to be included in the on-line posting shall be sent to the Conference Secretary, in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary, on or before the deadline set by the secretary and published in the Annual Conference calendar.
3. Resolutions to be presented to the annual conference, other than those coming from boards, agencies, and committees, shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary and the chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary with the deadline set in accordance to Section I, paragraph B.2 , but not less than thirty (30) days prior to the opening of the annual conference, to allow time for review by the Conference Secretary, the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, and all members of the Annual Conference. Individuals and non-official organizations may submit only one resolution for consideration.
4. The Committee on Resolutions and Reference shall schedule all properly presented resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference. The scheduling of resolutions from Conference boards or agencies will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral. Any resolution coming from a source other than an Annual Conference board or agency will be reviewed by this committee, which shall then recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the Committee on Resolutions and Reference shall state the rationale for the recommendation.

5. A resolution, motion, amendment or report is considered presented to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Annual Conference publications, and/or on the Conference website, or distributed to members on the floor of the annual conference after authorization by the Conference Secretary or the Assistant Secretary, and chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. The expense for distributed copies shall be borne by the agency or person originating the resolution, and all copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be voted on unless it has been presented at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. All resolutions shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, which shall report to the annual conference.
6. Early in each annual conference, the Council on Finance and Administration shall present a proposed budget for consideration and debate, but not action. After consideration and debate, the proposed budget will lie on the table until the final report of the Council on Finance and Administration. Any motion to change the proposed budget may be considered, debated, and voted on, and if affirmed, will be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration. In its final report on the last day of business (See) the Council on Finance and Administration will indicate their concurrence or non-concurrence with any such motion before final passage of the budget.

C. Speeches

1. Speeches shall be limited to three (3) minutes except by consent of the Annual Conference.
2. A member may speak only once on any motion until all who desire to speak have done so, and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency, or someone designated by him/her, shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.

D. Voting

1. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the annual conference. The Annual Conference shall determine the bar of the annual conference at the beginning of the first session.

E. Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. In the Annual Conference prior to the election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference the Annual Conference Rules Committee shall propose the manner of election to be approved by Annual Conference.
2. Prior to the convening of any annual conference that will elect delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, the Conference Secretary will publish eligibility requirements and voting procedures for election of delegates.
3. Episcopal Nominations--At the conclusion of an annual conference that conducts elections for clergy and lay delegates to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference, the entire newly elected delegation (clergy and laity) will meet. The first clergy elected will be acknowledged as an automatic nominee for bishop. Other nominations will be received from members of the delegation. Such nominations will be made by secret ballot. Nominees can be any Elder in good standing in the NCCUMC. A delegate will be given the opportunity to speak regarding his/her nominee. A secret ballot vote will follow immediately. The vote will narrow the field of nominees to a number not to exceed 10% of the delegation. As soon as possible, officers of the delegation, or those whom they designate, will contact the nominees selected during this process and upon request share with them the results of the vote concerning their nomination. They will be given three weeks to discern God's will for their ministries. Those who accept nomination must submit by July 15 a one-page biographical statement to the delegation Secretary, who will distribute all such statements to all members of the delegation. Before September 1, the delegation will meet and engage the nominees. This day of discernment will include each nominee's making a presentation (10 minutes), responding to a set of questions composed by the delegation officers or those whom they designate (10 minutes), responding to questions from the floor of the meeting (10 minutes), and offering closing remarks (1 minute). Immediately after meeting with the nominees, the delegation will vote, perhaps several times, by written ballot. The nominee, who earns the delegation's endorsement, must receive at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 5 votes the delegation present has not cast 60% (or more) of its ballots for one nominee, the delegation and the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. At the annual conference immediately before Jurisdictional Conference, the delegation's nominee will make a brief speech and be endorsed (or not) by vote of the Annual Conference; endorsement by the Annual Conference requires at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 3 votes the Annual Conference members present have not cast 60% (or more) of their ballots for one nominee, the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. A nominee endorsed by the Annual Conference becomes the Annual Conference's nominee for bishop.

SECTION II: Districts

- A. Number of Districts - The number of districts shall be eight (8). A motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. A note on usage in this document:*

The terms “North Carolina Annual Conference,” “Annual Conference,” or “Conference” [note the capital letters] refer to The North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. These terms refer to an organization.

The term “annual conference” [in lower-case letters] refers to the yearly assembly, usually occupying several days in June, at which the North Carolina Annual Conference gathers to worship God and conduct business. This term [not capitalized] refers to this yearly, multi-day convention.

The term “session” refers to one meeting of the North Carolina Annual Conference occurring on any part of one of those days or to a meeting on a single day for a special or called session. For example, the minutes often refer to the “morning session of the first day of the annual conference” or to the “evening session of Friday of annual conference.” This document avoids the common practice of using the phrase “the annual conference session” to refer to the whole week of meetings in June. This document’s usage would designate that whole series of meetings as “the 2006 annual conference,” or “the 2009 annual conference.”

Rainbow Covenant Advance Specials

To be a Rainbow Covenant Church, a local church needs to meet the “first mile” by paying in full apportionments as set by Annual Conference. Then each local church is asked to support at least one project in each of the five lanes of the Rainbow Covenant.

Each lane reminds the local church that it has touched persons with the love of God in its own community, in the broader areas of the Conference, on a national level, and throughout the world.

Rainbow Covenant Lanes

The lanes have been organized so that churches can connect persons in mission and the projects with which they are involved. The lanes are:

Lane One:	Persons in Mission *
Lane Two:	Conference Advances
Lane Three:	National Missions
Lane Four:	World Missions
Lane Five:	UMCOR

*Persons in Mission **

In Lane One are persons in mission supported by the NC Conference and the General Board of Global Ministries. They serve on the ground throughout the world and are the hands and feet of Christ. Some of them work locally in this conference area. Others work in other parts of the nation. Still others work in other countries. All have valid ministries and all have valid needs.

Local churches are encouraged to be involved with the various missionaries that the NC Conference supports. Several persons in mission are not commissioned missionaries through the General Board of Global Mission; yet they still need funds to advance their ministry. (These persons are designated with “S” in their identification code which shows that they are a part of a Conference Advance). For more information about the GBGM missionaries, go to the website: www.gb-gm-umc.org/missionaries All persons in missions appreciate prayers, cards, letters and emails. Contact information is on the GBGM website.

Covenant Relationships

All gifts and contributions share the love of Jesus Christ by supporting missionaries who work to offer hope and alleviate human suffering. Generous one-time gifts make this service possible. Congregations and individuals are also encouraged to support missionaries through Covenant Relationships.

The standard covenant relationship for a local church to support a General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) missionary is $2500 annually or $5 per church member per year. However, this partnership is much more than a financial commitment. It is a dynamic relationship where the church and missionary pray for one another and communicate regularly. By deepening its own awareness of the struggles and triumphs of the missionary, congregations participate in a work that is truly connectional.

To learn more about covenant relationships, contact the Conference Missions Team Secretary, Bill Haddock (revbillh@nccumc.org) or <http://new.gb-gm-umc.org/advance/missionaries/covenant/>

Advance Specials

GBGM ADVANCE for Christ projects are General Advance Specials. There are also Conference Advance Specials approved by the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Both types of Advance Specials are assigned numbers which should be recorded on the remittance sheets turned into the Conference Treasurer with the contribution check. Remittances for General Advance Specials can also be made on-line at the General Board of Global Ministries website at www.gb-gm-umc.org. Contact the Conference Treasurer to make electronic transfers to that office.

At the end of the fiscal year, please fill out the form at the end of this section and send it to the District Mission Secretary who will issue the Rainbow Covenant Form to the participating local churches. Remember that all remittances need to be sent to the Conference Treasurer or to the General Board of Global Ministries, not to the district secretaries.

This list is not inclusive: any missionary or any ADVANCE Special can be supported by local churches or individuals. The Conference Missions website, at <http://nccumc.org/missions/> has a number of ADVANCE specials that local churches and individuals support.

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc.

Ministering in prisons and pews

Offering God's grace to a world in need

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc. (DBOM) was founded in 1999 as a collaborative DISCIPLE Bible Study ministry of the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Conferences. DBOM supports DISCIPLE in the local churches and mobilizes local church volunteers to take the DISCIPLE ministry to prisons, jails and youth development centers.

In North Carolina, nearly 39,000 inmates live in 70 prisons. Since beginning in a United Methodist church in North Carolina in the 1990s, the program has grown steadily and is now expanding nationally. More than 100 United Methodist congregations in North Carolina have been involved, and some correctional facilities have had as many as four Disciple Bible groups active at one time.

DBOM has established a new national organization (Disciple Bible Outreach National, Inc.) and has organized affiliate ministries in Virginia, Tennessee, and Kansas. Affiliates are now being organized in Louisiana, Pennsylvania and Georgia. More expansions are planned for the future.

None of this would be possible without you, the laity and clergy of the conference. A primary source of DBOM funding comes from the yearly special offering. In 2012, the offering will be taken on August 26. Envelopes and additional information will be provided soon. We are grateful for your support.

Thank you and God bless you as we continue to offer DBOM's ministry in the prisons and pews of America!

United Methodist Women

The United Methodist Women's theme for 2011 was "In God's Mission We Are Sent Out: To Connect". The scriptural basis for this theme is "Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever." (Hebrews 13:20-21) Our theme explanation states that it is our mission to women, children and youth that connects us with the Word of God and with others in mission with us. With our stewardship of self and God's equipping, we connect understanding and resources to address the needs of others.

In 2011, the North Carolina Conference UMW continued to support missions through prayers, financial contributions and participation in retreats and educational opportunities. United Methodist Women have been involved in everything from their local unit food pantries to making dresses for girls in Haiti, to making school kits and health kits, to hosting Hands-on-Mission events at local mission sites, to making prayer shawls, to contributing funds to support programs that help women, children and youth around the world.

UMW make sacrificial pledges to support the mission that God equips them to do. We celebrate the commitment that our women have to support our conference pledge. In 2011, we submitted $440,992.48 which exceeded our budgeted pledge of $440,000. To God be the glory for the lives impacted by work done through these funds.

Throughout 2011, our programs were opportunities to equip women for service. The annual Conference 39 and Under event was held in February in Morehead City. The purpose of this event is to connect young women to United Methodist Women and to equip them with knowledge about the mission and program of the organization. In May we hosted our Spiritual Enrichment Retreat at Jonesboro UMC. This event connected us with our Christian roots and equipped us to put our faith, hope and love into action. The School of Christian Mission was held in July at Methodist University. Hundreds of women participated and connected with our historical roots of being involved in mission. Mission Education is an on-going activity and equips UMW to stay involved in mission.

Leadership development is a core value of UMW. Our training in November equipped women to be the leaders in their districts. Emily Innes, Vice President of Women's Division explained the proposed changes for the structure of UMW as well as our conference re-districting to equip our women to move forward in the new organization and new districts.

In 2011, thirteen women participated in an Incubator Group. The Mission Action Plan (MAP) from this group was presented at the September Executive Committee meeting and approved for implementation. The MAP made recommendations in 2 categories: Mission Focus and Structural Changes. These implementation of the MAP will be the focus of 2012.

We are thankful for the faithful United Methodist Women of the North Carolina Conference. May they continue to connect to the word of God and to continue to equip themselves to be in service in God's kingdom. UMW put their faith, hope and love in action!

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity in our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of great emotional stress and financial need. 2010 was a good year for Golden Cross. During 2010 we assisted 13 families from 6 of the 12 Districts in our Conference. We had $15,050.00 budgeted for 2010 but due to a conference short fall our budget ended up being $14,000.00. The additional funds were made up by Love Offerings from our local churches in the conference and we paid out $22,430.28. Please remember that as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, that Golden Cross is a special ministry. Encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. With God's help, and your generosity, we will continue to meet every eligible request with the funds we have. In the past, we United Methodists in the NC Annual Conference have been most gracious in making these funds available to all United Methodists. In closing, please remember that Golden Cross is an advance special and if your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, c/o Caroline Thornton, PO Box 1970, Garner, NC 27529, and God bless you.

Church and Society

Methodism was founded at the crossroads of social activism and faithful discipleship. Our church's founder, John Wesley, set up societies that brought good news to the poor, release to the captives and set the prisoner free. The Board of Church and Society lives within the tension that calls us to examine society through the lens of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The North Carolina Board of Church and Society has long been a sounding board for our Annual Conference in matters where issues of faith intersect with concerns of society and culture. We have sought to teach and to lead in the making of caring and responsible disciples for the transformation of the world.

Our continued focus has been to educate and encourage awareness of the local church of our United Methodist Social Principles. Last year, we developed a web-based, interactive quiz based on the Social Principles of the UMC. This year, we have continued to examine and embrace the effective use of the Internet as a tool of learning, by developing interactives utilizing "Moodle" (web-based learning). We are indebted to Christine Harman, of our conference staff, for her hard work and dedication to this project. Please visit our web page (<http://nccumc.org/christianformation/church-and-society>).

Over the course of this past year, we have continued our focus on Spiritual Development, Social Responsibility and Scriptural Engagement, as contained in our United Methodist Social Principles. As we learn more about our Social Principles, we uncover truths about the inequalities of global health, injustice, poverty, and exploitation. These issues are very real and are not limited to our third world neighbors. As these truths are exposed, it is our hope that the local church will faithfully respond to the needs that are found in our own backyard.

We were pleased to continue to offer support as one of the co-sponsors of the Jack Crum Conference on Prophetic Ministry. This year's event focused on the currently proposed amendment to North Carolina's State Constitution.

Our goal for this quadrennium was to strengthen the local church, in ways both theological and practical, so that the local church could have the tools to respond to the socio-economic turmoil in which we have found ourselves. We have embraced the four-fold path of developing leadership, creating places for new people, eliminating poverty and improving global health. This path, as embraced by the 2008 General Conference, is otherwise known as the four foci. As we move forward into a new quadrennium, we will continue to raise awareness for issues of social justice throughout the world.

We are pleased to announce that this year's Jack and Kay Crum Prophetic Ministry Award has been awarded to H.O.P.E.—Homeless Outreach Providing Encouragement. H.O.P.E. is an ecumenically based, outreach program of Garner United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide homeless people a break in their day and week while offering them a safe place and an encouraging environment. This ministry offers many valuable services to the homeless community, including: home cooked meals, hot shower, change of clothes - when available, haircuts on occasion, and assistance with legal forms—when available.

We have awarded a Peace with Justice grant to Oleander UMC in Wilmington. Oleander UMC supports a multi-cultural Cub Scout troop.

When considering Peace with Justice grants this year, we were concerned by what seemed to be a lack of awareness of this grant source for ministries whose programs support Peace and Justice. We encourage our churches in the North Carolina Annual Conference to continue to serve their local communities in creative and meaningful ways, that mirror the social ministry of our church. Please let us know about your ministries!

This year, as in years past, we continue the practice of building leadership among our youth by providing scholarship funds for our young people to attend the annual Global Vision event. This event is designed to help the youth of our Annual Conference to expand their scope of caring and ministry, beyond the local level, to a world-wide level, by participation in workshops at the United Nations and in Washington, DC.

Finally, on a personal note, it has been my distinct pleasure to have served in this capacity for these past four years. I am eternally grateful to the members of our fine board, as they are truly dedicated to Jesus Christ and the works of social justice.

Please visit our conference website (www.nccumc.org) or the national website (www.umbcs.org) for more information on the work of the General Board of Church and Society.

Brian W. Wingo, Chair, Board of Church and Society

Evangelism, Commission on

In obedience to the command of Jesus Christ and the mission of the United Methodist Church, the mission of the Commission on Evangelism is to make disciples of Jesus Christ to transform the world (Matt. 28:16-20 & ¶201). The Commission provides training opportunities and resources to equip clergy and laity to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all persons for the “Heart of Christian Ministry - Christ’s ministry of outreaching love.” (¶125).

During the past year, the Commission has provided grants for multi-district evangelism training events, multi-church local training workshops, and continuing education scholarships for the Congress on Evangelism. In Spring 2012, the 10th annual Academy of Christian Witness for Clergy was held at the Bergland Center at Camp Rockfish, with full scholarships, books, and resource materials provided to the participants. Each year, upon the recommendation of the District Superintendents, approximately 25 pastors are trained and inspired by 14 presenters with workshops including worship as evangelism, witnessing to post-moderns, pastoral leadership as evangelism, local missions as evangelism, spirituality of the pastor-evangelist, personal faith sharing, getting the Word out, and “taking it to the streets.” The 2011 Clergy sessions were revamped to address the changing needs in reaching young people and the unchurched. In the fall of 2011, the Commission held the 4th Lay Academy of Christian Witness with 25 lay people participating in workshops to be equipped for evangelizing through their churches and in their communities. In September 2012, the Commission will hold its first Youth Academy of Christian Witness and your prayers are appreciated for a dynamic impact on our world.

The Commission on Evangelism continues to embrace the visions to which God has entrusted us for outreach, nurture, strengthening clergy and lay leadership, and equipping the saints for ministry through the Wesleyan model for making disciples of Jesus Christ to transform the world. The North Carolina Conference continues to be one of the few in the United Methodist Church to report annual net growth of membership. The Commission on Evangelism urges all United Methodists to be faithful to their calling and their membership vows, to go into the world and to witness to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Clergy Care, Committee on

Since 1971 the Committee on Clergy Care (formerly the Committee on Pastoral Care) has served clergy in the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. Beginning 2004, in keeping with our understanding of the call and ministry of those who serve the Church as commissioned minister, deacon, diaconal minister, elder, or licensed local pastor under appointment, the Committee is now referred to as the Committee on Clergy Care. The Committee is comprised of five members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chairperson); one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; and one Pastoral Counselor. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families, as described in the section below entitled, “Eligibility for Financial Grants”. The financial grants, of up to $400 per family per calendar year, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference health insurance program should review the Health Care Benefits for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Clergy Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

Marriage and Family Enrichment

The Committee on Clergy Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single, as well as married ministers. Grants up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple, per calendar year, are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders’ names and credentials and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

Eligibility for Financial Grants

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active and serving within the boundaries of the Conference, or any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal ministers and or candidates who are serving a local church and are members of the NC Conference.

Conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants. A family is defined as dependents of the minister living in a minister’s home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents and grandparents. Ministers’ children through the age of 22, whether attending college or living at home, are eligible to receive financial grants.

Counselors and Therapists Who Qualify for Financial Grants

Only counselors and therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Clergy Care:

Psychiatrist: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina License

Psychologist (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist LPP and/or HSP-P), North Carolina License

Pastoral Counselor: Member, Fellow or Diplomate of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)

Counselor: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Licensed Professional Counselors (LPL)

Social Worker: Member Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW).

Application Procedure

The Counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Clergy Care in the following manner:

1. The application and brochure are available on the conference website: www.nccumc.org, Ministries tab, Ministerial Relations tab and Downloads, then Clergy Care tab, or the counselor or therapist may request an application form and instructions from the Office of Ministerial Relations. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, 700 Waterfield Ridge Place, Garner, NC 27529, or by calling either 919-779-6115 or 800-849-4433, ext 244.
2. Once the application and instructions for a Clergy Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations for processing. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name and social security number shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Clergy Care Committee and should request the counselor/therapist to contact the Chairperson of Clergy Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning the process. The client, not the Clergy Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees and payment of services that are provided.
4. The deadline for submitting grant applications is in late December of the calendar year in which the services were provided.

In conference year 2011-12, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted $10,665.38 for counseling sessions. This represents 398 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year. Grants processed in 2011-12 totaled 69, representing 259 sessions for clergy, 26 for cleric and spouse, 92 for spouse, 20 for children and 1 for clergy family together. Of these 60 grants, 11 received the maximum of $400.00 in assistance and 14 received at least half to two-thirds of the maximum grant.

Conference Relations, Committee on

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) maternity/paternity leave, 6) family leave, 7) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials) and 8) honorable location.

The Committee on Conference Relations meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Committee on Conference Relations acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with, and adhere to, the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Rev. Marshall R. Old, Chairperson

Continuing Education, Committee on

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the Book of Discipline, “Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities.” The Discipline further states that, “In most cases the ordained ministers’ continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers’ vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee.”

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of The Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all clergy and diaconal ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor’s continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In The Book of Discipline it states, “There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members.”

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are “organized,” “competent leadership,” and “clearly defined goals and objectives.” By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered “continuing education”; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, course of study programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program:

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) it sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.
2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEUs will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.
3. Ensuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program that will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time.
3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy:

Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference apportionments. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the conference to assume a major responsibility. Continuing education can be expensive. For this reason, local churches are encouraged to provide a minimum of $300.00 annually for each clergy and diaconal ministers' continuing education.

