Boost Your Savings for Retirement

The NC Conference Transition Fund is an additional way qualified participants can save money and earn additional contributions toward their retirement savings. This added Transition Fund contribution increases the participant's personal savings for retirement and earns credit toward an additional discretionary contribution by the NC Conference each year to the participant's UMPIP account. Earning the conference contribution begins after 5 years of membership! Visit <https://nccumc.org/treasurer/pension/transition-fund/> for more info!

Saving Grace: A Guide to Financial Well-Being

Saving Grace is a six-session program based on Wesleyan values that provides participants with the text and tools needed to address the topics of saving, earning, and giving. The curriculum is suitable for clergy and lay for study as individuals or a small group. Find it in the Conference Media Center or Cokesbury.com.