All persons under Episcopal appointment to charges, conference staff positions, Conference Evangelists, retired supply, and Extension Ministries appointed to conference-related agencies and institutions are eligible for grants from the Conference funds provided:

1. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.
2. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal resources.
3. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish chairperson, and district superintendent.

Continuing Education Grant Guidelines:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00
2. Grants are available for ordained, commissioned, licensed and diaconal ministers who receive less than the CAC (Conference Average Compensation), which includes salary and utilities, or less.
3. Applicants must use all funds designated by their local congregation or employing organization prior to requesting Conference grants.
4. Grants for District Continuing Education Seminars shall be limited to $100.00, based upon the availability of funds, regardless of the number of CEUs involved and within the limits outlined in #1, 2, and 3.
5. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300.00 per CPE unit will be granted in any given year. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.
6. Holy Land Trips: A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, providing funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the clergy or diaconal minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.
2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to the Office of Ministerial Relations.
3. It is the responsibility of each participant to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

Enlistment, Committee on

The primary concern of the Committee on Enlistment is to raise the awareness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of the body of Christ. In keeping with this goal the Committee on Enlistment is ready to provide direction and encouragement in the process of clergy enlistment. More importantly, the primary responsibility for identifying youth, young adults, and second career individuals who are ready to answer God's call, falls upon local church pastors, laity in the local churches, and campus ministers.

The Call to Action Committee has reported to the Council of Bishops that:

The adaptive challenge for The United Methodist Church is: To redirect the flow of attention, energy, and resources to an intense concentration on fostering and sustaining an increase in the number of vital congregations effective in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

One of the Call to Action Committee recommendations is:

The quality of clergy and lay leadership is essential for effectiveness, and we must retool our culture and systems of clergy recruitment, training, credentialing, and support with renewed emphasis on greater accountability for outcomes, giving appropriate, but much less, focus to intentions.

In response to this challenge and recommendation, the Committee on Enlistment will continue to work closely with Bishop Gwinn and his Cabinet to find creative ways to help people explore God's calling in their lives. Through the office of the Assistant to the Bishop/Director of Ministerial Relations there will be a person employed as the Associate Director of Ministerial Relations. The Reverend Laura Fine Ledford has been appointed the Associate Director of Ministerial Relations and serves in collaboration with the Director of Ministerial Relations to affirm, support, and to encourage clergy; to assist in the development and maintenance of processes, systems, and resources clergy need to excel professionally and spiritually; and to recruit young, gifted, diverse candidates for ministry.

The Committee on Enlistment will continue to make appeals at conference youth events, conference camps, campus ministries and other ministries especially to youth and young adults.

There are other spiritual encounters [opportunities] that have proven to be helpful in understanding a call to ordained ministry such as Disciple Bible Study and Emmaus. Events like these have awakened and provided opportunities for many to hear and respond to God's call.

The Committee on Enlistment encourages all pastors and laity to continue to be open to the Holy Spirit's leading in directing people to give thought and prayer to the possibility that God may be calling them to ordained ministry.

Al Horne, Chairperson

Laity, Board of

The primary purpose of the Conference Board of Laity is to make known the good news of God's love and salvation through Jesus Christ, and to challenge, inspire and equip the laity of the North Carolina Annual Conference for ministry in the local church.

In the past year the District Lay Leaders have implemented training workshops for local church Lay Leaders, held District Lay Rallies or other events to celebrate the ministries of laity, and ensured that Lay Speaker Training courses were offered in their districts. Laity Sunday was promoted on the third Sunday in October by the General Board of Discipleship, and many congregations participated. However, because lay people are participating more in worship services throughout the entire year "Laity Sunday" has taken on different forms in some congregations.

Our Conference United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Youth sponsored many events aimed at spiritual enrichment, leadership development, and education (please refer to their individual reports).

Every year the opportunity to lift up an Outstanding Lay Ministry is given to each district. These will be celebrated at Annual Conference as we "shine the spotlight" on excellence in ministry. (Please refer to the following report to learn more)

Once again, the Conference Board of Laity will offer a "Laity Event" to be held during Annual Conference on Friday June 15th for an afternoon and evening session. The speaker this year will be Dr. Gil Rendle author of many books and a nationally known speaker.

The Conference Board of Laity is an active and vital part of the fulfillment of strengthening the lay leadership in the North Carolina Conference. The board provides a place for leaders of laity to connect their visions and plans and also provides a forum for discussion of topics related to denominational issues, church renewal and growth, and the making of new disciples. Excitement continues to build as we discover fresh ways to live into our mission and vision through servant leadership.

On a personal note, it has been my joy to serve as your Conference Lay Leader for the past eight years. I am thankful to have had this opportunity to be in ministry among so many supportive and loving people of God. May our work together as disciples of Jesus Christ always bring glory to God.

Emily Innes, Conference Lay Leader 2004-2012

Outstanding Lay Ministries:

Goldsboro District UMC: Rose Hill UMC—“Kingdom Homes of Rose Hill”

The church owns two houses and has recently built a third house to shelter women who are recovering from addiction. The residents are required to participate in a planned program which includes participating in classes for self-improvement and attending worship services, Sunday school, Bible study, and “Celebrate Recovery” sessions which are offered by the church. The church members share the love of Christ by transporting the women to work, appointments, and grocery shopping. They cook meals for the residents and teach a variety of classes including Bible classes.

Greenville District: Holly Springs UMC—“Operation Share House”

North Carolina Pastors’ School and Duke Divinity School Convocation

While the church’s celebrations and teachings follow a steady cadence, we continue to seek new and vibrant ways of interpreting the Word. The arts – in their varied forms – can provide a source of inspiration.

These words set the stage for the 2011 Convocation & Pastors’ School on the theme: “Drawn into Scripture: Arts and the Life of the Church.” Held at Duke Divinity School October 10-11, 2011, the event featured professor and musician Jeremy Begbie, author Marilynne Robinson, professor and musician Anthony Kelley and the BLAK Ensemble, and author and pastor Lillian Daniel, who helped participants explore art’s illuminating power. In addition to worship services and 18 continuing education seminars, the 2011 event included several noteworthy additions tied to the arts theme. These included an Arts Fair – which enabled participants to meet featured artists, see their work, and discuss its connection to their faith – and an exhibition of the Saint John’s Bible, a remarkable hand-lettered and illuminated rendition of Scripture.

The 2012 Convocation & Pastors’ School will be held October 15-16, 2012, on the theme: “Form/Reform: Cultivating Christian Leaders.” Those gathered will explore questions such as: What do congregations need to do to form Christians for today...and tomorrow? And what formation and reformation is needed for pastors and professors to equip the saints for the work of ministry? Fuller Theological Seminary president Richard J. Mouw, author Andy Crouch, theologian Sarah Coakley, and pastor Prince Raney Rivers will help guide discussion of how to shape Christians for leadership in an increasingly diverse and evolving social landscape.

The Convocation & Pastors’ School Board of Managers is comprised of representatives the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, and it advises and works with Duke Divinity School to offer a quality continuing education event annually.

Event information, including registration, is available at <http://divinity.duke.edu/initiatives-centers/lifelong-learning> or by calling 919-613-5323.

Psychological Testing and Background Checks, Committee on

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry evaluates all prospective and continuing candidates in accordance with requirements in The Book of Discipline 2008. Those seeking to enter ordained ministry or licensed ministry undergo a comprehensive evaluation. One component of the evaluation process involves psychological testing and background investigation, conducted under the direction of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks.

Psychological testing serves two purposes: (1) It provides the individual with valuable information, feedback and guidance related to psychological health and wholeness. (2) It provides the Board of Ordained Ministry and District Committees with useful information as they evaluate and mentor prospective and continuing candidates to determine their fitness, potential, and promise for fruitful and effective service in ordained and/or licensed ministry.

Psychological evaluation services are being provided through a contract with Dr. Bert Lucas, a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church in Sanford, North Carolina. Dr. Lucas has done an outstanding job in providing this service, and the Committee is indebted to him for his guidance and counsel.

Expenses for psychological evaluations are borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for candidates of the North Carolina Annual Conference; clergy requesting transfer into the conference from another annual conference or another denomination bear the cost of the psychological testing unless a recent, comparable evaluation is available.

Background checks on prospective and continuing candidates are furnished through a contract with Kroll Background America, Inc. Each background check costs $65.00 and the cost is borne by the applicant. The applicant is provided with a copy of his/her background check report completed by Kroll Background America, Inc.

On average the Committee processes 90 psychological tests and 80 background checks a year.

The members of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks are the following persons: Liz Roberts, Valerie Tyson, Marilyn Boyce, Richard Jackson, Andy Keck and Richard Morrison. I am very appreciative of the seriousness and dedication with which the Committee approaches its work. The Committee would like to thank Rev. Tim Russell for his guidance and wisdom and Mrs. Linda Bourey for her continued assistance with the administrative aspects of our work.

Residency in Ordained Ministry, Committee on

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry (RIOM) program began in fulfillment of ¶417.3 of the 1984 Discipline requiring Annual Conferences to provide Counseling Elders for Probationers. Adjusting to changes in the mentoring process mandated by subsequent Disciplines, RIOM continues to provide an opportunity for probationary members to grow and find support as they live and learn through this opportunity of concentrated focus and reflection on ministerial theology and practice. Years of experience with this program have demonstrated the great value in preparing probationers (provisional members) for Full Conference Membership.

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry uses a “Covenant Peer Group Model” to meet the Disciplinary requirements for providing leadership and supervision for our probationary (provisional) members. Probationers (provisional members) meet in small “cluster” groups throughout the probationary period. These groups are arranged, as often as possible, by geographical area in order to minimize travel time and facilitate greater fellowship. Cluster leaders are Elders who, by intention, are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Recognizing that these cluster groups become an important source for collegiality and support, every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster throughout the probationary period.

Following the General Conference of 2008, a candidate can now complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within two (2) years by accepting a full-time appointment and participating in the RIOM process. The Book of Discipline provides a maximum time line of eight (8) years to complete these requirements. This year we moved to a strengths-based model, the emphasis of which is to lay the foundation for a life-long fruitful ministry. Candidates in year one spent time creating a covenant that would guide their journey together over the next two years, reflected theologically, grew in spiritual grounding and learned more of how to lead with a deep dependency on the Holy Spirit. Year two candidates spent time preparing for Board of Ordained interviews through the use of mock interviews, individual coaching and group reflection in addition to their written work.

Despite the change to a two year probationary period, certain candidates may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more “continuing” the probationary (provisional) process. During this time candidates are encouraged to focus on areas offered by the board for further development. These candidates are introduced to a new covenant peer group where they engage in mock interviews, individual coaching, and group reflection in addition to their written work.

In September Duke Divinity School sponsored a conference for candidates who were preparing for Full Connection interviews. This annual seminar was led by faculty from the Divinity School and focused on theology, worship, and pastoral concerns. Though not mandatory, we strongly recommended this time of reflection for all who planned to come before the Board for Full Connection interviews. As a part of this seminar, participants were given the opportunity to meet with representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry’s interview committees to discuss their preparations for the coming year and to address questions they may have. Duke Divinity School also sponsored a seminar in October for candidates writing their first papers and seeking commissioning/probationary membership.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee would like to offer a word of sincere thanks to: Johnnie Wright, Laura Early, Laura Stern, Stuart Milton, Tom Newman, Thomas Simpson, Tuck Taylor Loveland, and Rich Greenway for their service as RIOM Group Leaders during the past conference year. These gifted servants have enabled our Annual Conference to offer candidates an enriching and worthwhile experience of growth and reflection. We, as a committee, are committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

The Committee wants to express sincere thanks to the Reverend Timothy J. Russell, Director of Ministerial Relations and Assistant to the Bishop, Mrs. Linda Bourey, the Executive Assistant to Tim Russell, and Mrs. Peg Aldridge, Pastoral Coach with Passion in Partnership Coaching Network, for their guidance and assistance.

Sexual Ethics Support Team

The Board of Ordained Ministry was asked at the 1999 Annual Conference to implement a policy on professional sexual misconduct for the North Carolina Conference. Since this time the committee was organized and implemented the policy. The present committee is comprised of the following members: Francis Daniel (Chair), Jeff Severt, Judi Smith, Donna Thompson, Fred Hight, Sandra Ray and Chanequa Walker-Barnes.

The committee, under the guidance of trained facilitators from the Methodist Home for Children, trained 17 people from across our annual conference as members of our sexual ethics response team.

Moral responsibility underlines the importance of our attention to this area of our life together. The sub-committee invites you to review the Sexual Ethics Policy (pgs. 248-250 of The Journal 1999). The policy is also available on disk from the Conference Secretary's Office. Awareness of and fulfillment of that policy will strengthen our covenant and will offer new avenues for grace in our lives.

All clergy under Episcopal appointment are required to attend sexual ethics training once a quadrennium. These mandatory trainings were held across our annual conference in the fall of 2010.

Trained facilitators from the Methodist Home for Children lead the sexual ethics/boundaries training for the clergy of the North Carolina Annual Conference annually and quadrennially. A confidential hotline is contracted through Lighthouse Services to report sexual abuse, harassment or clergy sexual misconduct.

Stewardship Team

Equitable Compensation, Commission on

The Book of Discipline mandates that “there shall be in each annual conference a commission on equitable compensation” (§ 625), whose purpose is “to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference” (§625.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in §625.2, which are: “(a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations.”

The Commission seeks equity and fairness for both pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity and fairness? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations are found in the following:

- a. Jesus says, “the laborer deserves to be paid,” (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us “Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of compensation, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching; for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,” (1 Timothy 5:17,18).
- b. Wesley was concerned that clergy have responsibility not to be “in debt so as to embarrass you in your work” (§330.18), which implies that the Church has a responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- c. The Great Commission to “go into all the world preaching, teaching and baptizing” brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the Great Commission bear its promised fruit.
- d. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the Great Commandment to “love our neighbors as we love ourselves” by desiring for each pastor what our members’ desire for themselves – compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our prayers, working and considering together as both laity and clergy from across The N.C. Annual Conference, we make the following recommendations. We believe these recommendations will help us move toward fairness for both local churches and pastors as together we support ordained ministry in The N.C. Annual Conference.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation’s mandate and mission is to ensure justice and fairness in salaries of active full-time pastors of our local congregations. While, for many years, we have been recommending a single minimum salary for all full-time pastors serving, we have found that many congregations look at the “minimum salary recommendation” as “the amount we have to pay the pastor.” Clarification of “minimum compensation” may benefit the mission and ministry of the local congregations.

The definition of “minimum” is not the ceiling, or maximum, amount of “the pastor’s salary;” rather, it is the floor, or minimum, of what a full-time pastor is to be paid. No full-time pastor may be paid less than the minimum compensation. We recommend that each congregation review its ability to sustain its pastor independently and only use the minimum salary as just that, a minimum, and prayerfully discern the appropriate level of compensation for its called leader. As Jesus said, “Where your treasure is, there is your heart.” When the congregation’s treasure and heart are in the health and effectiveness of both local congregation and pastor, God is glorified!

Annual Conference has not approved an increase in minimum salary for three years in response to general economic conditions. During this time, the cost of consumer goods, such as personal portions of insurance charges, have increased. While some of our pastors have been appointed to serve charges without student debt, there has been a trend for over a decade of ever-increasing student debt arising from the costs of a seminary degree. While some may understand this as a “personal choice,” the Church understands service in pastoral or ordained ministry as a calling from God that is affirmed by the Church. The process of appointment bears the marks of the called and the Church at all levels, regardless of the pastor’s appointment status.

For the year 2012, the average full-time salary increase was approximately 2.36%. The CPI (Urban South) for the last twelve months ending December 2011 showed an increase of 3.4%. The Commission currently recommends a 3.6% ($1,451) increase in Salary, a 0% ($0) increase in Utilities and a 0% ($0) increase in Travel. Including the recommended travel amount this represents a total increase of 3.6% for the year 2013. Our recommendation is based on several factors: (1) the average compensation from other conferences; (2) it more closely reflects the majority of salary increases for this conference; (3) shows concern for general economic trends.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Compensation for 2013

A. Salary Schedule

We recommend that the student minimum salary be based on 65% of the minimum salary of full-time pastors.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	2012	2013
(Full Connection, Associate, Provisional, Local Pastor)
Salary	$40,319	$41,770
STUDENT PASTORS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$26,207	$27,151

B. Utilities Expense

It is expected that each local charge would provide at least $2,400 for utilities expense. Utilities have been defined in guidance from the Internal Revenue Service to be electricity, heat, water/sewer, trash pick-up, and local telephone expenses. In order to increase accountability surrounding utility payments and to help ease transitions during appointment changes, the Commission recommends that the local church pay utilities directly to the utilities companies instead of through unvouchered allowances to the pastors.

C. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the local charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that each local charge would provide at least $4,000 for travel expense. The Commission encourages each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $4,000 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

D. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Funds support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Clergy Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) based on the pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of a parsonage).

E. Vacation Recommendation

Vacation and time off is defined as annual leave and weekly time off "which is completely distinct from any other occasions in which the pastor is out of the parish" (1988 NC Annual Conference Journal, page 373) such as Continuing Education events, Bishop's Day Apart, Order of Elders, Deacons, Local Pastors, Annual Conference, and Convocation/Pastor's School.

Rationale:

In recent times, focus on clergy health has highlighted the necessity of following the mandate of God's Commandment to "remember the Sabbath by keeping it holy" (Exodus 20:8) and, like our Lord Jesus, to take time apart for rest and relaxation. This mandate and example are beneficial to not only the pastor, but also the larger faith community/local church. Many pastors in full time ministry do not take time away increasing the likelihood of burn-out, compromising their health, and reducing their effectiveness in ministry. Right stewardship of time, finances, physical health, relationships with family and colleagues is necessary for effective ministry in the parish. These personal areas often suffer with the lack of a weekly personal day, a weekly Sabbath Day, and an annual vacation time apart. Our Conference Board of Ordained Ministry found in 1988, "Our experience as an Annual Conference with clergy burnout shows that rest and recreation are an indispensable element of a whole and complete ministry." (1988 NC Annual Conference Journal, page 373).

Recommendations to local congregations:

1. A. That clergy members of the Annual Conference (Book of Discipline 2008 ¶602.1) under full-time appointment to local congregations shall receive one full month of vacation per calendar year. Vacation time shall include four (4) Sundays per year and shall be negotiated between the pastor and S/PPR Committee and may be taken in either segments adding up to one full month or as a whole.
B. Part-time pastors under appointment should receive vacation time per calendar year in $\frac{1}{4}$ increments according to their salary structure.
2. Clergy members of the Annual Conference (Book of Discipline 2008 ¶602.1) under full-time appointment should receive at least one personal day off per week. Changes to a set personal day off should be allowed due to unforeseen circumstances that may arise. This time should be carefully respected and guarded by the district superintendent and the congregation.

3. We encourage annual discussions between pastor/s and the S/PPR Committee where they are appointed concerning provisions for Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth and Sabbatical Leave, found in paragraphs 351 and 352 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

II. Principles Governing Eligibility for Equitable Compensation Funds

The clergy's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, each charge of The North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge, to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Annual Conference, the Commission and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. Base Compensation: In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
- B. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time, secular employment. The supplement may be reinstated at the time the charge's appointed pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision will be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking to be employed outside their ministerial responsibilities for emergency reasons.
- C. Disbursement of funds from Conference Treasurer's Office: Equitable Compensation Funds are to be sent to charges that have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference Treasurer's office are to be deposited by the charge treasurer into the charge/church bank account. Checks shall not be endorsed nor cashed by the pastor.
- D. Application for funds: Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form which can be found online. The pastor, administrative council, and the district superintendent shall carefully review the request. The application form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and receive the approval of the charge conference. Applications received that are not completed in full are not eligible for consideration by the Commission until such time that they have been completed and resubmitted.

Application Deadlines for Full-Time Pastoral Compensation Supplement:

1. For completed applications for the July – June appointment cycle are to be received by November 15 of the previous year.
2. The application deadline for those grants limited to superintendent/cabinet initiated applications for the immediate appointment year, providing funds are available is May 15.

Application Deadlines for Mission-Based Supplement:

1. For completed applications for the July – June appointment cycle are to be received by November 15 of the previous year.
 2. The application deadline for those grants limited to superintendent/cabinet initiated applications for the immediate appointment year, providing funds are to be received by May 15.
- E. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will not fund any charge that is also receiving funds from The Emerging Church Salary Fund. The Commission on Equitable Compensation is in consultation and study with other Conference boards and agencies to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.
- F. Consideration may be given to make funds available for the deacon when the primary appointment is to a local church. (Book of Discipline 2008 ¶625.4)

III. Policies Governing Use of Equitable Compensation Funds

- A. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one third (1/3) of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application of the charge.
1. Charges seeking more than one third (1/3) supplement shall provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent regarding the terms of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.
 2. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the approval of the cabinet. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume total responsibility for base compensation and its proportionate share of all apportionments.
 - a. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one third (1/3) of the base compensation required for such a division.
 - b. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge shall pay initially two thirds (2/3) of the pastoral support established by the division.

B. Annual Reduction and Length of Time for Support:

1. Each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund, is expected to reduce this aid by at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the original grant each year.
2. Commission on Equitable Compensation grants shall be made annually, renewable for each year, up to five years for mission or charge-support grants, and three years for grants based on The Book of Discipline paragraph 213.
3. At the beginning of the second and subsequent years of receiving grant renewal applications, an evaluation of the charge's progress toward reaching its own goals will be made by members of the commission following a site-visit and consultation with the charge's pastor, its leadership, and the district superintendent.

C. Supplementals to Base Compensation:

1. Merit Grant Supplemental to Base Compensation: Each full-time pastor, associate member, or member in full connection of The N.C. Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet and in consultation with the Commission on Equitable Compensation is rendering unusually effective service, may apply for a one-time grant in the amount of $400, when such clergy person's salary and utilities are equal to the Conference minimum base compensation.
2. Supplemental Compensation for Years of Service:
 - a. Elders and Deacons who have served continuously as pastors in charge in the North Carolina Annual Conference, at conference established minimum salary, for five years or more, in the sixth year, may apply for this supplemental grant of up to $400. With each annual application, the grant may increase incrementally by up to $400 per year until the lifetime maximum of $6,000 has been reached. No single year supplement may exceed $2,000. Special attention shall be given to ethnic pastors serving ethnic ministries (Book of Discipline 2008 ¶625.6).
 - b. Extraordinary Grants: These policies do not restrict the Commission on Equitable Compensation, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

IV. The Commission reports that 6 (six) charges received grants for mission and compensation assistance for a total $101,662.02 in the year 2011 and has awarded grants for appointment year 2012-2013 for 8 (eight) charges for a total of $152,786.

V. In the last year, in addition to full-time pastoral compensation requests, the Commission has received grant requests from congregations under The Book of Discipline paragraph 213 plan and for additional staff to serve the area of Christian Education. The Commission requested supplemental funding to serve congregations that are in process of renewal, revitalization, and growth. As A Call to Action plan is lived across the conference over the next quadrennium, the Commission expects to review applications from congregations choosing solid growth in their ministry. Along with this review for initial grant approval, with each renewal application will be a report made following consultation between the Commission, the Superintendent, and the charge.

* - DS salary & benefits line changed to include 8 DS positions and all salary and benefits. Some benefits were previously paid by the district.

 - Budget Raised and Spent in the same year.

 - District administration costs were previously funded through a separate District Work Fund (DWF) apportionment. Those costs are now included in the Conference budget; there will be no longer be a separate DWF apportionments beginning 2013. Without these changes, there would have been a 2.53% decrease in the budget from the prior year. With them, the total decrease is 5.5%. Part of 2013 district operational funding will be available from remaining 2012 DWF as a result of the mid-year district transition.

III. Financial Policies

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Connectional Ministries
 - Past Service Liability - Pensions
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black College Fund
 - Africa University Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in unadjusted apportionments from the previous year shall not increase in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Connectional Ministries, Past Service Liability – Pensions, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; 50% of property insurance; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Effective July 1, 2004, new congregations shall be assigned an apportionment beginning in the apportionment year in which the church is chartered (Year A in the following table). The new and projected charter dates for all new churches shall be reported annually by the Office of Congregational Development to the Treasurer's Office immediately following Annual Conference. The amount to be apportioned shall be a percentage of the apportionment as computed on the standard formula described in III.A.2 above. Because this formula results in a lower apportionment for a longer period than earlier new church formulas, no adjustment will be allowed to the apportionment computed as shown in the following table:

Year	Percent	Base Year Net Disbursement Formula	Maximum % Change
A	0%	None	None
B	60%	$= (4A)/4$	None
C	65%	$= ((3A)+B)/4$	None
D	70%	$= ((2A)+B+C)/4$	None
E	75%	$= (A+B+C+D)/4$	None
F	80%	$= (B+C+D+E)/4$	None
G	85%	$= (C+D+E+F)/4$	None
H	90%	$= (D+E+F+G)/4$	None
I	95%	$= (E+F+G+H)/4$	None
J	100%	$= (F+G+H+I)/4$	None

4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. The CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference, if funds are available, for emergency or unforeseen needs. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds. It is the intent of CFA that 50% of supplemental funds available be designated for the retirement of our current liabilities. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need beyond available resources within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to adjust the pro-rata distribution by up to 10% at its discretion and is authorized to use such funds to make supplementary appropriations according to this provision. General Church apportionments will be paid in full as collected to general agencies and will not be subject to adjusted pro-rata distributions. All supplementary appropriations made under these provisions shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 13, 2012.
6. The percentage payout rate for local churches shall be based upon payment of all six apportioned items as listed in Section III.A.1. above.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments. General Church special offerings include United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, and World Communion Sunday. Annual Conference approved special offerings include Project AGAPE Mission to Armenia, Methodist Home for Children, Mother's Day Offering for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Golden Cross Sunday and Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries.
- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of CFA. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
- E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, General Administration), Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. College Sustaining Fund will be raised and paid out in the same year until funds are received in advance equivalent to one year's budget. This transition will take place over 4 years beginning in 2010 and ending in 2013 operating budgets. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (local), the United Methodist Church Foundation (national), area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. Investments of funds reserved for use in the next budget year shall be invested 50% fixed income investments and 50% equity investments
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 2012 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 2013.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, Para. 610.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by Para. 611.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., Board of Missions, Inc., Asbury Homes, and North Carolina United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries, Inc.

- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.
- K. Contracts executed by commissions, boards, or agencies which obligate the Annual Conference must: 1) be created for periods of no more than 12 months and should be completed by June 30 annually, 2) not involve expenditures exceeding $50,000 in the aggregate and 3) not include a guarantee by the Conference of debt incurred by a separately incorporated entity. All contracts that exceed a 12-month period and/or $50,000 must be authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Should authorization be needed between meetings of CFA, it can be given by two signatures from the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries, the president of CFA or the Conference Treasurer and will require ratification by CFA at its next meeting.

Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:

- a. Active itinerant clergy in section A.1., A.2., A.5., A.6., A.7. and A.8. (except retiring clergy, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 - b. Retiring itinerant clergy, widows or widowers will receive reimbursement of costs up to $3,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking incapacity leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.
 - c. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,400.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section B.1.a. will apply.
2. Travel: Mileage is reimbursed at the standard IRS rate for moving expense deductions. This rate may be paid per mile per vehicle for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the Conference boundary to the appointment, or from the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement), whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, etc. may be reimbursed from the Conference boundary.
3. Reporting and Payment Requirements
 - a. IRS guidelines require that moving expense reimbursements be reported on a W-2. Based on recommendation from legal counsel and their consultations with the Internal Revenue Service, we recommend that the W-2 be issued by the local church. The Conference Treasurer will provide to the local church all moving expense information to be reported on the W-2. The Conference Treasurer will make payment to the new local church appointment. The new local church will pay the clergy and include the moving expense on the W-2 that they issue to the pastor at the end of the year. In absence of a new appointment, payment will be made to and reported by the old appointment.
 - b. The Conference Treasurer will make this payment upon receiving the Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Requisition form signed by the person receiving reimbursement and approved by the sending District Superintendent, along with appropriate receipts to substantiate the expenses.
 - c. The pastor should send the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist to the sending District Superintendent. This will fulfill the 2008 Discipline, Paragraph 2532.4, which states "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance."
 - d. Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
4. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is let over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer.

All advance payments shall be included in W-2 information provided to the local church by the Conference treasurer for inclusion on the W-2.

5. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
6. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in B.2., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.
7. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than four months following the date of the move.
8. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and self-employment tax when:
 - Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.

If your new appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax. However, if your reimbursement is treated as taxable income, an additional stipend in the amount of 20% of the taxable income portion will be provided. The maximum stipend will be no more than 20% of the applicable limit stated in section B.1.

C. Review Committee

1. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, the director of Ministerial Relations and the chair of the Moving Expense Committee.
2. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

V. Local Church Finance Minimum Standards

Serving as a financial officer or in a financially related position within a local church requires that we serve with fiduciary responsibility over the financial matters of the church. This fiduciary responsibility means that we stand in service to perform our duties with the trust and confidence that we act for the benefit of the church and not for the benefit or convenience of ourselves. As we serve with these responsibilities in local churches, we are guided to provide the most effective and most efficient ways to safeguard the assets entrusted to our care. One of the ways we safeguard the assets is to put procedures in place that have been proven to minimize risks by preventing and detecting error, deterring fraud and protecting innocent staff and volunteers. The following guidelines have been developed in order to assist those with financial responsibilities in local churches to identify and implement basic internal control procedures. These guidelines are intended to aid in the prevention or deterrence of fraudulent behavior and are not accusations that fraudulent activities are being performed. These guidelines provide protection for those in a position of controlling financial activity from being accused of fraud. Part of the fulfillment of our calling to be good stewards of the Lord's funds is having effective procedures in place to safeguard those funds. These minimum standards should be increased for churches with higher volumes of transactions but should not be compromised for lower volumes of transactions. All local churches are expected to meet these minimum standards.

A. Receipts and Disbursements

1. Treasurer and Financial Secretary should not be the same person and should not be in the same immediate family residing in the same household

2. Counting team (at least two unrelated persons) should count offerings and document totals – not treasurer and not financial secretary
 3. Offerings should be deposited the same or next business day
 4. Offering count details should be given to financial secretary for recording
 5. Offering totals should be given to the treasurer or financial secretary to record deposit
 6. The Financial Secretary's deposit log should be compared to the bank statement to verify deposits (by bank reconciliation reviewer)
 7. At least two persons should be listed as authorized signatures on all accounts. This should also be the case for setting up electronic payments (or EFTs). For EFTs, one of those individuals should be a Trustee or a member of the Finance Committee (other than the Secretary or Treasurer).
 8. The Treasurer is authorized to make electronic payments of bills. The Treasurer shall maintain support for every electronic payment just as with the support for paper checks.
 9. Financial policy and authority guidelines should be written and approved by the Finance Committee (there is a template available on the Conference Treasurer's Office website).
 10. Invoices should be required for all payments from all accounts
 11. Someone other than the treasurer (with authority by Finance Committee) should approve invoices for payment
 12. Typically, the Treasurer should make payments only after the invoice is approved. A policy may be implemented where routine, budgeted expenses (i.e., rent/mortgage, electric bill, etc.) may be paid without recurring approval; non-routine expenses must be approved prior to payment.
- B. Reporting and Review
1. All accounts should be reconciled monthly
 2. Someone other than treasurer should review bank reconciliation at least semiannually – including bank statements, invoices, checks written, and financial reports
 3. The Treasurer should make detailed report of budget and designated fund activities to the Finance Committee at least quarterly
 4. There must be an annual evaluation of financial records – at least in as much detail as the Local Church Audit Guide (completed by August 1 for preceding year) – including ALL accounts of the church (except UMW may be under separate evaluation or audit) – ALL accounts includes the general fund, building funds, designated accounts, cemetery funds, discretionary funds, Sunday school accounts, etc.
 5. An external annual audit of ALL accounts should be done at least every three years for churches with total annual disbursements of more than $500,000 per year (completed by August 1 for preceding year). An annual evaluation should be performed during the interim years.
 6. While a full audit is optimal, the term 'external audit' could mean a review by a CPA firm or other qualified individual (one with an accounting degree and accounting experience) that is independent of the church's Finance Committee or church council.
 7. An external annual audit of ALL accounts should be done every year for churches with total annual disbursements of more than $1,000,000 per year (completed by August 1 for preceding year). The term 'external audit' in this recommendation refers to an audit by an independent CPA or firm—not a member of the church. An opinion is given on the financial statements—both balance sheet and income statement.
 8. An individual CPA may participate in an audit, however, s/he must be a member of a church audit team performing an audit; thereby, a member of an audit team reporting to the church's finance committee. (Revised July 2011)

C. Tax Reporting Requirements

1. W-2s must be issued for employees, including pastors, and 1099s issued for non-employee compensation by January 31 for preceding year (federal law requirement)
2. Payroll tax forms and deposits done as required for payroll amount (federal law requirement) – payroll reporting should be completed for the IRS and SSA by appropriate due date for filing method
3. Housing allowance or exclusions approved annually at charge conference and kept on file (federal law requirement)

D. Other General Requirements

1. Prepare list of all church property for insurance purposes – include item description, serial number and value
2. Prepare list of safety deposit box contents – update authority as needed – access should be allowed by two unrelated people
3. Computer records are backed up and password protected for security
4. Ideally, four individuals are required for regular financial procedures: financial secretary, treasurer, person to review and approve invoices and person to review bank reconciliations. It is possible for this to be accomplished with 3 individuals if proper segregation is achieved.

VI. Approval To Solicit Funds

Any organization designated as a Conference Advance Special may ask local churches to consider opportunities for giving. It shall be at the discretion of the local church as to whether, when and how these opportunities will be presented to the membership. Solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety).

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies and programs for the privilege of soliciting funds under these policies throughout the District or Conference.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Camp and Retreat Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the three camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto.
- E. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- F. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.

The CFA continues to recommend that 100% “Missional Service Giving” be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

VII. District Superintendents’ Salary

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends that the formula for computing the annual salary for the district superintendents be the average of the top 25 pastors’ salaries in the Conference for the previous year. Salary is defined as cash salary plus nonvouchered allowances. We recommend the 2013 salary for district superintendents be set at $105,153.

VIII. Organization & Procedure (presented for information only)

- A. The audit for 2011 will be by Crosslin & Associates, Nashville, Tennessee.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor over expenditures of a budget line item up to $5,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such over expenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The over expenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives financial support from Conference funds or from any authorized conference-wide appeal in excess of $5,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs. The financial monitoring shall include consideration of a final independent audit for the institution, pension plan and affiliated entities, including journal entries, the auditor's management letter and any other reports of the auditors; liability insurance coverage levels; and the institution's projected budget for any subsequent fiscal years, including the current fiscal year.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items. Any carryover or portion thereof by this policy may be rescinded in any year in which funds are not available to meet basic ministry needs as determined by the CFA.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail or e-mail with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. of the N.C. Conference, the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits or other socially balanced investment funds as deemed appropriate by the Council.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain minimum reserve funds equal to 15% of the current operating budget for World Service and Connectional Ministries and the Past Service Liability. Supplemental appropriations from current year earnings shall follow the guidelines in paragraph H above. Supplemental appropriations beyond current year earnings shall follow the following guidelines: 1. If reserves are less than or equal to 20% of the current operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions may be considered. 2. If reserves are above 20% and below 30% of operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions, ministries and unfunded liabilities may be considered. 3. If reserves are equal to or greater than 30% of operating budget, then other requests may be considered. 4. No request may be considered if the amount requested would reduce reserves below 15% of operating budget.
- M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church-related uses.
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:

Incapacity, Joint Committee on

The Joint Committee on Incapacity acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional incapacity to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of incapacity within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are incapacitated, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor or deacon seeking Incapacity Leave, including the source of their disability income. The Joint Committee on Incapacity has begun a study of the utilization of incapacity benefits in our annual conference and how our utilization compares to denominational and jurisdictional averages. The committee will continue to monitor resource levels needed to fund incapacity benefits as one part of efforts to ensure the long-term sustainability of our support for clergy on incapacity leave.

Persons interested in discovering more about the process of being granted Incapacity Leave can contact a district superintendent or the chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The following recommendations are presented to the 2012 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

I General Policies

- A. The Joint Committee on Incapacity, through the Conference Treasurer's Office, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any full time pastor or deacon to make application for Incapacity Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor or deacon, the physician, chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Incapacity Leave can be acted upon. Whenever possible incapacity requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date. Requests presented before May 15 will be included in the Committee's report to the Annual Conference.
- B. Definition of Incapacity: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered incapacitated for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan or the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines, on the basis of medical evidence, that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any incapacity resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
- C. Definition of Clergy: Clergy in The United Methodist Church are individuals who serve as commissioned ministers, deacons, elders, and local pastors under appointment of a bishop (full- and part-time), who hold membership in an annual conference, and who are commissioned, ordained, or licensed.
- D. A pastor or deacon seeking to be on Incapacity Leave secures a disability claim kit from the Conference Treasurer's Office. The applicant completes Form A, has his or her physician complete Form B, completes the applicant's portion of Form C, and submits all these forms to the Conference Treasurer's Office for completion. Unum reviews the claim and recommends a determination to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits who retains the authority to approve or deny a claim.

- E. We recommend that pastors applying for Incapacity Leave be approved only when the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits grants their request for incapacity benefits through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- F. The Annual Conference and Conference Board of Pension (effective January 1, 2007), will fund pension contributions for the Clergy Retirement Security Program-Defined Benefit Plan in the required annual payment for normal cost as defined by the plan document and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for all pastors receiving incapacity benefits from the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- G. The Comprehensive Protection Plan (effective January 1, 2007), will fund contributions for the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Clergy Retirement Security Program-Defined Contribution Plan which is 3% of plan compensation as defined by the plan document and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for all pastors receiving incapacity benefits from the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- H. Health Insurance and Life Insurance benefits are subject to the policies outlined in Section III below.
- I. Pastors on Incapacity Leave are required to file for Social Security benefits within 60 days of the effective date of approved Incapacity Leave. Failure to do so will result in decreased benefits. Participation in Medicare Part A and B is required at the earliest possible date in order to receive the best health insurance benefits. Participants who choose not to participate in Medicare Part B at that date will receive the same contribution towards the health insurance premium as if they were retired. Refer to Section III regarding benefits.
- J. Effective July 1, 2008, we recommend that a lump sum grant of $4,300 be made at the beginning of Incapacity Leave. This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
- K. The Joint Committee on Incapacity will review the progress of each pastor or deacon on Incapacity Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
- L. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Incapacity Leave:

III. Incapacity Policies Related to Benefits

- A. Incapacity Leave participants will have 60 days from the approved date of Incapacity Leave in which to file for Social Security benefits. Proof of filing must be submitted to the Conference Benefits Manager. Incapacity Leave participants approved on or before July 1, 2011 will have 60 days from July 1, 2011 to provide proof of their Social Security application. Participants who fail to provide proof of filing within 60 days will be charged 100% of the applicable monthly insurance rate until notification is received by the Benefits Manager.
- B. Insurance Coverage -- Participants approved for Incapacity Leave must be covered under the Conference life and/or health insurance plan immediately preceding the approval date of Incapacity Leave in order to have life and/or health insurance coverage after the appointment of Incapacity Leave.
- C. Five Year Rule -- Participants must be covered for five consecutive uninterrupted years immediately prior to the date of retirement in order to retain insurance benefits after retirement.
- D. Life Insurance --
 - i. The life insurance premiums are paid by the Joint Committee on Incapacity.
 - ii. Current participants on Incapacity Leave who are enrolled in the life insurance are covered as follows: $25,000 life coverage, $10,000 on eligible dependents.
 - iii. Supplemental life insurance premiums are the responsibility of the individual.
- E. Health Insurance --
 - 1. Effective January 1, 2011, all participants on Incapacity Leave with Conference health insurance contributed the retiree minimum amount towards the monthly insurance premiums ($10 per month for the calendar year 2011).
 - 2. Effective January 1, 2012 all persons on Incapacity Leave (current and future) will be required to pay the retiree minimum amount of $20 per month for the Base Plan. Additional personal premiums will apply if the participant chooses the Buy-Up Plan (rates published in the Insurance Report Section VIII).

3. Participation in Medicare Part A and Part B is required at the earliest possible date in order to receive the best health insurance benefits. Participants who choose not to participate in Medicare Part B at that date will receive the same contribution towards the health insurance premium as if they were retired.
4. If the participant is enrolled in Medicare (part A and/or B) due to Incapacity, the Conference health insurance will coordinate benefits with Medicare as primary, the Conference plan as secondary. Family members (with no other coverage) will be covered as primary by the Conference health insurance plan.
5. Upon reaching Medicare eligibility due to age and eligibility to retire, clergy receiving CPP benefits will receive the same contribution towards the health insurance premium as if they were retired.

Ralph Brown, Chairperson

Insurance Committee

I. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2-Board of Pensions; 1-Board of Pensions Chair; 2-Board of Ordained Ministry; 2-Joint Committee on Incapacity; 3-Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 5-At Large Members. The following members are without vote: 1-Conference Treasurer; 1-Controller; 1- Benefits Manager; 1-Director of Ministerial Relations. The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies. Once elected from its constituent groups at the beginning of each quadrennium, the Insurance Committee's membership will remain established for the remainder of that quadrennium.

II. Group Term Life Insurance

- A. The current life insurance program is provided by MetLife.
- B. Our coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired clergy up to age 72. Effective July 1, 2005 the coverage for retirees age 72 and over is $5,000. Current spouse and child coverage is $10,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates upon retirement of the subscriber.
- C. The life insurance plan is non-contributory. Life insurance premiums are to be paid by the salary-paying unit.
- D. Supplemental Life insurance guidelines (voluntary individual enrollment):
 1. Participant must be enrolled in active Conference life insurance plan.
 2. Initial voluntary enrollment November 1 – 30, 2007 for an effective date of January 1, 2008.
 3. Premiums should be withheld by the salary-paying unit on an after tax basis. Premiums will be included on the monthly invoices issued by the Treasurer's Office.
 4. Late applicants are subject to health questions and must be approved by MetLife.

E. LIFE INSURANCE CLAIMS PAID IN 2011:Total Claims Paid: 13Total Benefit Paid: $100,000III. Health Insurance Benefits*A. Group Health

1. The Insurance Committee will provide the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.
2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
3. The NC Conference health care plan has been amended as necessary to comply with federal Health Care Reform.

B. Policy and Rules

1. Effective January 1, 2004, the North Carolina Conference offered a Preferred Provider (PPO) health insurance plan administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Carolina. Benefits will include health, dental, pharmacy, mental health, Medical Reimbursement Accounts, Dependent Day Care Accounts, and life insurance. Details may be obtained by contacting the Benefits Manager in the Treasurer's Office, 800-849-4433.
2. Effective January 1, 2012 the North Carolina Conference recommends a PPO Base Plan for health insurance benefits with the option of a PPO Buy-Up plan for increased health insurance benefits.
3. Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts must be established during Open Enrollment (November 1 – 30), for an effective date of the following January 1. If you do not claim these funds prior to March 31 for the preceding plan year (plan year being the previous calendar year plus a 75 day grace period of the current year), these funds are forfeited. Participation in the Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care accounts is contingent upon participation in the health insurance plan.
4. A change of life circumstances (divorce, death, loss of spousal coverage) will allow a mid-year change. When there is a change in family status, or a change of address, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where staff persons continue to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
5. Effective January 1, 2004, health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 18 months after employment is terminated provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier. Conversion of the life insurance may be possible by contacting MetLife at 1.877.275.6387 or solutions@metlife.com.
6. Adding new family members must be completed within 30 days of the qualifying event or 60 days if the eligible change is related to the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

7. Participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (30 days from the date first eligible) would may be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. Submission of a valid Certificate of Insurance may eliminate or decrease this 12 month clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage. Children under the age of 19 are not subject to preexisting conditions.
8. Effective January 1, 2004, the Conference health insurance plan will be the primary carrier for active participants who continue to work past the Medicare eligibility age, and are enrolled in the Conference health plan.
9. Retired participants should sign up for Medicare parts A and B upon reaching the Medicare eligibility age. The Medicare Companion Plan is the only plan offered to retirees past this age. Medicare becomes the primary payer, with the Conference plan as secondary.
10. A participant must be covered in the Conference insurance for five consecutive and uninterrupted years immediately prior to retirement to retain insurance benefits after retirement. All participants enrolled on January 1, 2001 will be prorated under this rule.
11. Pre-Certification of all in-patient admissions is required. Effective January 1, 2004, call Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 800-214-4844. Mental Health benefits should be pre-certified through Magellan Behavioral Health at 800-359-2422.
12. Denial of claims or incorrect processing of claims should be appealed through Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. There are two levels of appeal.
13. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Personal checks cannot be accepted due to IRS regulations governing Section 125 cafeteria plans. The personal portion of insurance premiums should be withheld from the participant's salary by the salary-paying unit on a pre-tax basis.
14. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
15. Lay persons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
16. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs. Children under the age of 19 are not subject to preexisting conditions.
17. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

IV. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

V. Eligibility Policies of Non-Retired Participants

- A. If you enroll in the Conference insurance plan, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following the date of hire, or appointment. Coverage is not automatic. Completion of an enrollment form on a timely basis is required (within 30 days of original eligibility).
- B. You must work a minimum of 30 hours per week to be eligible for the Conference insurance plans.
- C. Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to the following:
 1. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full-time or part-time (half-time or greater making one-half of minimum salary as determined by the Pension Worksheet line 7 and working at least 30 hours per week) under appointment in:
 - a. One of the churches or charges of the NC conference.
 - b. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 - c. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - i. Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions may apply.
 - ii. The institution shall be responsible for payment of all insurance premiums by the due date.
 2. Clergy on Leave of Absence, provided a written request to retain benefits is submitted to the Benefits Manager within 30 days of the appointment of Leave of Absence. The participant is responsible for the entire monthly rate (church portion and personal portion) by the due date.
- D. Post Retirement Benefits
 1. Eligibility for post retirement benefits may be viewed in detail in the Board of Pensions Report Section B.
 2. Post retirement health plan eligibility for clergy newly licensed, commissioned or ordained effective July 1, 2009, under Episcopal appointment to a NC Conference responsible appointment (i.e. eligible for enrollment in the Conference Insurance plan) will be based on total months enrolled in the Conference Insurance Plan with a minimum of 180 months total enrollment with 60 consecutive months enrollment immediately preceding the date of retirement for funding eligibility.
- E. Clergy Couple Appointments
 1. Clergy couples will be enrolled in the life insurance program separately. This affords the clergy couple with the maximum life insurance benefits available. Clergy couples are not permitted to cover each other under the provisions of the life insurance. Eligible dependents may only be covered by one member of the clergy couple.

F. Incapacity Leave Appointments

1. Clergy placed on Incapacity Leave can remain covered under the Conference insurance plans, provided they were enrolled and covered in the Conference plan immediately preceding the approval date of Incapacity Leave.

G. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the North Carolina Conference benefits under option V. A-C (above) are entitled to these benefits.

H. Lay Employees:

1. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan.
 - a. As of January 1, 2007, churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue the current participation of their lay employees under the Conference plan.
3. The employee must work a minimum of 30 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment.
 - a. This period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant during Open Enrollment.
4. Persons appointed as Interim Supply are enrolled as lay employees.
5. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.
6. All churches providing post-retirement benefits to lay employees will be billed in full for all premiums associated with retirement insurance benefits. The Annual Conference is not responsible for the premiums of local church retired lay staff.

I. Continuation of Benefits

1. The participant may be eligible to continue health insurance for up to 18 months following the loss of employment or appointment.
2. Written requests for continuation should be submitted to the Conference Benefits Manager within 30 days of the termination of employment or loss of appointment.
3. The life insurance cannot be continued. Conversion of the life insurance may be possible by contacting MetLife at 1.877.275.6387 or solutions@metlife.com.
4. Flexible Spending Accounts are not available to terminated participants, as they are no longer receiving salary from which to with-hold these funds. Funds already contributed must be claimed within 90 days of the termination date.

J. Open Enrollment

1. Open Enrollment is held each year from November 1 through November 30.
2. During Open Enrollment, an active employee or appointee may enroll in the Conference insurance plan.
3. Flexible Spending Accounts must be established for the upcoming year during Open Enrollment. If the participant does not establish a new account during each Open Enrollment, they cannot participate in the Flexible Spending Accounts for the upcoming year.

K. The Insurance Committee continues to explore eligibility options for future benefit plans and questions of church participation.

L. Participants enrolled in the Conference health and life insurance plans may continue to be enrolled in the Conference benefits as long as they are Episcopally appointed, employed as lay staff, meet the qualifications of Continuation as defined in Section G above, and meet the required eligibility rules and regulations.

VI. Historically, the Insurance Committee has developed rates based on maximum actuarially projected claims. The Insurance Committee may use funds in excess of the plan's operational needs to fund post retirement benefits.

VII. The Insurance Committee strives diligently to present the best possible health and life insurance coverage available to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Careful consideration is given to benefits and rates that are proposed each year.

Report B Recommendations for the Pension Program and Post-Retirement Benefits

- I. Funding Plan for Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program

A. Defined Plan Benefits: Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (Pre-82 Plan) provides defined benefit pension benefits to participating retired clergy for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased and is administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBO-PHB).

- B. Current Past Service Rate: For many years, the Book of Discipline has defined Pre-82 Plan defined benefits as a fixed payment per year of past service. This fixed payment is the Past Service Rate (PSR). The benefit goal is stated to be a PSR of 1% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Participation in the Clergy Retirement Security Program requires that an Annual Conference maintain its PSR to at least 0.9% of the CAC. The 2012 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $68,278. The 2012 PSR is $639 or 0.94% of the CAC. Our Conference Board would like to maintain a PSR of at least 0.9% of CAC. North Carolina CAC has increased by an average of 3.48% per year over the past 10 years. We estimate future PSR increases to average approximately 5.0% each year.
- C. Funded Status: The Conference is required to fund all future benefits of the Pre-82 Plan by December 31, 2021. Funded Status (previously called unfunded liability) is the difference of the current assets held by the GBO-PHB for future benefits of North Carolina participants and the total present value of all future benefits to be paid under the plan at the approved PSR. The GBOPHB values assets and liabilities of the plan every two years and projects data to current years based on the increase in PSR and investment earnings. For the 2012 Funding Plan, GBOPHB and the Conference use an assumed earnings rate of 7.0%.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has determined that the portion of the pre-82 plan liability attributable to North Carolina Annual Conference is $46,823,515 with a 5.0% PSR increase assumption based on a 2012 PSR of $639. Plan funds currently held with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits have a value of $15,315,270 as of January 1, 2010 (for 2012 funding plan).

The difference between the total plan liability and current plan funding is $31,508,245. This represents the unfunded plan liability and will be provided through apportionments and non-plan funds that are held in various investment sources. The Conference intends for contributions to be made within the 10-year period, ending December 31, 2021. The minimum annual contribution due December 31, 2012 is currently estimated to be $3,049,854.

- D. Funding Plan for 2012: Our conference pays for plan benefits through several potential funding sources. Both the interest and principal of non-plan funds may be available for retirement funding needs. Below is a description of the non-plan assets available to pay the present value of future contributions. Our Conference expects to utilize annual apportionments from the local churches as the primary source for pre-82 pension funding. Our Conference expects to receive annual apportionments in an amount of $3,300,000 for 2012 through 2015, then increasing $200,000 each year through 2017. Apportionments of $3,700,000 are expected for the year 2018. The present value of the expected apportionments is $18,442,889. This apportionment funding was originally approved by the 1991 Annual Conference.

The Conference maintains a General Deposit Account with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits that has a value of $12,608,857 as of January 1, 2012. Both the interest and principal from this account are available to meet future contribution requirements.

The Conference maintains and manages various liquid asset accounts that are available for Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program funding. The current value of these accounts are $3,523,554 as of January 1, 2012. Both the interest and principal from these sources are available to meet future contribution requirements.

The Superannuate Endowment fund has a value of $390,911 as of January 1, 2012. All of it is available except for the original balance of $87,195.39, from which interest only is available.

The 2012 funding plan as of January 1, 2010 is summarized below:

Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program funding Liability:

Assuming a PSR Increase of 5.0%	$46,823,515
Current Plan Funding as of 1/1/10	$15,315,270
Unfunded Plan Liability as of 1/1/10	$31,508,245
Projected Unfunded Plan Liability as of 1/1/12	$29,781,126

Additional Plan Assets:

Present Value of Future Apportionments	$18,442,889
General Deposit Account (GBOPHB)	$12,608,857
Conference Managed Liquid Asset Accounts	$3,523,554
Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund (GBOPHB)	$303,716
Total Additional Plan Assets	$34,879,016

Proposed Past Service Rate: The 2013 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $68,999. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 2013 be increased to $655 per service year, or 0.95% of the CAC. Assuming 5% future PSR increases and 7.0% investment earnings, this increase creates an unfunded liability of $23,188,728. The minimum annual contribution due December 31, 2013 is currently estimated to be $3,030,756.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) (effective through December 31, 2006)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006 was funded on a defined contribution basis. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. These contributions were placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.

- C. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

III. Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) (Effective January 1, 2007)

Guidelines for the Clergy Retirement Security Program and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office. Service on and after January 1, 2007 will be funded on a combined defined contribution/defined benefit basis.

A. Defined Benefit

1. The Defined Benefit will be 1.25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) according to the plan document.
2. The Defined Benefit portion will be funded based on a percentage of Plan Compensation calculated on a yearly basis using up to the normal cost rate provided by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits multiplied by the annual interest rate. The current assumed interest rate is 7.0%. Therefore, the funding percentage rate for 2013 is 10.4% of Plan Compensation.

B. Defined Contribution

1. Benefits will be provided based on the participant's account balance at their actual retirement date.
2. The Defined Contribution portion funding is based on three percent (3%) of Plan Compensation.

C. Plan Compensation is calculated by the GBOPHB according to the plan document:

1. Vouchered travel and utilities paid directly to utility companies are not used in Plan Compensation calculations since this is considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be local church expense.
2. Clergy couples housing:
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
3. In accordance with the plan document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the plan document.

- D. The Clergy Retirement Security Program contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer's Office.
- E. The Defined Contribution portions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- F. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

IV. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit and disability income. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP, whose charges are paying at least minimum full-time salary.
 - 1. Effective January 1, 2002, the disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. (The DAC for 2012 is $62,781 and for 2013 is $63,867) The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act. This revised benefit applies only to eligible clergy whose disability effective date, as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, is on or after January 1, 2002.
 - 2. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer's Office. (Effective November 1, 2004)
 - 3. Pastors who have been approved for a leave of absence for military service and who were enrolled in the CPP prior to the date of their leave will continue to be enrolled in the CPP under optional Conference enrollment.
 - 4. Death Benefits provide $50,000.00 as the benefit paid on the death of an eligible active participant.
- B. Death Benefits in retirement prior to January 1, 2013
 - 1. For participants who retire prior to January 1, 2013, the death benefit payable upon the death of the clergyperson is $18,834.30 for the year 2012 and $19,160.10 for 2013. This is 30% of the DAC. The death benefit payable upon the death of a spouse of an active or retired participant is $12,556.20 for 2012 and $12,773.40 for 2013. This is 20% of the DAC. The death benefit payable upon the death of a surviving spouse of a deceased active or retired participant is $9,417.15 for 2012 and $9,580.05 for 2013. This is 15% of the DAC.
- C. Death Benefits in retirement after January 1, 2013
 - 1. For participants who retire after January 1, 2013, death benefits payable upon the death of the clergyperson will be fixed at $20,000. The death benefit payable upon the death of a spouse of an active or retired participant will be fixed at $15,000. The death benefit payable upon the death of a surviving spouse of a deceased active or retired participant will be fixed at $10,000.

- D. Effective January 1, 2007, the cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) will be funded by billing up to the calculated percentage to fund the CPP each year using the rate required by the General Board of Pension. For 2012 the cost is a total of 3% of the actual Plan Compensation up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of DAC) on an after tax basis and the church or charge shall pay 2% of the Plan Compensation (up to 2% of 200% of DAC). ¶1506.19 in The Book of Discipline 2008.
- E. Per action by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits the CPP premiums will be redirected to fund the liabilities of other components of the pension plan for 2011 through 2013.

V. Implementation of the Program

The benefit program adopted by your Conference Board of Pension seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and clergy benefits based on the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC).

- A. Costs of the Clergy Retirement Security Program/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 - 1. Effective January 1, 2007
 - FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) – 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion and 2% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 2% of 200% of the DAC)
 - STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion
 - LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion
 - INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY no pension responsibility
- B. Effective January 1, 2007 Deacons and Probationary Deacons serving in Episcopal appointments to a local church or other entity that falls under the pension plan sponsorship of the Conference shall be enrolled in the plans according to the plan document.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the Conference Treasurer's Office through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of the DAC) on an after tax basis for CPP.
- D. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal taxpaid or taxdeferred contributions of at least 3%.

(The following, Item VI, was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

VI. Policies Related to Life and Health Insurance

A. The 2014 budget needed to fund health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., is $2,700,000.

B. Eligibility Policies

1. Five-Year Rule: A participant must be covered in the Conference insurance plan for five consecutive and uninterrupted years immediately prior to the date of retirement in order to retain insurance benefits after retirement.
2. Clergy persons who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty (30) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty (20) of the thirty years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The North Carolina pension credit record used to determine insurance funding for retiring Deacons in Full Connection shall consist of eligible North Carolina earned pension credit years in both the lay and clergy pension plans.
3. Effective July 1, 2007, clergy persons who retire at age 59 ½ with 20 or more years may remain on the Conference insurance plan, provided written notification of this intent is provided to the Conference Benefits Manager. The clergy person will be responsible for 100% of the applicable monthly premium until the attainment of age 62 (Report B Section VI B2). At the attainment of age 62, the monthly premium will be adjusted according to the retirement rules in place at the time of retirement. Monthly premiums will then be calculated at the applicable percentages as defined in Report B Section VI D and E.
4. All retired clergy, spouses and surviving dependents must enroll in Medicare part A and part B when first eligible.
5. Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinued ¶313.1, or Probationary Members, ¶327.6, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶358.3, who are granted Honorable Location, ¶359; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶360.1; who surrender the ordained ministerial office ¶360.2; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶360.3; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶362 are ineligible to receive retirement health or life insurance benefits when payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits begin. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 2008]

C. Retirement prior to January 1, 2004

Clergy persons who retire prior to January 1, 2004 from the North Carolina Annual Conference will be subject to the current rate policy as outlined below. Effective January 1, 2004, there will be a minimum monthly contribution of $10 per participant (for all surviving dependents and retirees with a clergy retirement date prior to January 1, 2004).

Effective January 1, 2012 the minimum monthly contribution as defined above will be increased to $20 per month.

The following policies apply:

1. Before the retired clergy person and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired clergy person will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pension will pay the difference between the clergy person's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired clergy person must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer's Office.
2. If a clergy person who, prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired clergy person must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.

A clergy person who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty of the thirty-five years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. Retired clergy persons and/or dependents with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will be responsible for the monthly insurance premiums as described in #1 above, with the remaining monthly portion shared by the retired clergy person and/or dependents and the Conference Board of Pensions, based on the following formula:

2. The retiree must participate in the NC Insurance Plan for 60 consecutive months immediately prior to the date of retirement.
3. In order to maintain insurance benefits after retirement, the retiree must be enrolled in the applicable coverage immediately preceding the date of retirement.

- H. Effective January 1, 2012 the North Carolina Conference recommends a PPO Base Plan for health insurance benefits with the option of a PPO Buy-Up plan for increased health insurance benefits.
- I. Life Insurance - A clergy person must have been covered under the conference active life insurance plan in order to retain life insurance benefits after retirement. The Board of Pensions does not provide life insurance for dependents of retired clergy.
- J. Clergy Couples Insurance
 1. When one member of a clergy couple retires, medical and life insurance will be paid for the retiree according to the schedules and rules previously listed.
 2. Health insurance will be provided for the spouse and eligible dependents of the retired clergy partner according to the rules and schedules previously listed.
 3. Each member of a clergy couple would receive credit for the years they were covered under the plan.
- K. Surviving Spouses

Surviving spouses of active participants:

 1. Must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the participant's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.
 2. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the health insurance premiums for surviving spouses and eligible dependents for up to six months following the death of the active clergy person.

3. Premiums thereafter will be determined by the retirement rules in place on the date of death.
4. When surviving spouses are employed and provided health insurance by their employer, the plan of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
5. If the surviving spouse remarries, the conference health insurance will terminate. Future benefits under the conference health insurance plan are waived.

Surviving spouses of retired participants:

1. Surviving spouses of retired clergy must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the retired clergy's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.
2. Surviving spouses currently enrolled who married the clergy person after the clergy person's retirement, can remain covered by the health insurance plan. The Board of Pensions grants a flat rate of $150.00 monthly towards the cost of the surviving spouse's coverage. The remaining premium will be the responsibility of the surviving spouse.
3. Surviving spouses of retired clergy who married the clergy person prior to the clergy person's retirement are subject to the payment schedule applicable prior to the death of the clergy person.
4. Effective January 1, 2001 retired clergy persons may not add new dependents to the health insurance plan.

VII. Intent

The North Carolina Annual Conference established health, dental, and life insurance plans with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health, dental, and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plans without the consent of the individual participants.

VIII. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under the health insurance plan have dental insurance. Dental benefits became available on July 1, 1987.

IX. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in the CRSP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (CRSP Plan Document Section 3.3 and CPP Plan Document Section 3.2.)

X. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), any amounts received from the Minister’s Transition Fund (MTF) and including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment, during the year 2012 and 2013 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and
2. THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71 280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used: "I received $_____ from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Incorporated in Missouri; and/or from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline and $_____ from the Duke Endowment (total $_____) as reported on the attached 1099 - R's. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because $_____ * has been excluded under provisions of IRC Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as a rental allowance exclusion. As a retired clergyperson, I am entitled to take this rental allowance exclusion." (In this blank put the least of the 3 amounts on your Housing Exclusion Worksheet.)

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D: Ministers' Transition Fund

- I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund has been established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches have contributed to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those that he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

- II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.
- III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve-month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

- A. Conference Contributions – Funds shall be placed in the Annual Conference budget annually as approved by the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Funds may also be placed in the fund through special contribution by Annual Conference boards or committees. All such budget or other contributions shall become part of the Fund.
- B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.) Such contributions may be paid in monthly installments by check or electronic bank drafts.
- C. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

- D. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to one percent (1%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or one percent (1%) of the Conference Average Salary and Utilities, whichever is greater.
- V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Such contributions may be paid in monthly installments by check or electronic bank drafts. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.
- VI. Base Benefits - Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:
- | | |

If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership -After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account.

Any funds, except as provided below, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts, in the case of members who remained members through the year, and portions of such equal parts in the case of members who have retired during the year and who are entitled to a part-year allocation, as described below, and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

A reserve equal to ten percent of the members' payments and dividend fund balances as of December 31 each year shall be maintained. Unrealized gains on investments shall be reserved and are not generally eligible to be distributed as annual dividends. The Hearing Committee may supplement the annual dividend from such reserves to maintain the declared dividend in an amount consistent with previous year levels when such action is deemed appropriate considering current investment returns and current economic conditions. The purpose of maintaining these reserves is to insulate the members in any year from market fluctuations and preserve the ability of the fund to consistently provide for housing needs in their retirement.

In the event a member retires during a year after completing ten years of membership, such member may elect to submit payment to the Fund of that portion of their assessment for the year equal to the product of (1) the assessment the member would have paid had the member not retired, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of whole months in the year prior to the date the member retires, and the denominator of which is 12. If a member pays the assessment described in the preceding sentence, the account of the member shall also receive as an allocation of dividends for such year an amount equal to the product of (1) the amount of dividends which would be credited to the account of such member had the member not retired during such year, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of whole months in the year prior to the date the member retires, and the denominator of which is 12.

VII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection B of this Article VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limit on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code section 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with that Code section.

B. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415

1. A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:
 - (a) 100% of the member's includible compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3)(E) in such calendar year, or

- (b) $50,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

2. A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service as defined under paragraph (3) below. Such term shall not include any amount received by a former member after the fifth taxable year following the taxable year in which such member was terminated, or utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.
3. A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (2) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service that is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.B to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

- C. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

- IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the ministers death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.
- X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.
- XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 2008, ¶¶358.1, 358.2a, 358.2b, 358.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

- A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund, members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and any proposed or final regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G).

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the retirement date.

1. Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. For ministers retiring between January 1 through Annual Conference, and who retire or terminate from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, payment shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions.
2. Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefits as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited. Interest will accrue on the principal balance beginning on the later of the retirement date or July 1 of the retirement year and will continue until the account is paid in full. The interest rate will equal the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters. All payments excluding the payment of member assessments shall be subject to income tax.
 - (a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the remainder of dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued.
 - (b) Six payment option: The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued. The six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

For ministers retiring between January 1 and Annual Conference, under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers' retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires until the account is paid in full.

For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, the first payment and second payment for either payment option shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Unless the minister selects the six payment option, the account shall be disbursed in full in the first January after retirement. If the six payment option is selected, the four remaining installments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each subsequent year until the account is paid in full.

B. Direct Rollovers

1. This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.
2. Definitions:
 - (a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, any amount that is distributed upon hardship, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).
 - (b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code), a qualified plan described in section 401(a) or 403(a) of the Code, or an eligible plan under section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred to such 457(b) plan from this Fund, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution
 - (c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee.

In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

(d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

3. Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).

XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member and pay one percent (1%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 1% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
- C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
- D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member by paying 1% of the Conference Average Salary and Utilities while on leave.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 1% of the Conference Average Salary and Utilities (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
- B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treassurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing Committee

A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

1. The specific reason or reasons for denial;
2. Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
3. A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
4. An explanation of the plan's claims procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment or modifying the benefit of any member who retired prior to the date of such amendment, unless the amendment expressly so provides. The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

- A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.
- B. Delegation of Authority - The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.
- C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member of beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.
- D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the member's beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.
- E. Facility of Payment - Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.
- F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.

- G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. Cashar Evans, Chairperson

Stewardship, Commission on

The Commission on Stewardship has continued to diligently encourage the mission of being a committed steward as a part of spiritual formation for all clergy and laity throughout the conference. In the last year, we have co-sponsored more stewardship seminars for laity and focused on stewardship of our finances, gifts, personal resources, natural resources and time. We want to promote the belief that every good thing that God has given us should be used in a manner that builds the Kingdom of God and serves the people of God. Difficult economic times and other challenges should not hinder us from being good stewards; instead, limited resources should foster greater stewardship.

The Stewardship Seminar for new clergy members was successful again this year. The leadership was expanded and the wisdom and experience of stewardship experts from outside the conference were shared with the participants. The shared information could be used to empower new pastors to encourage greater stewardship in their local churches and how to become better stewards of their own resources, time and gifts. Our general church is continuously producing more effective resources to assist local churches with stewardship campaigns and other programs that will impact the financial and membership solvency of the church.

As we begin a new quadrennial, stewardship will continue to be a part of our spiritual formation as we stay true to our call to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

District Reports

Burlington District

The Burlington District continues to bear signs of faithfulness at making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Forty-seven of the 52 charges paid 100 % toward their connectional, mission apportionment, for a total district pay-out of 96.43%.

One congregation celebrated an anniversary year: Clover Garden UMC -- 175 years. Prospect UMC “burned-the-note” for and dedicated its new fellowship hall. Orange UMC in Chapel Hill has begun the initial phase of its major church expansion program. Yanceyville UMC on June 24, 2012 will have its closing service of worship after decades of fruitful witness in Caswell County. The previously closed Christ Church in Graham has been sold by the Trustees with proceeds designated for congregational development and revitalization and/or new church launch.

The fifth annual Confirmation Retreat was held at Chestnut Ridge Camp and Retreat Center with some 50 confirmands and leaders across the district. Thirty-six of our 56 charges celebrated at least one Profession of Faith. A district work team of laity and clergy served two weeks in Costa Rica. Twenty-one of our congregations were Rainbow Covenant Churches in Mission Advance giving. The annual January district leadership workshop drew 235 people to 10 class offerings all staffed by gifted leaders. Following a successful Abide I in 2010, a new Abide II initiative, a small membership, congregational renewal and 15-month leadership incubator, was launched among 14 congregations across the Burlington, Durham, Sanford, and Raleigh Districts. The Los Vecinos (The Neighbors) Hispanic and Latino ministry continue to engage in worship, hospitality, and support the growing immigrant population of Alamance County. The District Conference on March 25, 2012 voted unanimously to authorize the district Trustees to sell the district parsonage and office as part of the conference restructuring and downsizing from 12 to 8 districts effective July 1, 2012. As we conclude the final year as the Burlington District of the NC Conference, we give thanks for all that has been through the faithfulness of churches, laity and clergy and await in confidence and trust to what new thing God is doing and will do as we become the new Corridor District. Our prayer for the future remains, “God of grace and God of glory, grant us wisdom, grant us courage, lest we miss thy Kingdom’s goal...”

Durham District

One of Wesley’s rules was “How are you staying in love with God?” The Durham District has done many things since 1885 when it became a distinct district within our conference. Thousands upon thousands of people have professed faith through its churches’ ministries and many human needs have been answered through its work. In this past year the Spirit has worked through the people of the Durham District. That has led to:

Six churches who had their first professions of faith in over 10 years.

- + The launching of a new faith community, The CityWell.
- + Scheduled and structured dialogues about open appointment-making
- + Durham area churches beginning and sustaining a Habitat for Humanity house build
- + Seven churches moving to give either back to full payment of their entire apportionment or developing and sustaining a plan to do so in the relatively near future
- + A church building project completed and consecrated at Warren’s Grove; one project begun at Aldersgate; two other projects approved. A parsonage renovated with an addition at Salem (Granville)

Thanks be to God for the state of the Durham District and the promise of the Holy Spirit to lead us on.

H. Gray Southern,
District Superintendent

Fayetteville District

Located in the office of the Fayetteville District is a report dated December 1, 1974. The resident Bishop was Robert M. Blackburn, the District Superintendent was James H. Miller, Jr. and the District Lay Leader was L. Stacy Weaver, Jr. The District Conference was held at Cumberland United Methodist Church. The Fayetteville District is deeply rooted with a Wesleyan Methodist past rich with faithful followers leading disciples to Jesus Christ.

We have completed our third Incubator group training clergy and laity.

Under the leadership of the district lay leader, Colleen Astrike, the new format for the Lay Rally continues to be a huge success. Each church holds a one day Community Outreach Missions day. A few great examples are, Hope Mills UMC, with the leadership of Rev. Dennis Sheppard, held a community family fun day with games, food and a Gospel Sing. Rev. Woody Wells and members of Haymount UMC continues their on-going Urban Ministry and participated in Operation In-As-Much. Grace UMC served U-Care, a local domestic violence shelter. Rev. Carol Dean and the laity at Hopewell UMC honored Fire Fighters, Rescue and Law Enforcement. They also have a Shaw ministry with prayer for ailing people. Rev. Kong Namkung and his congregation at St. Matthew UMC supported Roxie Center for the mentally ill by providing pajamas and blankets and a cook-out. First UMC Clinton with the leadership of Rev. Bob Redmon packed backpacks for needy children in the community and had a home coming service for the home bound.

The two new Faith Communities in Fayetteville for the Korean community under the capable leadership of Rev. Dr. Chang Bae Kim and in the Spout Springs area with Rev. Matthew Youngblood.

Crossroads new faith community launch with Rev. Chad Pullins, is in its' seventh (7th) year with an average worship attendance of 250 a week. They began a major capital campaign fund last October and broke ground on their facility in May of this year.

The district continues God given success with the Congregational Development Team with Rev. David Gira as the chair. Working with Christ, John Wesley, Harry Hosier, Gardners, Clinton Grace, Angier, Community, Johnson Memorial, Solid Rock, Bethany, Spring Lake, Crossroads, Raeford, Cornerstone, and the two new faith communities, it is apparent of the Christ centered growth that has been experienced by each of these congregations.

Rev. Jaye White, as the BRAC Mission Developer for the Fayetteville and Sanford Districts, has completed her mission and bridged the gap between the local churches and the military at Fort Bragg.

The district Team of Ministries, in partnership with several churches, held very large Evangelism events that not only involved their congregations but, also their surrounding communities. Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the way to life eternal has been the focus throughout the Fayetteville District.

Respectfully submitted,
Sam Wynn, Fayetteville D.S.

Greenville District

The Greenville District of the North Carolina Conference celebrates what God has done in us, through us, and sometime in spite of us, in order to share the Good News of Jesus Christ during the past year. Through worship, mission, ministry, spiritual formation, hospitality, and generosity we have grown in faithfulness and spiritual fruitfulness. In an effort to hold ourselves accountability to the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, we began to measure professions of faith, worship attendance, and missional giving.

In 2011 churches of the Greenville District:

- + averaged 5,387 people in worship each week
- + celebrated 171 professions of faith and
- + 56 of our 58 churches paid 100% of their denominational missional giving

Praise God from whom all blessings flow! Each of these numbers represent lives transformed and relationships with God strengthened.

It has been said that we get more of what we pay attention to and for that reason, 2011-2012 has been a time in which we paid attention to BEING disciples of Jesus Christ and MAKING disciples of Jesus Christ. One of the ways we have sought to strengthen the discipleship of clergy has been through monthly dialogue sessions where participants reflected together theologically in hopes of discovering new insights, sharing enduring convictions, gleaning best practices, and creating community. Clergy in new appointments were offered individual coaching twice a month as a tool by which they could discover, dream, design, and do that which they discerned was God's will for the church. We have sought to strengthen the discipleship of laity through a renewed emphasis on Lay Speaker Training and the creation of opportunities for congregational coaching.

What lies ahead is very different than what lies behind us in regards to the structure of our Conference and District. Yet we celebrate a Lord whose love is constant, steadfast, and enduring when everything else is changing. As Christ-centered people, we have a future with hope and look forward to the next season of ministry that God has for us individually and collectively. Thanks be to God!

New Bern District

The Lord has blessed the churches, pastors, and people of the New Bern District since our last Annual Conference Session. There has been clear evidence of the making of disciples of Jesus Christ who are out there transforming their worlds.

As always, there have been places where there has been evidence of God instilling hope for a better future which are particularly prominent. I am thinking of places like Cedar Island, Cherry Point, Dover, Harlowe, First in Morehead City, Bethlehem, Healing Waters, The Edge, Pamlico, Riverdale, Shady Grove, Trenton, and Swansboro.

This is not to say that God is not working in other places, for he is. Small, medium, and larger churches have seen professions of faith where previously such occurrences were scarce. Bible Studies seem to be proliferating in many of other churches where discipleship is truly becoming a way of life.

Pamlico has completed their addition onto their main structure. Swansboro has approved a 3.5 million dollar addition for the future. Clarks is boldly preparing to accommodate their facilities to expand in order to meet new people as is Reelsboro. The housing and commercial market may be in a market slump but this is not hindering the growth of God's church.

On August 27, 2011 Hurricane Irene swept through the New Bern District doing significant property damage with no loss of life. Almost one-third of our churches suffered some damage while four churches were flooded. They are: Vandemere, Bayboro, Sea Level, and Stacy. Volunteers have come from all over the country to help put our communities back together and offer a visible reminder of God's hands in the world. The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration made grants available to Bayboro and Rhems which allowed both churches to worship in their beloved facilities sooner than would otherwise have been possible.

The New Bern District is closing its doors but looks forward to living a new and even better life as the Sound District. May God be glorified in what lies ahead, a future filled with new places, renewed places, who all become God's places.

Dennis M. Goodwin

Rocky Mount District

The Rocky Mount District, soon to be the Heritage District, has 46 Charges that have been led this past year by very able and capable Pastors. It has been my joy to return to the Rocky Mount District as District Superintendent for this year. What a blessing to have had the opportunity to get into each Charge and conduct their Charge Conferences.

Each of the churches has a story to tell, and it is a story that needs to be heard and shared, and I am glad I heard them. The story to be told is one that turns hearts to the right, as the hymn writer writes, and then that leads to the song to be sung, and the Savior to show to the community and neighborhood and area in which we live and serve.

Since this is the last year of the Rocky Mount District by name, at the District Christmas Gathering, we invited all the former District Superintendents, who have served our District, to come and be with us. Here are the names of the servants that we recall, deceased and living:

- + Walter C. Ball
- + John Cine 1976-1980
- + Jack Hunter 1980-1984
- + Robert McKenzie 1984-1989
- + Caswell Shaw 1989-1994
- + Tom Loftis 1994-1999
- + Charles Michael Smith 1999-2002
- + Bill Simpson 2002-2008
- + Mack McMillan 2008-2010
- + Tim Russell 2010-2011
- + Caswell Shaw 2011-2012

This District is filled with churches who are mission minded. They touch the communities, in which they are located, by feeding the hungry, reaching out to the schools, joining hands with other churches, and also giving to missions through the Conference. We had 20 Rainbow Covenant Churches in the Rocky Mount District in 2011. Also, all but 6 churches paid their full apportionments for 2011. The District, paid as a whole, 90.49% of the apportionments for 2011.

We had a very well attended Lay Rally and we are grateful for Phyllis Jacob's leadership, as our District Lay Leader from 2008-2012. We also had a well led District Ministry Workshop day with 10 classes being taught on April 22, 2012.

We would be remiss if we did not say here a big word of thanks and appreciation to our Administrative Assistant, Fran Stafford. What excellent leadership, and strong business principles, and great presence she has provided over the last 10 years. We all want to rise up, join hands and hearts and establish a vision, God's vision for our new District, the Heritage District, and Donna Banks, our new District Superintendent.

Sanford District

The 2011-2012 conference year has been an exciting one for the clergy and laity of the seventy-five (75) congregations that comprise Sanford District. It has been a year of transition and preparation for our life together in the Fairway District. We have focused our ministry upon "making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

This focus has been sharpened as we have devoted our energy on evangelism through an effort of “Each One Reach One.” This idea has captured the hearts of our people—children, youth, and adults. We are trying to live into the dream of what might happen if each member of each congregation would lead one “unchurched” or “de-churched” person into a life-giving and fulfilling relationship with Jesus Christ. Wow!

We have also devoted our energy upon being missional congregations. Each congregation in the district has been encouraged to commit to at least one transformational ministry to their community. It has been re-vitalizing for the congregations as they have turned their focus outward to the community, as each congregation has become committed to becoming an “externally focused church.”

Third, we have focused upon personal discipleship as it is represented by the stewardship of our resources. Each congregation in the district has been challenged to become a tithing church—tithing time, talent, and money. We know that the church will be strengthened by God’s blessing as we devote our best, our “first fruits” to God and to the Church. Can you imagine the power for transformation and witness the Church would have if we lived into this vision?

One of the highlights of our ministry together has been our support of the Hispanic/Latino ministry within the District. Our district pastors and their families celebrated Christmas and Feliz Navidad with our Hispanic/Latino congregations with a great party in Siler City. It was truly a festive and spiritual fellowship.+

The laity and clergy of the Sanford District are ready for the opportunity to live into the future that God has intended for us as we join hands and hearts with twenty (20) other congregations to glorify Jesus Christ through the collective witness of the Fairway District.

We give thanks for the leaders who have served the Sanford District since its inception in 1964:

- + The Reverend Dr. Virgil E. Queen
- + The Reverend Dr. Joyce V. Early
- + The Reverend James H. McCallum
- + The Reverend Dr. Clyde G. McCarver
- + The Reverend J. Thomas Smith
- + The Reverend James C. P. Brown
- + The Reverend Dr. Roger V. Elliott
- + The Reverend Dr. Jack L. Hunter
- + The Reverend Jerry H. Lowry
- + The Reverend Dr. Milton H. Gilbert
- + The Reverend Dr. Stephen C. Compton
- + The Reverend Dr. Reginald W. Ponder

It has been my great honor to serve our Risen Savior Jesus Christ as the District Superintendent of the Sanford District during this exciting and historic year. “To God be the glory!”

Reginald W. Ponder, District Superintendent
The Sanford District

District Superintendency, Report of the Task Force on

(This report was omitted from the 2011 Journal)

In the State of the Church address to the 2009 Annual Conference, Bishop Gwinn announced the formation of a Task Force to Study the Superintendency in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The purpose of the task force was to consider more efficient and effective ways for District Superintendents to fulfill their ministries in the 21st century. Specific attention was to be devoted to enabling ministries of teaching, mentoring, coaching, vision-casting, and team building among the churches and pastors of the districts.

The task force was named in late summer of 2009 and began its work in the fall. Over the past eighteen months, the task force has met on numerous occasions. The process engaged by the task force included:

- + Surveying the current Cabinet to determine what hinders or facilitates their work of coaching, mentoring, team-building, vision casting, and teaching
- + Theological reflection on the nature of ministry in the Wesleyan tradition, particularly the ministry of superintendency, its evolution over the history of the denomination, and an emphasis on leadership of a movement rather than institutional management
- + Conversation with other Annual Conferences who have recently redesigned their work of superintendency and an examination of the different “models” of superintendency currently being implemented across the connection
- + Reading and discussing together a report to the Lilly Endowment on “The District Superintendency in The United Methodist Church” authored by Dr. William Lawrence, dean of Perkins School of Theology
- + A review of the responsibilities of the district superintendent as outlined in The Book of Discipline, 2008 para. 420-424
- + A comparative study of the composition of districts in the other annual conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction
- + A review of the North Carolina Conference’s history of adding districts over the past forty five years

After a season of study and discussion, the task force agreed that the guiding principle of its recommendations would be the missional needs of the local churches of the Annual Conference and not financial implications. There will be cost savings to the Annual Conference of approximately $380,000.00 annually in the recommendations; however the task force considers these to be a secondary, not a primary, benefit. The task force considered a number of proposals, ranging from slight and incremental change to a more radical and deep change. We acknowledge that there are significant details yet to be resolved should our recommendations be adopted. We believed our task to be the creation of a vision which others would implement.

The Task Force unanimously offers the following recommendations to the 2011 Annual Conference:

1. That the North Carolina Annual Conference affirms that the primary tasks of the district superintendents are coaching, mentoring, teaching, team-building, and vision casting and that the superintendents must be freed for relationship building among congregations and pastors for those tasks.

2. That the number of districts be reduced from twelve to eight (The Book of Discipline reserves to the Bishop, in consultation with the Cabinet, the setting of the district lines subsequent to the Annual Conference setting the number – see para. 415.4).
3. That each district have a full-time administrative assistant to handle all non-appointive and non-judicial administrative matters related to the work of the district, thus freeing the superintendent for more time in the charges and with the pastors.
4. That the Bishop name a transition team to assist the various districts in matters of transfer of property and assets, and creating new district boards and agencies.
5. That it is the stated expectation of the conference that the district superintendent will be in each charge at least annually, but that it is no longer necessary for the superintendent personally to conduct each Charge Conference in the district.
6. That it is not the expectation of this Annual Conference that all superintendents must be present at all conference events and gatherings.
7. That each superintendent serve on no more than one conference board or agency and that no conference board or agency have more than one superintendent as a member.
8. That district offices be relocated out of the district parsonages where this is still the practice.

Respectfully submitted by the Bishop's Task Force on Superintendency: Carl Frazier, chair; Brenda Brown; Christine Dodson; Cashar Evans; Leonard Fairley; Ray Gooch; Randy Innes; Herbert Lowry; Linda Taylor

FAQs Regarding The Task Force On Superintendency Report

Why these recommendations and why now?

For the past several years, there has been a movement across the Methodist connection to re-think the work of the superintendency. In the history of the movement, as the needs of the church have changed, the role of the district superintendent has changed. The office of “presiding elder” as originally constituted is very different from the superintendency we have known in the last half of the twentieth century. As we move into the 21st century, there is a growing sense that local churches need more support in their vital work of making disciples of Jesus Christ. These recommendations are presented to offer a new structure for the office of district superintendent, around which the work of coaching, teaching, mentoring, vision casting and team building can be focused.

“Why now” is simple. Any change in the structure of the districts must be approved by one Annual Conference for implementation at the next. Considering these recommendations now will allow for changes to be in place prior to the arrival of a new Bishop in the fall of 2012.

What are the benefits to the local church?

The primary benefit will be a more sustained and helpful engagement by the district superintendent in helping churches to think strategically about their mission field and assisting pastors in building on strengths for ministry. The goal is to have the superintendents focused on the churches and “in the field” rather than in an office.

Will we really see more of the District Superintendent if she or he is not at Charge Conference? And what if we don't feel like we "need" the D.S. around?

The intention is for the superintendent to be present in each charge annually. The ways that may happen will be left to the creativity of the individual superintendents and congregations. Healthy, thriving communities may only "need" to see the superintendent in a gathering of celebration. Further, by reducing some of the superintendent's administrative load and limiting their time outside the district, he or she should have more time to spend in the churches and communities. "Needing" the presence of the District Superintendent, however, is an expression of our Wesleyan core value of accountability for our stewardship of the movement's mission.

What about finances? Will costs (and the apportionments) go up with full-time Administrative Assistants? Or will we save money?

Projections are that the Annual Conference will realize a savings of approximately $380,000 a year with the reduction of districts (even allowing for full-time Administrative Assistants). Other cost benefits will be realized with fewer district parsonages to maintain and office space to rent. However, it needs to be stressed that financial benefits were a secondary concern to the Task Force. Our primary interest was missional.

Are other Annual Conferences doing this?

Many are, as we said above. There are various models that we looked at from around the connection - reduction of districts with strong subdistrict groupings, superintendents serving dual roles, much larger geographic areas with multiple superintendents in specific ministries serving areas together. We believed this model, with superintendents building strong teams of leaders to partner with them in their work, best serves the North Carolina Conference.

Which districts are recommended for elimination?

All of them. The recommendation is that new lines be drawn, essentially creating eight new districts with new names. The Discipline states that the Annual Conference determines the number of districts while the Bishop, in consultation with the Cabinet, "forms the districts."

How long has the North Carolina Conference had twelve districts?

Since 1972 when the Rockingham District was created. The Sanford and Greenville Districts were created in 1964. Prior to that, the Conference had nine districts.

What about district boards and committees?

District boards and committees will need to be reconstructed. A part of the recommendation includes the creation of a transition team to guide the conference in those concerns, as well as concerns about property and asset distribution.

District Transition Team Report

At the 2011 Annual Conference, the lay and clergy members made the decision to reduce the number of districts from twelve to eight, beginning in July 2012. This decision was the culmination of years of study, reflection, conversation, and prayer. Beginning with a Task Force to study the role of the District Superintendent, the Annual Conference determined that change, deep change, was needed. We believe that the Spirit of God has been leading us toward a convergence of many sources in order to catch a vision of a new, more vital church – a church that builds cultures of discipleship that grows discipleship in our leaders, who then lead others by example into discipleship.

The Council of Bishops has led us over the past quadrennium to a challenge for change in The United Methodist Church. The Council has issued a Call To Action that shared this broad vision with the denomination. This vision of the Council stated “for the sake of a new world, we see a new church – a church that is clear about its mission and confident about its future; a church that is always reaching out, inviting, alive, agile, and resilient. We see a church that is hope-filled, passionate, nimble, called by God, and courageous. It is a church that is passionately committed to the mission and vision of the Wesleyan movement. This church takes risks to serve the poor, reach new people, and search continuously for creative ways to help each person grow in grace, love and holiness.”

Part of the report of the Task Force on Superintendency at the 2011 Annual Conference was a request that the bishop name a task force to bring the district transition into being. Bishop Gwinn named this task force in July 2011 and it included the following members:

Lay Persons: Christine Dodson, Cashar Evans, Emily Innes, David Peele
Clergy: Bishop Gwinn, Leonard Fairley, Milton Gilbert, Cleve May, Linda Taylor
Ex-Officio Members: Tim Russell, Becky Biegger

The task force, referred to as the Transition Team, began its work in July 2011. The team reviewed the work of the previous task force and began to develop ideas for how to implement those recommendations from the annual conference. In order to facilitate the work, the Transition Team created subcommittees to pray, study, and recommend actions for the implementation of the transition. The teams were focused in four areas including Visioning, District Lines and Names, Property, and Leadership. Each subcommittee was augmented by persons outside the Transition Team for assistance. A brief summary of the work of each team follows.

Visioning

The visioning subcommittee was tasked with the responsibility for redefining the role of the district superintendent as directed in the recommendations of the 2011 Task Force on Superintendency. The 2011 Task Force recommended a change in this position to focus on the roles of mentoring, coaching, vision-casting, teaching and team-building. The visioning team spent much time researching the history of the role and dreaming of how this new role could be fulfilled.

The visioning team worked to create a base understanding of the role of the superintendent. The district superintendent is appointed by the bishop to provide oversight to the churches and clergy of a specified geographic area. The district superintendent is to be the district mission strategist and storyteller. S/he leads clergy and local churches in becoming mission outposts fully engaged in making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The district superintendent serves as “an extension of the general superintendency” (para. 417 of The Book of Discipline, 2008) and is a representative of the bishop.

In the new role, the district superintendent must model leadership for all pastors; operate proactively rather than reactively; move from following old rules to finding new paths; move from focusing on regulation to focusing on purpose and identity; move from institutional focus to missional focus; must not just check up on pastors, but rather invest in and actively help to disciple pastors; move from being at a distance to encouraging alongside and inviting conversations; and move our congregations and leadership out of territory and turf protection (where it exists) and into teams.

The visioning team imagined what it will look like to have the district superintendent connecting personally with every pastor every week, investing in every pastor in a discipling relationship, being the example for every pastor on how to disciple others, and inviting every pastor to learn with and from each other in weekly discipleship huddles. The impact will be seen not only in the life of the district superintendent, but in pastors as they grow in their own discipleship, both increasing in boldness and empowerment, growing by knowing every pastor personally and substantively. Everything will change when all people become disciples in our communities and agents of transformation in our world.

District superintendents will move from being primarily supervisors and administrators to being coaches, mentors, teachers, team builders, and vision-casting agents. To assist in making this all become reality, district superintendents will serve on fewer conference committees and boards in order to have time, space, and energy for work within the district. The district superintendent will be more visible in communities. It is expected that four out of five days will be spent traveling around the district meeting with churches and pastors listening to their stories, their hopes, and their vision and assisting in strategic missional planning.

The district superintendent will make use of all the technology available by working from a “virtual” office. The support team to the superintendents will include:

- + Assistant to the District Superintendent: Works under the direct supervision of the superintendent and will, among other things, oversee scheduling charge conferences and secure an elder to preside, answer disciplinary questions, conflict management, property issues including closed churches, and resource district committees. This person will work with the superintendent (on topics or specific persons) to arrange for group training or learning sessions.
- + District Receptionist: Works under the direct day to day supervision of the Office of the Bishop. The primary role of the district receptionist is receiving phone calls and serving as the first contact for all eight districts. The receptionist will work as part of a centralized support team that will be housed in the United Methodist Building in Garner.
- + District Administrative Coordinator: Works under the direct day to day supervision of the Office of the Bishop. The primary role of the administrative coordinator is to provide administrative support to the district as well as assisting the assistant to the district superintendents in district programming. Other duties will include opening and routing the mail, scheduling appointments for the district superintendent and assistant to the district superintendent, scheduling district-wide events and logistics for all eight districts, coordinating updates of the district calendars to keep events and ministry information current and accurate, sending newsletters and updating group email lists, back up district receptionist. The coordinator will work as part of a centralized support team that will be housed in the United Methodist Building in Garner.

- + District Systems Administrator: Works under the direct supervision of Conference Director of Information Technology. The systems administrator will be responsible for the general maintenance of email and web services for districts, mobile computing support and end user desktop support. The systems administrator will work as part of a centralized support team that will be housed in the United Methodist Building in Garner.

District Lines And Names

The first of the transition team subcommittees worked diligently on the district boundaries and names of the eight new districts. Determination of where lines would be drawn was based on population and the potential for population growth in the next five years. The team attempted, as much as was possible, to equally balance the population in each district. Due to the large expanse of land mass in the northeast portion of the conference, the stated goal of population equalization in determining the boundary was not feasible. The subcommittee submitted recommendations for the district boundaries to the Cabinet for approval and affirmation. Through working with the cabinet, churches were named in each district. This information was shared with congregations on the Conference website and local congregations were given opportunity to request a change in their placement. Efforts were made to listen and respond to each request.

The names of the districts, with the exception of the “Corridor,” came from the on-line survey offered to the conference for input and sharing. The Transition Team worked to give attention to feedback offered from many sources. Revisions were made based on this feedback, all of which was most helpful and appreciated. The final version of the district lines, names and churches as approved by the Transition Team and Cabinet are listed on the conference website.

Property

The focus of the work of the property subcommittee was around all issues and concerns associated with district and conference property, legal, title, and other related matters. The property subcommittee worked with each of the current twelve districts concerning district parsonages and offices. Following much prayer, discussion and discernment, it was decided that all district parsonages and offices would be sold. The district superintendents worked with District Trustees to set-up district conferences to approve the sale of parsonages. All district parsonages and districts with offices have been placed on the market for sale. As of the date of this report, two parsonages and one office have been sold, two parsonages are under contract, offers have been received on two other parsonages and the others remain listed on the market for sale. The Transition Team recommends that the funds from the sale of the parsonages be placed in an account to be used for paying housing allowances for the eight district superintendents.

It was recommended and approved that all district superintendents would work from “virtual” offices and make use of currently available technology. This approach is intended to allow for more efficient and productive use of resources to help the superintendent be more present in churches instead of church leaders needing to come to an office to see the superintendent. With the changes in the staffing and budget for the district operations, the allocation and receipt of funding for district operations will also change. In the past the districts have apportioned a District Work Fund amount to each church in the district separate from the conference budget. Beginning in 2013, the funding for district operations will come from the conference budget in the Leadership Team section. This change will be explained in the presentation of the budget by the Council on Finance and Administration. There will be no separate District Work Fund apportionment in 2013. The funding that is received during 2012 for District Work Fund will be used for 2012 operations and to provide what funding is needed in 2013 in addition to what will be available in the conference budget.

Leadership

The leadership subcommittee worked with current district superintendents and district lay leadership in creating a pool of names to place into nomination, for election at Annual Conference, for various district committees. The team worked with district United Methodist Women, Men and Youth concerning district leadership. The leadership subcommittee worked intentionally to ensure that nominations for the new districts would be inclusive and that all former districts would be represented equally.

With the changes made to district property such that there will no longer be district parsonages and physical offices, the work of two of the district committees have been assigned to the same group of district leadership. There are different requirements for the District Board of Trustees and Committee on Superintendency in the Book of Discipline. These requirements were met by assigning the same persons to both committees with the addition of two other persons for the work of the Committee on Superintendency. The nominations for district committees will be made available at annual conference and on the NC Conference website.

In order to facilitate the changes in the structure for the district work, the leadership subcommittee created job descriptions for Assistant to District Superintendent, District Receptionist, District Administrative Coordinator, and District Systems Administrator positions. Job opportunities were listed on the Conference website and applications were received. Following interviews, recommendations were made for persons to fill each of these positions. Announcements on these positions are being made on the NC Conference website as decisions are made.

Summary

The Transition Team will continue to work to help in the implementation of the changes described in this report. As changes are implemented and this vision of a new, more connected role of the district superintendent is put in place, the transition team asks for your partnership in prayer and encouragement for these leaders. All of these dreams can be realized with the true spirit of Christian community through earnest work to hear the guidance and prompting along this journey from our divine Leader. As we seek to follow the path that leads to transformation of the world, we are thankful to be on the path that finds us together in the North Carolina Conference. Please continue to pray for guidance for our district leaders and support them in this new phase of ministry together.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Linda Taylor, Transition Team Chairperson

NC Conference Media Center

The Media Center has added over 250 new resources in the last year including new Bible studies, curricula, videos, and books. Resources by Adam Hamilton, Rob Bell, Mickey Efrid, and Steve Skelton are among the most popular items borrowed. The Spiritual Life Team donated a collection of spiritual formation resources in December 2011 that are on display. To gain a little revenue, the Media Center partnered with Cokesbury to open a virtual Cokesbury store. Any products purchased through our virtual store will earn the Media Center a 5% rebate. The link is on the Media Center's website.

In 2011, the Media Center received 817 requests for resources averaging 3.9 requests every day. Most of these requests were received online via email, chat, the catalog shopping cart, the website, or Twitter. However, walk-in and phone requests each accounted for 30% of all requests. There are many ways to contact the Media Center and all of them are being utilized.

At Annual Conference, the Media Center had a display table and an additional table packed with over 100 VHS tapes to give away for free. Almost all of them were gone by the end of Conference. The Media Center is weeding VHS tapes as less churches are able to use them and attempting to replace them with DVD versions or updated material on the same topic. Look for another VHS giveaway at Annual Conference this year and every year until all of them are gone!

In August, the Media Center introduced a pilot program to loan e-books using the Amazon Kindle policy that allows owners of Kindle e-books to loan their copies once to one person for two weeks. The Media Center began collecting Kindle e-books that were available for free for a limited time. Twelve of these books have been loaned, but the collection now stands at over 100 e-books.

October was National Church Library Month and the Media Center celebrated by adding new features to the website including church librarian training, a guide to e-books, a wish list, and new reviews and electronic resources. Several participating churches received free resources to keep for completing the website scavenger hunt or posting what they were reading. As part of National Library Week in April, the Media Center posted a Guide to NC LIVE to help churches make use of the wealth of free online resources offered by North Carolina Public Libraries.

Looking ahead, the Media Center is in the process of moving the library management software to an open-source program called Evergreen. Evergreen will allow our resources to be barcoded and shelved according to the Dewey Decimal System to make for a much better browsing experience. In addition, the software that will greatly improve the online catalog by providing online user accounts, the availability and due dates of resources, website links, Library of Congress subject headings, advanced sorting of search results, book covers, and more. Patrons will find the online catalog much more informative and easy to use with the added benefit of eliminating the cost of a software maintenance contract allowing more money to be directed to the purchase of new resources.

Resolutions & Reference, Committee on - Final Report

The following actions were taken on submitted resolutions brought to the floor of the 2012 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

[Defeated] Resolution 1 "To the NC Council of Churches Concerning Marriage Position"

This resolution comes from the Reverend Bryan Huffman and asks that the North Carolina Council of Churches change its position on marriage to reflect that of the United Methodist Book of Discipline.

The Committee on Resolutions pointed out that as United Methodists we have a long tradition of ecumenical involvement, which by its very nature includes a willingness to work with Christians and even other people of faith who disagree with us in all manner of things – theological and moral. We work with churches that baptize infants, churches that baptize only adult believers, and churches that reject water baptism altogether.

St. Augustine originated the saying that has come down to us as: "In Essentials, Unity; in Non-Essentials, Liberty; in All Things, Charity." It seems to have been a sentiment embraced by John Wesley who, in quoting from 2 Kings 10:15, said: "If your heart is as my heart, if you love God and all mankind, I ask no more: 'give me your hand.'"

The Committee on Resolutions recommended that the resolution be defeated.

After some debate the resolution was defeated.

[Adopted] Resolution 2 "On Domestic Violence Awareness"

This resolution came from the Board of Church and Society and asks that October be recognized as "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" and that we encourage our congregations to "provide awareness raising information concerning domestic violence available from the United Methodist Church's Board of Church and Society" and to lift up those caught up in domestic violence in our prayers. It also asks that local congregations contact representatives and lawmakers in support of laws supporting programs combating domestic violence.

The resolution was adopted. The full text of this resolution follows:

Resolution 2: On Domestic Violence Awareness

WHEREAS, according to the NC Council for Women/Domestic Violence Commission reports for the FY 2010 there were 95,877 crisis line calls while the North Carolina Department of Justice reports that 107 North Carolinians lost their lives in domestic violence murders in FY 2010; and

WHEREAS, abused women often feel abandoned by God and feel compelled to remain in abusive relationships because of misapplication of scriptural admonitions telling them to submit to their husbands or turn the other cheek; and

WHEREAS, the Church is where persons of religious faith should turn for help and ask for spiritual support; and

WHEREAS, nearly every church in North America has victims, survivors, and perpetrators of domestic violence in their membership or those attending; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence happens in all kinds of families and relationships; and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church (paragraph 161G) state, “We recognize that family violence and abuse in all its forms--verbal, psychological, physical and serial—is detrimental to the covenant of the human community. We encourage the church to provide safe environment, counsel, and support for the victim.”*

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church recognize Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October as a time to help congregations stand in solidarity with victims and those who minister to them; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church encourages all congregations to have awareness raising information concerning domestic violence available from the United Methodist Church’s Board of Church and Society; and

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that all congregations of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church are encouraged to lift up those victims of domestic violence in their midst by praying for them, and by contacting local, and state representatives on behalf of those victims to encourage passage of legislation regarding support for programs to combat domestic violence.

* Social Principles of The United Methodist Church 2009-2012, Paragraph 161, Section II, Item G

[Defeated] Resolution 3 “Concerning Legislative Unfairness/Fairness at General Conference”

This resolution came from the Reverend Paul Stallworth and concerned the procedure and handling of specific petitions before the General Conference. Specifically, there was a concern that procedural discretion was unfairly used to scheduled certain petitions at the end of the Conference session anticipating that they might be dropped due to lack of time.

This resolution named this procedural practice as being unfair and unfaithful of Holy Conferencing, in particular in its handing of Petition 20989, and asked us to direct the Conference Secretary to write and send a letter to “the members of the 2012 General Conference’s Committee on Calendar and Agenda and to all the members of the Council of Bishops.” And that this “letter will include: (1) the text of this resolution, (2) a statement about the unfairness of General Conference ignoring Petition Number 20989, and (3) a statement that recommends that, at future General Conferences, all legislation, that is passed by a subcommittee and/or a committee, be considered by the entire General Conference for the sake of elementary fairness and holy conferencing.”

The Committee on Resolutions took the position that some use of discretion is inevitable and needed to guide the work of the church from the local congregation to the General Conference. Therefore the committee recommended that it be defeated.

After debate the body defeated the resolution.

*“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you.
When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.” – Isaiah 43:2*

At its inception, many doubted that the dream could be realized. Yet, in February 2012, Africa University launched a year-long celebration of its 20th anniversary. It has quite a story to tell.

“We serve a faithful God,” says Dr. Fanuel Tagwira, vice chancellor. “As we now celebrate 20 years of existence, we can say ‘Ebenezer’, for this far the Lord has taken us. He will surely take us further because we serve a God who finishes what he starts.”

Recalling the challenges the University faced during Zimbabwe’s economic crisis in 2008-2009, Tagwira noted that “God was on our side...other universities, primary and secondary schools, and hospitals closed, but Africa University students never lost a day of classes.” For this, Tagwira offered his thanks to The United Methodist Church for its responsiveness and unwavering support.

In 2011, the North Carolina Conference was one of twenty-seven annual conferences that paid 100 percent of their apportioned share of funding to Africa University. The University is profoundly grateful to the leadership and local congregations of the Conference for their generous apportionment contributions to the Africa University Fund. (For more information, visit www.support-africauniversity.org.)

Enrollment at Africa University is at an all-time high. The current total population of 1634 students is 42% higher than it was for the 2010-11 academic year. There are 23 African countries represented in the student body. At Africa University, male and female students are almost evenly balanced—something that bodes well for increasing the participation of women in decision-making and leadership roles in Africa.

New programs are helping Africa University to grow and remain relevant to community needs across the continent. New academic offerings include undergraduate degree programs in Computer Science and Laboratory Science as well as graduate degree programs in Child and Family Studies, and Public Policy and Governance.

The University is preparing to launch online distance learning. Online training options will focus on areas such as practical theology, health, and business. The initial target countries for Africa University’s online distance learning outreach are Angola, Côte d’Ivoire, Democratic Republic of Congo, Liberia, Mozambique, Nigeria, and Sierra Leone.

In June 2011, 349 students from 19 African countries graduated. The graduating class was comprised of 69 graduate students receiving master’s degrees, and 280 undergraduate students receiving bachelor’s degrees. The Class of 2011 swelled the ranks of Africa University graduates to more than 4,000 since first opening its doors in March 1992.

In their home countries, graduates are addressing critical issues of hunger, poverty, disease, lack of knowledge, and conflict, all of which prevent millions of people in Africa from enjoying God’s promise of abundance (John 10:10; Jeremiah 29:11).

At 20, Africa University is part of a crucial feeder system for nurturing a new generation of principled leaders in Africa as evidenced by the number of graduates who are evangelists, pastors, lecturers and administrators of schools, seminaries and universities.

“Many believe that Africa University, voted into being by the 1988 General Conference, is the most exciting ministry that The United Methodist Church has ever founded,” says Tagwira. “It is a model of connection; shared responsibility; and best of all; it is a tangible witness to how United Methodists live out the Word of God in a chaotic and self-centered world.”

This year, encourage your church to give 100 percent of its Africa University Fund apportionment. The Africa University Fund supports day-to-day operations. Your support helps young people acquire the tools and skills to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ, heal communities, enable dignified living, and foster hope. Thank you for believing in and supporting Africa University.

Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary (www.gammonseminary.org), located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religious Education, the Master of Arts in Church Music, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) in Pastoral Counseling, and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). There are also a number of dual degree programs offered in cooperation with seminaries and schools in the Atlanta Theological Association. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. There are at least three significant ways that we have lived out our mission and furthered our vision:

1. Enrolled one of the largest entering classes on record for our institution. This entering class is comprised of young persons (average age of 25) called by God to be prophetic leaders for the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
2. Instituted the Merit Scholars Program, which is a scholarship for incredibly bright and called students, that covers full tuition and fees. Gammon/ITC is able to attract these students because of your contributions to the Ministerial Education Fund.
3. Launched the Center for the Study of Religion and Race. Gammon/ITC's historic commitment to producing public theologians – men and women who are spiritually astute, intellectually keen, politically sophisticated, and culturally sensitive – is advanced with the establishment of this Center. With assistance from the General Commission on Religion and Race, it is Gammon/ITC's desire to continue the great work of addressing issues of cultural competency, advocacy and education in areas that further racial justice and equity.

Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc.

As Lake Junaluska prepares to celebrate our 100th anniversary in 2013 we find ourselves proud of our rich past, energized by the present challenges, and excited about the bright future.

We cannot thank you enough for the generous support you have provided to us over the years. We are a part of you and you will forever be a part of us. We fully understand that the Southeastern Jurisdiction is facing significant challenges resulting in a reduction in the financial support provided to traditional partners, including Lake Junaluska. We want to assure you that we are preparing well for a different form of partnership with the Jurisdiction and you, the annual conferences, but do want to strongly affirm our desire to be in true partnership with each of you.

We are making some important improvements with the goal of serving you more effectively. In 2012 we will spend over $1,000,000 on capital improvements to our facilities including $300,000 from the NC Energy Office for the replacement of inefficient heating and cooling systems. Being more “green” is one of our goals for the future. We will use the remainder of the capital improvement funds to get a jump start on a campus master plan which is a part of the overall strategic plan approved by our Board of Directors in October. Included in the plan are the interior and exterior renovations of the Terrace Hotel and Lambuth Inn, the replacement of the Harrell Center and Jones Cafeteria, and the updating of Stuart Auditorium. These changes will be taking place over the course of the next several years but there should be noticeable changes the next time you come to visit us.

The success of every organization is directly dependent on having the right people in the right positions doing the right things. It is also important to have the right number of people in place. There are fewer people employed at Lake Junaluska than there were a year ago at this time, a necessary change given our financial realities. The remaining staff have willingly taken on additional responsibilities and are doing them very well.

Hosting the 2012 SEJ Conference will be a very important event for us. We are doing all we can to prepare for this conference with the hope that every delegate leaves here knowing that we have been good stewards of the resources that have been given to us.

Our mission statement for Lake Junaluska is to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body. The significance of having a clear mission statement that people remember and refer to has been impactful. Continuing to create a culture of excellence and fabulous Christian hospitality will be our primary focus in 2012.

The future of Lake Junaluska is indeed very Bright! Thank you for your incredible support as we have begun to live more fully into the potential of this place we call Lake Junaluska.

Hymn of Response For All the Saints

- 6) From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearl streams in the countless host, singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
 Alleluia, Alleluia!

Prayer of Commendation

God of us all, your love never ends. When all else fails, you are still God. We pray to you for one another in our need, and for all, anywhere, who mourn with us this day. To those who doubt, give light; to those who are weak, strength; to all who have sinned, mercy; to all who sorrow, your peace.

Keep true in us the love with which we hold one another. In all our ways, we trust you. And to you, with your Church on earth and in heaven, we offer honor and glory, now and for ever.

Closing Hymn Hymn of Promise UMH #707

1) In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
 In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
 In the cold and snow of winter, there's a spring that waits to be,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

2) There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
 There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
 From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

3) In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
 In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity,
 In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

Lillian Alma Blanchard

1931 - 2012

Lillian Alma Blanchard, the widow of the Reverend Dr. George Franklin Blanchard, Sr., was born in Cumberland County, North Carolina, March 30, 1931, the daughter of Coy French Davis and Alma Addie Smith Davis. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. George Franklin Blanchard Sr., who died in 2011. Lillian passed away peacefully in Elizabeth City, Monday, March 19, 2012

Lillian Blanchard was a faithful minister's wife. She took particular interest in the spiritual welfare of the children in the churches she and George served. She is survived by her two sons, George Franklin Blanchard Jr. of Sanford, and the Rev. Randy Coy Blanchard of Currituck; a daughter, Benita Denise Tipton of Myrtle Beach, S.C.; grandchildren, Kristen Marie Walker, Matthew Coy Blanchard, Virginia Grace Mansfield, George Franklin Blanchard III, Whitney Blake Tipton and Ashley Brook Tipton; two great-grandchildren, Julian Michael Mansfield and Laina Leigh Mansfield; three brothers, Robert Davis of Hampton, Va., J.P. Long of Fayetteville, and Earl Davis of Lumberton; and a sister, Dorothy Spake of Fayetteville.

A memorial service was conducted at Rogers and Breece Funeral Home chapel in Fayetteville on Thursday, March 22, 2012, with her son, George Franklin Blanchard Jr., officiating. A second memorial service was conducted at Pilmoor United Methodist Church in Currituck on Friday, March 23, 2012, with the Rev. Alan Swartz officiating.

In the words of the writer of Proverbs,

Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

– William C. Simpson, Jr.

Joseph "Joe" K. Bostick

1922 – 2011

Joe Bostick, age 89, went home to be with His Lord on August 26, 2011. He and his wife of 66 years, Julia Geiger Bostick, resided at Magnolia Glen, Creedmoor Rd., Raleigh, NC. Joe was born on July 4, 1922 in Greensboro, NC. His parents were Percy L. Bostick and Bonnie Auman Bostick. Joe's mom passed away when he was seven years old. The Bosticks' moved to Raleigh when Joe was 13, along with his step-mother Alice Blanchard Bostick, brothers Percy and Ed, and sister, Ann.

Joe graduated from Broughton HS. During the high school years, Joe and Julia Geiger met in the youth group at Edenton St. UMC and married in 1945. During his first year of college at NC State, he felt the call to the ministry and transferred to High Point College. After graduating, he continued studies at Duke Divinity School.

For the next 42 years, Rev. Bostick faithfully served the Lord as preacher of the Gospel and pastor to his congregations in the United Methodist Church. He had the gift of remembering his church members' names, where they lived, and something significant about each one. The churches he served were Seaboard, Kenly, Buckhorn, Lucama, Ellerbe, Webb Ave. (Burlington), Wesley Memorial (Wilmington), Mt. Olive, Lyon Memorial (Fayetteville), Mt. Sylvan (Durham), Rose Hill, Carthage, Knightdale. After retiring, Joe and Julia moved back to Raleigh and re-joined Edenton St. UMC. Joe continued ministry in his church by ushering, teaching Sunday school, helping serve communion, and occasionally visiting the sick. Additionally during his retirement years, Joe started a locksmith business and was the locksmith at Meredith College for 10 years.

Joe Bostick was a family man and devoted husband to Julia. They moved to Magnolia Glen in August of 2005. Some of the things that gave Joe a lot of joy were telling and hearing silly jokes and stories, attending concerts, listening to Sousa marches, esp. "Stars and Stripes Forever", singing the old hymns, and cheering on the Duke Blue Devils. Joe's life-long hobby was woodworking.

He spent many hours in his workshop working on small building projects and fixing things. Most of all, Joe Bostick was a wonderful person and is missed by his family and all who loved him and were touched by his life. He was good to people and fun to be around.

Just six months after Joe's passing, he was reunited with Julia in heaven, who passed away on Feb. 25, 2012. Surviving are daughter, Bonnie Bostick Walker, and son, J. Kent Bostick, both of Raleigh. Joe was grandpa to Ian Philip Walker and his wife, Ashley Walker, (Raleigh), and Hannah Walker Gregory, and husband Gerald Gregory (Statesville, NC). God blessed the family with four great-grandchildren: Jude Walker and Channing Walker of Raleigh, and Kylie Gregory and Walker Gregory of Statesville, NC. Also, Uncle Joe has 4 nieces and 4 nephews, who survive him.

On September 3, 2011, a service of Death and Resurrection honored Joe Bostick's life at Edenton St. UMC. The service was conducted by Rev. Ned Hill and the homily given by Rev. Douglas Byrd. Music was provided by organist, John Herrmann and soloist, Anne Weisser. The family received friends at a luncheon after the service. A private burial followed at Oakwood Cemetery in the Geiger family plot.

Julia Geiger Bostick

Julia Geiger Bostick, age 88, went home to be with her Lord on February 25, 2012. She was born on August 3, 1923, in Raleigh, NC. Her parents were Archie H. Geiger and Margaret Dixon Geiger. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Rev. Joseph "Joe" K. Bostick, Sr.

Julia grew up in Raleigh, NC and graduated from Broughton HS in the first class completing twelve years. She attended one year of business school. Joe and Julia met in the youth group at Edenton St. UMC and were married in their church in 1945.

For 42 years, Julia and Joe faithfully served together in his congregations in United Methodist churches in eastern North Carolina. One trademark of the Bostock's ministry together was their enthusiasm in attempting to help churches remodel their facilities and parsonages. The Bostock's retired in Raleigh and re-joined Edenton St. UMC. In 2005, due to declining health, Joe and Julia moved to Magnolia Glen, on Creedmoor Rd. in Raleigh. Julia was a devoted wife, mom, and grandma.

She loved to cook, to sew, and to travel. Everyone who knew Julia will remember her funny story-telling and unintentional humor.

Surviving are daughter, Bonnie Bostick Walker, and son, J. Kent Bostick, both of Raleigh. Julia was grandma to Ian Philip Walker and his wife, Ashley Walker, (Raleigh), and Hannah Walker Gregory, and husband Gerald Gregory (Statesville, NC). *Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.*

Simeon F. Cummings

1920 - 2012

The Reverend Simeon Cummings was born June 24, 1920, in Robeson County to Neal Patrick and Currella Cummings. He passed from this life into the world to come peacefully, at his home, in the early hours of May 13, 2012.

He married Maude Locklear, daughter of Hayes and Phodie Locklear of the Union Chapel community. They settled on his father's farm where they still reside today. "Brother Simeon and Mrs. Maude" were blessed with nine children, Larry Cummings of Lumberton; the Rev. S. Dufrene Cummings and wife Peggy and McDuffie Cummings and wife Delora, all of Pembroke; Michael Cummings of Ocean Isle; Nell R. Cummings of Leland ; JoAnn Helton and husband David of Madison, Wis.; Gayle Phillips and husband Roger of Charlotte; Dr. Robin G. Cummings and wife Rebecca of Pinehurst; and Kelly R. Cummings and wife Oneida of Pembroke. They have 16 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Simeon Cummings was always a believer in education and entered Pembroke State College, now The University of North Carolina at Pembroke, immediately following high school. His studies were interrupted by World War II. He joined the Army in September 1940 and served five years, including 14 months in England. He achieved the level of sergeant and worked as a medical corpsman. He was awarded the Eastern European Campaign Medal, the Good Conduct Medal and the Army Defense Medal.

Following an honorable discharge in September of 1945, he reentered Pembroke State College and completed his undergraduate, graduating in 1948. His subsequent educational career included attending Peabody College, Duke Divinity School, and King's College of Cambridge University.

Reverend Cummings began his career as an educator in the public schools of Robeson County. He taught for eight years at Piney Grove and Union Chapel schools. With a devoted wife, six children, and despite a stable teaching position in hand, Rev. Cummings answered the calling of God on his life to full time ministry and became the first American Indian appointed to a full time position by the NC Annual Conference. He became a Deacon in 1956 and an Ordained Elder in 1958.

He served as pastor of Prospect United Methodist Church from 1953 to 1973. During that time, the membership grew from 200 to 626. The physical plant grew from a single building to include a modern education building with a fellowship hall.

Other information about the life and ministry of Simeon Cummings are:

First American Indian to serve on staff of the North Carolina Annual Conference. He was appointed as Assistant to the Bishop as Coordinator of Outreach Ministries, Conference Council of Ministries, Raleigh, 1973-1978.

First American Indian assistant to the Cabinet of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, 1985.

First American Indian elected as a delegate to The UMC General Conference, 1976.

First director and pastor of Robeson County Co-operative Parish, 1978 to 1985.

First American Indian to be appointed to Greensboro College board of trustees, 1976 to 1988. In 1989, he was appointed Trustee Emeritus of Greensboro College.

First chairperson (1984 to 1986) and first executive director (1986 to 1991) of The Southeastern Jurisdictional Association on Native American Ministries, addressing the pastoral needs of American Indians in nine states. SEJANAM serves the 15 annual conferences, 23 Native American churches, three ministries of the SEJ, and approximately 210,000 Native Americans of the nine southeastern states of the SEJ.

The great Swiss poet and thinker once said, "Every man is more than just himself; he also represents the unique, the very special and always significant and remarkable point at which the world's phenomena intersect, only once in this way, and never again" And that could be said of Simeon Cummings. He was a remarkable Christian, American Indian leader, pastor, father, husband, and friend. He was always far more than himself.

Jefferson Woodrow Davis

The Reverend Jeff Davis was born in Watauga County, North Carolina, the son of Walter Lenoir Davis and his wife Biddie Houck Davis, on December 2, 1916. He passed into the church triumphant peacefully at his home in Lemon Springs, North Carolina, July 18, 2011.

He is survived by his wife Jean, three daughters and a son, Libby (Bill) Farthing of Johnson City, Tennessee, Evelyn (Mike) Watson of Sanford, North Carolina, Billy Davis, of Sanford, and Martha (Jarrell) Meeks also of Sanford. In addition, there are 12 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

His mother died when Jeff was eleven years old. They were living in the mountains of Ashe County, North Carolina. At such a tender age, the church family, and especially their pastor at the Methodist Church, Glenn Lackey, became a source of great comfort and strength. Even then, God was working in his young heart, the evidence of that grace to be known as he surrendered his life fully to the Lord.

Jeff served proudly for nine years in the United States Navy during World War II. Jeff first worked in the heating and air-conditioning business, but he felt God wanted more of his life. He knew that God had his hand upon his life and acknowledged the call to preach in 1956.

He first served as a part-time pastor in the Elizabeth City District before his first full-time appointment to Glendon Charge (which included Cool Springs, Carbondon, Fair Promise and High Falls) in 1957. After Glendon, he served Morris Chapel and Lemon Springs for eleven years. He later served as well at Saxapahaw and Cordova before returning to Glendon, where he had begun in the ministry. He retired in 1984, but God was still not finished with him! In retirement, he and Jean served Ocracoke for three and one-half years before returning to Sanford. His last service was at Jonesboro (minister of visitation) and Hoffman. He retired fully as he was approaching his ninetieth birthday!

It was my privilege to serve as a colleague of Jeff Davis in the Rockingham District when he was at Cordova and I was at First Church, Hamlet. He was a kind and caring pastor for his people, but for me he was mentor, friend and father in the faith. I give God thanks for our rich association in ministry.

A large gathering of family and friends celebrated his life at Jonesboro United Methodist Church, Sanford, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery of Lemon Springs United Methodist Church.

As God entrusts his treasure to earthen vessels, we know it is impossible to know the extent of the many blessings that came to those who knew Jeff Davis and his ministry, but we celebrate how God used his life. Now Jeff he knows the presence of the Lord and Savior he served so faithfully. We recall John Wesley's words written on the death of his good friend, George Whitefield:

*Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.*

– William C. Simpson, Jr.

James Winfred Hamilton

1928 - 2012

The Rev. James W. "Happy" Hamilton, was born November 13, 1928, at Biscoe, North Carolina, the son of Iron Lee and Fuscia Sanders Hamilton. He died peacefully at Moore Memorial Hospital in Pinehurst, May 3, 2012. He was admitted to the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1953 and served churches in Norman, Pinebluff, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Star, Biscoe and Ether.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held to celebrate his life and ministry May 5, 2012, at Ether United Methodist Church with the Revs. Kay Boone, Patricia Sykes and Jerry Martin officiating. Interment followed in the church cemetery with full Masonic Rites. He was a member of Biscoe Masonic Lodge #437 A.F. & A.M.

Rev. Hamilton was survived by his wife Betty Jordan Hamilton; daughter Sally Williams of Randleman; sons Bill Hamilton of Ocean View, Delaware, Don Hamilton of Lynchburg, Virginia, and Joseph Hamilton of Star; sisters Jane Monroe of Tallahassee, Florida, Irene Trexler of Lexington, Sara Haruyama of Oakland, California; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Happy Hamilton will be remembered as a beloved pastor and friend. He knew that when words fail and tears flow, he could always point to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. He will be missed by hurting hearts that are weeping for his leaving. The great Christian writer, C. S. Lewis, said God whispers in our pleasures, but he shouts in our pain. And so we are encouraged by the good life of a loving son, brother, husband, father grandfather and great-grandfather whose life and ministry always pointed us to the face of God. I am grateful for the privilege of knowing Bro. Hamilton and seeing the grace of Jesus Christ whenever I saw him.

In retirement, Toni volunteered at the Ruth Sheets Adult Care Center at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh and at Cary Red Cross, where she received several recognitions for long-term service.

Toni's spirit of grace gave support to Belton as he received several appointments in the North Carolina Conference: organization of Pine Valley Church in Wilmington; Oleander Church in Wilmington; Mt. Bethel Church in Bahama; conference staff in youth and young adult ministry, children's and camping ministry, adult education; organization of North Raleigh Church; Mebane Church (short version of long story: No, she didn't fall out of the balcony); Trinity Church in Durham; director of conference council on ministries; district superintendent of Raleigh District; and assistant to the bishop. After his retirement in 2001, they moved to their retirement home, Connexion, in northern Durham County.

Shortly after that move, Toni became a member of Bethany United Methodist Church in Durham—more specifically, a member of the fourth row from the back on the left-hand side. At the time of her death, she was a trustee, nursery volunteer, and a Stephen Minister at Bethany.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was at Bethany Church in Durham on September 24, 2011, with The Reverend Dr. Jimmy Weaver leading the service and presiding at the Eucharist. Interment was in the Joyner family plot in Oakwood Cemetery in Siler City.

*"Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go, my daily labor to pursue;
Thee, only thee, resolved to know in all I think or speak or do.
For thee delightfully employ whatever thy bounteous grace hath given;
And run my course with even joy, and closely walk with thee to heaven."*

Died Oct 26, 2011 at Duke Medical Center Hospice Facility in Durham, N.C., after a five year battle with breast cancer.

She had served as pastor at Pollocksville UMC and was the pastor at Campbell's Creek UMC in Aurora, N.C. until her medical condition forced her to give up that appointment.

Funeral Service was Oct 29, 2011 at 11:00 am at Pollocksville United Methodist Church in Pollocksville, N.C. with Rev. Diane LeBlanc and New Bern District Superintendent Reverend Dennis Goodwin officiating.

Burial Service and interment was Oct 29, 2011 at 2:30 pm at her home church, Tuttle's Grove United Methodist Church in Beaufort, N.C., with Rev. Diane LeBlanc and New Bern District Superintendent Reverend Dennis Goodwin officiating.

She is survived by her husband, Cecil O'Brien Lewis of New Bern; sister Mary Phillips Stephens of North Canton, Ohio; brother John Phillips of Red Lion, Pa.; sons Scott Kimbleton of Jacksonville, Fl; Nathan Kimbleton of Boyington Beach, Fl; Michael Lewis of New Bern; Thomas Lewis of New Bern; and granddaughters Brittany Lewis, Ariana Kimbleton, Madalene Kimbleton.

With a BS in Elementary Education from Douglas College, formerly the female part of what is now known as Rutgers University and a Masters in Child Psychology, she had an enduring love for small children. She was involved in many Methodist Church Child Care programs, taught Sunday School and Children's Church in Delran, N.J., New Bern, N.C., and at Tuttle's Grove United Methodist Church in Beaufort, N.C.

While serving as pastor of Pollocksville Methodist Church, she started a program to provide weekend meals for needy children at Pollocksville Elementary School. Called "Blessings In A Backpack", each Friday children receive a backpack containing a weekend's worth of non-perishable food and an optional blessing from local church members. Members from four local churches package the meals, fill the donated backpacks, and pass them out on Friday. On Monday the children return with an empty backpack and a full stomach, ready to learn. Now in its fourth year, the program presently feeds 110 children at Pollocksville Elementary School.

A trust she established shortly before her death provides most of the funding for this program at Pollocksville Elementary School.

Patricia Smith Owen

1933 - 2011

Patricia Smith Owen, 77, beloved wife of the late Rev. J. Malloy Owen, III, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on August 9, 2011 after a long and courageous battle with multiple system atrophy.

She was born Vivian Patricia Smith on August 14, 1933, in Smith Chapel (Wayne County), N.C., to George W. and Blanche Smith. Pat spent most of her childhood in Fayetteville and her youth in Greenville, N.C., where she earned a B.A. in business at East Carolina College.

While a high school teacher, she married Malloy and together they served St. James's MC in Greenville; Horne Memorial MC in Clayton; St. Mark's UMC in Raleigh; the New Bern District (where Pat was the supremely capable District Secretary); Jarvis Memorial UMC in Greenville; and the Goldsboro District (where she was again District Secretary). Following the death of Malloy in 1994 she lived in Charlotte and then in Charlottesville, Virginia.

A genuine lady, of rare beauty and grace, with a wry wit and inexhaustible kindness, she ministered by teaching and example to countless children – including her own three – and adults wherever she went. She took a special interest in Susannah Wesley and the Wesley family, and, like her husband, was concerned to call the UMC back to its historic biblical roots and to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. Pat delighted in serving her Lord and made life sweeter for all who knew her.

She is survived and deeply missed by her daughter Patricia Owen Palardy (Mark) of Charlotte, and sons John Malloy Owen, IV (Trish) of Charlottesville, Virginia, and James Judd Owen (Marion) of Decatur, Georgia; her sisters Martha Cox of Greenville and Emily Rouse (Edward) of Winterville, N.C.; brother Nelson Smith (Joanne) of Columbia, N.C.; and grandchildren Annesley, Elizabeth, John Mark, and Christian Palardy; Malloy, Frances, and Alice Owen; and Dorothy and Isaac Owen.

Pat's funeral service was held in Owen Hall at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Raleigh on August 15, 2011. Presiding were the Rev. Ben Williams of St. Mark's and the Rev. David A. Banks of Pinehurst UMC. Her body is interred next to her dear husband's at Cross Creek Cemetery in Fayetteville.

She was neither embittered by her suffering nor afraid of death – for, like Job, she knew that her Redeemer lives, that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth, and that in her flesh she shall see God.

Taking children on His knee,
Saying, "Let them come to Me."*

William Devine Sabiston III

1935 - 2011

It was my honor to lead the funeral service for Bill, Nov. 7, 2011 in Duke Chapel, a site he had requested me to arrange. Belton Joyner, Kermit Braswell, and Bill's son also took part. Later, his ashes were placed in the Long Memorial Columbarium in Roxboro where he had served and where his family continues to attend.

I had helped in his wedding to Norma Neil also in Duke Chapel more than 25 years earlier. Prior to that I led the funeral service for his first wife, Peggy Johnson, in Edenton Street Church almost exactly 27 years before his. We also shared in celebrating weddings of our respective children. In other words, for nearly all of our ministries we enjoyed a close friendship. That's a special gift for two pastors in an appointive system, and it even survived my being his district superintendent in his final appointment.

People were drawn to Bill for his ebullience, his love of life, and his excellence as a pastor and preacher. Many of us enjoyed his hospitality prior to Duke-Carolina football games, at oyster roasts in his Treyburn home, and of course on "Rambunctious," the sailboat he and Norma learned to sail in dry-as-a-bone Chapel Hill. But Bill persisted in believing that UNC-Chapel Hill was the center of all learning even in nautical matters. Those of us privileged to sail with him seldom saw him happier than when he was at the helm of his beloved boat surrounded by friends, family, and God's beautiful creation.

Bill was born in Wilmington, July 31, 1935, the son of William D. and Thelma Maye Waters Sabiston. He graduated from high school in Carthage. His academic preparation included earned degrees from UNC-CH and Duke University Divinity School, and post-graduate work at Yale and Edinburgh.

He served Stokes, Salem (Burlington), Vance Charge & Bethlehem-Shady Grove as a student, then was founding pastor of St. Andrew's in Garner. Garber, Wallace, Epworth (Durham), Fairmont (Raleigh), Conference Staff, Trinity (Troy), Long Memorial, and First: Roanoke Rapids completed his 46 years of faithful and effective service as one of Christ's ministers in the North Carolina Conference.

A little while back I noted that we seldom saw Bill happier than when he was sailing his boat. Let me tweak that by adding that I never saw Bill happier than when he was in the Pulpit, behind the Lord's Table, or at the Font proclaiming in word and sacrament the good news of God's great love for each one of us in Jesus Christ. He held on to that faith through his tough final months battling cancer, and so we commended him to God who loves us with a love that will not let us go. That's the gospel Bill proclaimed so winningly over nearly five decades, and it still rings true.

Prior to entering the ministry, Robert worked in the food and service industries. Known for his gentleness and compassion, he was in his seventeenth year of ministry in NC. Over his seventeen years of ministry, he served the Franklinville/Rehobeth United Methodist Churches Charge in Franklinville and Ramseur, NC; Asbury United Methodist Church in Washington, NC; Smith United Methodist Church in Roanoke Rapids, NC; and was, at the time of his death, the pastor of Mt. Hermon United Methodist Church in Graham, NC. His greatest desire was for people to know and feel God's love and accept God's salvation that was so freely given to us all.

Robert was a loving and devoted husband, father, son, brother, nephew, uncle, and cousin to all of his family. He is survived by his wife, Janna Caviness Shelton of Siler City, NC, his daughter, Crystol Shelton Gerding and her husband, Alan, of Copley, OH, his daughter, Anna and his two sons, Wesley and Luke Shelton, all of Siler City, NC, his mother and stepfather, Patricia and John Stevenson, of West Jefferson, OH, his father and stepmother, James and Sandi Shelton, of Palm Beach Gardens, FL, his brother, Bryan (Jenny) of Columbus, OH, his stepbrother, Shawn (Charlene) of Plain City, OH, his in-laws, Rev. James and Jackie Caviness of Siler City, NC, his brother-in-law, Jamie (Sally) of Greenville, NC, sister-in-law Joan (Scot) of Raleigh, NC. He will forever be remembered and loved by his wife, children and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Robert's very young children want to say that they have not only lost their father but they have also lost their best friend and they want to say that if their father cannot be with them, they are happy he can be with Jesus.

Dixie Poe Huske Wells

Dixie Poe Huske Wells, 83, of Laurinburg, North Carolina, died on November 14, 2011. She was a much loved wife, mother, grandmother, friend, and teacher.

She was born and reared in Fayetteville, North Carolina, the only child of Thomas Hybert and Hilda Poe Huske. She is survived by her husband of 45 years, William M. ("Bill") Wells, Jr., of Laurinburg, and their only child, Dixie T. Wells, of Greensboro. She is also survived by Dixie's husband, L. Patrick Auld, and her beloved granddaughter.

She was determined and courageous. She overcame a polio diagnosis on her twelfth birthday in 1940. After spending a year without her parents at the rehabilitation hospital in Warm Springs, Georgia, she returned to Fayetteville wearing braces from the neck down. For years to come, she worked at improving her mobility until, at the age of 48, she climbed the steps to the top of Big Ben (in London) – no braces, no cane. She survived a broken ankle, breast cancer, a broken femur, and colon cancer.

She loved learning and teaching. She was graduated from Greensboro College in 1950 and earned a masters degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She read passionately – everything from the newspaper to the latest novel – and enjoyed her book club. She taught math for a number of years – first in Hope Mills and later at Greensboro Senior High School (which became Grimsley Senior High School). She was honored professionally with induction into Delta Kappa Gamma, but took even greater satisfaction in showing her six-year old granddaughter how to borrow tens when subtracting and how to solve simple algebraic equations.

She devoted herself completely to whatever she did and her loyalty inspired loyalty in others. After she married Bill, she dedicated herself to supporting his ministry as State Director of Campus Ministry and pastor in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and in England. Churches served included Saint Luke UMC (Laurinburg), Knightdale UMC, Duke's Chapel UMC (Durham), Conway UMC, Robersonville UMC, Saint Andrews Methodist Church and Queensgrove Methodist Church (Northampton, England), Wrightsville Beach UMC, Norman UMC, and Saltburn Methodist Church and Marske Methodist Church (Saltburn-by-the-Sea, England). She was active in the Scotland County Democratic Women.

Up until the time of her death, she maintained close friendships with the children of her mother's college classmates, childhood neighbors, people she met while Bill was serving in local churches, and people she met recently. Her friendships were not defined by longevity, age, race, or political affiliation. Her funeral was held at Saint Luke United Methodist Church in Laurinburg, with the Reverend David Blackman conducting. A graveside service was held at Maplewood Cemetery in Wilson.

Thaddeus "T.C." Clifton West, Jr.

T.C. was born May 9, 1933 in Wayne County to the late Thaddeus Clifton West, Sr. and Lilla Best West. He served his country in the United States Army. T.C. graduated from Atlantic Christian College and later received a Master's Degree from East Carolina University in Education and Administration. He worked with Goldsboro/Wayne County Schools for thirty one years as a teacher and principal.

T.C. served Pikeville Union, Rosewood, Goldsboro Junior High, Goldsboro High School West, Dillard and Norwayne schools as a teacher or administrator. He attended Duke Divinity School and served his Lord as an ordained minister for fifty years. During his fifty year ministry, T.C. served the Lord as a Methodist Minister at Zion, Indian Springs, Seven Springs, Jerusalem, Airboro, Garriss Chapel, Bethel, Beston and Walker Memorial. He served as chaplain for Goldsboro Milling Company and was a member of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department Advisory Committee. T.C. taught Sunday School at St. Luke United Methodist Church and was an active member of Goldsboro Tuesday Morning Prayer Breakfast. As a young man, T.C. played semi-pro baseball in Wayne County and later was very active in youth baseball in Eastern Wayne County. He was a member of the New Hope Ruritan Club and a former member of the New Hope Volunteer Fire Department. T.C. enjoyed gardening, working in his yard and was well known for his barbecue sauce. He enjoyed speaking to groups and was well-known in the area as a devotional and motivational speaker. T.C. was a Christian example of service to his Lord, family and community. As a supportive grandfather, he greatly enjoyed following his grandchildren to their many activities.

T.C. is survived by his wife of fifty two years, Ellen Gray West; four children Thad West and wife, Barbara, Dianne Johnson and husband, Johnny, Tim West and wife, Jodi, Chris West and wife, Paula; sister, Marjorie West of Goldsboro; twelve grandchildren, Elizabeth West, Hanna West, Ty West, Clay West, Tate West, Morgan Johnson, Grace West, Anna West, Emalia West, Coy West, Cade West and Brylee West. All survivors reside in Goldsboro, N.C.

He was a special kind of person who showed much generosity to his community. Furthermore, he seemed to have an interesting and refreshing perception about things. He was diversified and had equal mastery of any job he attempted. Clearly, he was no mere spectator of life but an energetic and involved leader. As a person who suffered from pulmonary fibrosis for several years, he proved that he could overcome adversity and continue many of his activities. On 11-11-11, the "sweet chariot" that he had been waiting for came down and carried him to his heavenly home. In one of the numerous poems that he wrote, he indicated that when the time came he would have his bags packed and ready to go. A graveside service was conducted by Rev. Adam Seate at the La Grange cemetery in La Grange, N.C.

With the hymn-writer he could say,

*When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died;
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.*

*Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were an offering far too small;
love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.*

– William C. Simpson, Jr.

William F. Williams

1943 - 2011

William F. Williams (Bill) was born in Ellerbe, NC on November, 1943.

He died on September 12, 2011 at his home in Aberdeen, NC.

A service to celebrate his life was held on September 16, 2011, at Pinebluff United Methodist Church where he was serving as retired Elder in the United Methodist Conference. The Reverend Dr. Reginald Ponder, District Superintendent of the Sanford District, officiated at the service.

Bill was the son of the late Carrie Hicks and William L. "Bill" Williams. Following a ten year career with United Telephone Company, Bill entered the Methodist Ministry attending Sandhills Community College and Pfeiffer College where he graduated Summa Cum Laude with a degree in Philosophy. He earned a Master of Divinity degree from Duke University and was ordained Elder of The United Methodist Church on June 19, 1988. He served United Methodist churches in the Sandhills Circuit, West Rockingham, Sanford, Atlantic, Lillington, Troy, and Pinebluff.

Bill was known for his deep love for the Scriptures and his scholarly approach to the study of them. His evangelical and lively delivery of his sermons made a compelling defense of the Gospel. Bill was a quiet individual with a wry sense of humor. He made many friends at the churches he served and was always ready to witness to his faith.

Bill is survived by his wife, Edna, their son, Bill Scott and his wife, Lia, and three grandchildren, Isabel, Lee, and Catherine, one brother Preston and wife, Taska and their two sons.

Neal E. Wingfield

1943 - 2012

Reverend Neal E. Wingfield was born in Lynchburg, Virginia on October 10, 1943 and died in Wilmington, North Carolina on January 15, 2012.

He is survived by his wife, Page L. Wingfield of Goldsboro, NC, his son Joseph Wingfield and wife, Heather of Raleigh, NC and his daughter Stella Wingfield Cook and husband, Bradley of Durham, NC.

His Memorial Service was held at Salem UMC in Goldsboro, NC with Reverend Sandy Schaller, Reverend Randy Maynard, and Reverend Francis Daniel officiating.

Following active duty in the U. S. Navy, Neal returned to his studies at Campbell College. He and Page were married in January 1970. Six months later, he was diagnosed with Hodgkin's Disease and was treated in a clinical trial at the National Institutes of Health. He recovered and remained in remission for over 40 years.

He completed his undergraduate degree in Business Administration in 1971. He went to work for NIH and had a 23 year career with the federal government. During that time he was a member of the Apex Lion's Club, serving in several leadership roles: President, District Secretary-Treasurer, and representative to the Carolina Organ Procurement Agency. He was the recipient of the first Holt Memorial Award for Outstanding Service by the NC Eye and Human Tissue Bank.

The desire to serve and give back to others was both part of his nature, and thanksgiving for his own recovery from cancer. In 1989, after heart by-pass surgery, he could no longer ignore the call to ministry that had followed him most of his life. He began the inquiry process to ministry and entered Duke Divinity School in the spring of 1995, graduating in the spring of 1998.

Neal served the following churches over eighteen years: 1993-1996 - Jenkins Memorial UMC (Raleigh), 1996-1998 - Palmer's Grove-Eno Charge (Hillsborough), 1998-2004 - Brownings-Smith Chapel Charge (Mt. Olive), 2004-2009 - Salem UMC (Goldsboro), and 2009-2011 - Fifth Avenue UMC (Wilmington).

His own life experiences contributed to his compassionate nature, and he brought to each of his pastorates a kind and loving demeanor, a ready smile and a hearty laugh.

Neal and Page were married for 42 years and were blessed with two wonderful children, Joseph and Stella. Family was very important to Neal and doing things together gave him great joy.

Because of his recovery from cancer, he was not one to put things off. He was the driving force behind many wonderful trips the family took and always was eager to try new things. He became involved with sports, dance recitals, scouting and everything that was important to his children. He fostered open communication and his children loved and respected him and went to him easily for counsel and advice.

Neal found joy in living because he firmly believed his life was a gift given to him by the Grace of God. That is his legacy to his family and all who knew him.

Frank Woriac

1938 – 2012

Dr. Frank Woriac, faithful and loving husband of the Reverend Carolyn Cummings-Woriac, was born January 26, 1938. He died peacefully at his home May 30, 2012. Dr. Woriac was beloved by his patients and friends as well as his family.

A funeral service was held Sunday, June 3, 2012 at Prospect United Methodist Church where he had served for years as a greeter and Sunday School teacher.

Frank's mother died when he was only 4 years of age, leaving six young children, George, Evelyn, Leonard "Pop's", Susie, Frank, and Lois to the care of her mother, Matilda Jones

Worlax. Frank once said he remembered one song sung at his mother's funeral, "Will the Circle Be Unbroken." It was a hope he held to the very last.

Frank's grandmother's care and discipline was instrumental in helping him to be successful in his education, his medical career and the Christian life. His early education was hindered during one year for he had no shoes to wear to school. He overcame a severely burning in an accidental fire while he and his brother, Leonard, were crisscrossing trees for fire wood to heat their grandmother's home.

He graduated from Pembroke High School and worked in a bakery in Buffalo, N.Y. In December 1957, Frank enlisted as a hospital corpsman in the U.S. Navy at Newport News, Va. Soon thereafter, he continued to advance with additional training, and after graduation, was assigned as a hospital corpsman aboard ships and submarines.

After his return home, Frank worked briefly at ACME Electric in Lumberton and entered Pembroke State College for a year. Needing financial support, Frank attended school and worked as a manager of a small business in Pembroke.

During that same academic year, he was accepted into the first class of the new physician assistant program at Duke University Medical Center. After a year, he was accepted into medical school at Duke University, graduating in 1976, the first Native American to graduate from Duke's Medical program. He completed two years of residency in family medicine, and then Frank and his family moved back to Pembroke.

Frank enjoyed life and his love encompassed devotion to Christ first and foremost. He will be missed by his family and his Jack Russell, "Missy

He said to Carolyn, "You know, I am a 'New Beginning' because of Christ, the Alpha and the Omega. He died and rose from the dead with a new body, so therefore when I die I am a New Beginning. Carolyn said that some of his last spoken words were "I love you" and "I love my family."

While working at, then, Wake County Hospital, now Wake Medical Center, in 1969, she met the love of her life Leroy Worth Sr. and was joined marriage to him on September 11, 1971, for more than 40 years. To this union were born two sons: Timothy and Jerome. She was also step-mother to Leroy's two sons: Leroy Jr., and Milton, whom she loved the same as her own biological sons.

Upon graduating from Saint Augustine College in 1970, she worked six years at NC State University testing seeds for the Federal Government, leaving in 1975 to join her husband as a co-partner in a business venture, Beauty World Supply and Rennett's Discount Center Stores.

2012-13 Alphabetical Roll Of Clergy In The NC Conference With Status And Pastoral Records

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference clergy, both active and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the far right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference, after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.
